JOHN E. BROCKMAN FOR COUNTY TREASURER

In this weeks issue of the Spanish American will be found the announcement of John E. Brockman of Mills for the office of County Treasurer subject to the action of the Democratic Convention and the November election.

Mr Brockman is a young man of excellent character and qualities and fitted in every way for the important office he is seeking, and his nomination in the Democratic Convention will mean a Democratic County Treasurer for Harding County for the next two years.

Mr Brockman is the son of Mr and Mrs W. L. Brockman of east of Mills and is twenty seven years old. He comes from a Democratic family whose decedents are democrats, yes good old Missouri Democrats who have worked for the good of the party for many generations. He came to New Mexico from Missouri in 1909 and has been practically educated and reared in the sunshine state, and altho the family has spent 12 years on the mesa, none of them have ever asked for an office before from their party.

Mr Brockman is one of the boys who offered his life for his country in the late war; he was one of the first to go to camp from this part of the state and among the first to go over seas and his war record is among the brightest of any of the boys of the mesa He was on the firing line for seventy two days and was in some of the great battles fought in the war. There is but one other boy in Harding County Manning Osborne, who has an equal record for length of time in trenches, and in view of the fact that he did his part while many of the rest stayed at home, is it not true that we owe the boys something for the great work they have done? Both of the political parties in power will have to take recognition of the fact that the Soldier boys must be remembered when naming their tickets this fall, for should this fact be overlooked it will sound the death knell to the party who forgets the soldier boys. We owe them much and the best we can give them will be short indeed of what is due them.

Mr Brockman tells us that he will make a personal campaign of the county before the convention and wishes to meet each democrat and he wants the public to know that if they see fit to nominate and elect him, that he will take personal charge of the office himself and be on duty at the office each day.

So far he is the only man announced for this important office, and is the only person seeking office on the democratic ticket from the immediate Mills vicinity, and he will no doubt be nominated. Any support you can give him will be greatly appreciated by himself and his many friends of Harding County. Advertisement.
