COUNTY SEAT
 NEWS

A rain commenced Saturday night that lasted pretty well all night and was renewed Sunday afternoon. As it rained slowly and steadily it was all consumed by the thirsty soil and will do a great deal of good to the range and the cultivated ground.

Little Billie Kirby, son of our deputy county treasurer suffered a very painful accident Saturday when playing with some other children with a large push cart. He fell off and catching his leg in the spokes of the wheel had the muscles badly lacerated.
 Under the careful attention of Dr. Daniels he is recovering nicely and it is believed that no permanent injury will result.

A meeting of the citizens of Mosquero met at the school house Saturday eve., for the purpose of nominating the first set of village officers. Every thing went off harmoniously, no attention was paid to party lines and there will be but one ticket placed in the field. Those nominated were Benj. F. Brown, for Mayor. (that's us) W. P. Mealey Jr. City Clerk and Hon. Malaquias Baca, L. H. Brock, A. A.
 Wynne and Faustin Hernandez for Board of Trustees. The election will be held on Tuesday the 16th.

At a meeting held at the home of W. T. Lofton on Friday night a threatened fight for the positions of members of the new municipal board of education, recently created by the incorporation of Mosquero was happily harmoniously averted by a compromise ticket and Mosquero again emerged triumphant in the matter of hearing to cooperation that is fast putting the little town on the map. As a result of the meeting but one ticket will be placed in the field and voting for it will be but a mere formality. It was unanimously agreed that the old board should be placed on the new board of education and Messrs H. T. Clinnard and R. Lopez be added to complete the five members required. All of which exemplifies the fact that the people of Mos-quero are working together and intend to have the livest, best and most up-to-date little towns on the mesa.

The teachers are now busily engaged in preparing the children for their final examinations and the commencement exercises that will be held at the close of school. Mosquero has had a very successful school this year and the teachers are to be commended for their excellent work done. We have learned that a great entertainment will be put on at the closing and one that will be both a pleasure and a treat to hear.

We understand that Mrs. Isabel Brown, one of the Mosquero teachers has been elected to the principalship of the San Eliza-rio schools, near El Paso, Texas and that soon after the Mosquero school closes that she will leave for her new home. Mrs.
 Brown has been a hard-working conscientious teacher for several years in our city schools and we are inclined to envy the little Texas city their good fortune in securing her services but feel that she is entitled to a location that is near a large city and offers more advantage than our little town can offer at the present time.

The political bees are beginning to buzz around over the country and a number of prospective candidates are beginning to sit up and take notice that election time will soon be here.
 The more candidates that offer themselves the better the opportunities the two conventions will have to select good men for the various offices on the ticket.
 The more material the convention have from which to select the best timber to better the ticket that can be gotten out by both parties. If you think that you are fitted to hold an office why get into the game early, let your friends know of your candidacy before they make promises to some one else. Don't be bashful, announce your candidacy in plenty of time and then go into the convention resolved to help select the best man and at all costs be a good winner and a better loser. Come on in, boys, the water is fine.
 We don't want an office ourselves, we are satisfied with being mayor of Mosquero, but if we did you could bet your bottom dollar that we would be out we would keep working until the day after the convention adjourned.

Say, did you know that Mos-quero is growing? If you don't think so, just come down and look at the buildings that are springing up and listen to the plans for the new buildings that are to be started in the near future. We were surprised ourselves when we looked up the population for incorporation, purposes. There were but 360 acres taken into the limits of the incorporation, didn't have to go out into the farms to get enough inhabitants and when we got through taking the census we discovered that we had a population of 448 inhabitants. Don't have to count the dogs and cats, either, although we must admit that the larger part of them are children. We didn't know that there were so many babies in all the universe as we found scattered over the little town of Mosquero.

New York—Wallowing into Constantinople harbor recently during heavy rain, a cargo vessel carrying five hundred children and three thousand Greek adult refugees from South Russia appealed to the American Relief officials for clothing, says a cabled report received here.
 Huddled on unsheltered decks, half-naked men and women pleaded for something to replace their water-soaked rags.

According to a cable from the Near East Relief organization, the American relief workers were unable to provide even a coat for one of the children.
 The cable announces that the supply of old clothing sent from America has been exhausted.
 The relief authorities, facing probable death by exposure among Caucasus famine sufferers next winter unless clothing can be secured and receiving calls from other refugee ships, has asked for an American-wide collection of discarded clothes for immediate shipment.

American tourists visiting Constantinople on a Mediterranean cruise were so struck by the need generally that those on the S. S.
 Carmania, led by Edward Cary, of Providence, R. I., arranged to send back from Naples some of the cast-off winter clothes of the tourist party.

The cargo boat had been sixteen days getting to Constantinople from Nomorossisk on the Black Sea, with the refugees living on limited bread and salt sea water mixed with fresh.
 Two men had died. Many were ill. A widow, with two children had boarded the boat half a month before with only a loaf of bread for the three. She had found bread among others refugees for the children but her own privation had brought on fever. The relief organization joined with the Greek High Commission in providing food but the boat continued to Kavala, a refugee port, without the clothing for which the storm-exposed people were pleading.
