E. L. Ozanne has a stamp mill work on his Dark Cloud ore, which pays reasonably well for a small company.

The Rev. Stovall of White Oaks preached Sunday to a very good audience.

The school is progressing nicely under the able management of Miss Ida Stoneroad, of Colorado, Texas. School will continue through July and August.

We can now hear the whistle of the engine on the El Paso and Rock Island R. R., which means prosperity for this camp in the near future. The road is only 9 miles north of this place, which puts us in touch with the outside world.

The mail has changed its time of departure and arrival; it now leaves at 8 a.m. and arrives at 4 p.m.

John Hightower has moved his goats back into the mountains.

Mrs. J. C. Lacy was here last week visiting her daughter Mrs.
Henry Walker.

There is nothing new in a mining way here this week. There is a rumored sale on for a group of promising prospects, but nothing will be given out until later.

W. H. Lane is putting up a shingle mill on Eagle Creek, and will add a grist mill in time to handle the fall crop, then we will have good fashioned corn bread.

Jas. E. Cree is at home again for a short time. The V V Ranch is gathering a herd of cattle which will be driven to Roswell in a few days for shipment to Mr. Cree's ranch in the Panhandle.

The Rev. Chafin and wife organized a Sunday school at Henry Walker’s new homestead last Sunday.

Seventeen pupils were enrolled.
Our young people are greatly plated over the fact that they are able to have those advantages as well as attending Mr. Eesty. Miss Marie Jackson the stenographer, is an accomplished, Michigan lady and is an artist in her profession.
There are many other competent persons connected with this company.
Therefore Estey City is bound to become a city of note in a very short time.
