THE CHURCH ENTERTAINMENT

Was One of Best Ever Given in Tucumcari.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDED

The Baptist Musical and Recitation Entertainment program was had at the church last night according to announcement. The rendition showed splendid preparation and everybody who attended were pleased with the entire performance, and pronounced it the very best ever produced in Tucumcari.

The guitar and mandolin selection by Messrs. Herring, Anderson and Miss Grace Anderson put the entire audience in a good humor.

The Vocal Solo, "A Whispered Vow," by Mrs. O. A. Mason, certainly was a treat for she has a remarkably sweet and a highly cultivated voice, and sang well. The recitation, "Thora," by Miss Lizzie Troup was well rendered and she showed much talent in the rendition of that difficult piece.

The Quartette, "Nearer My God To Thee," by Dr. Coulter, McCargar, Mrs. McCargar and Miss Anderson, truly was a grand musical recitation, and so thoroughly rendered that the audience was almost spell-bound at the sweetness and harmony of the blending voices in singing the Grand Old Hymn.

Recitations by Mrs. McQuaid, simply great, showing remarkable powers as a refined and strong elocutionist. Everybody enjoyed them.

A Vocal Solo "Anchored" by John Jerome McCourt, of El Paso, was a No. 1 and everybody enjoyed it immensely—John McCourt is good in everything he does.

Instrumental Solo, by Alex. D. Goldenberg was well executed, showing much musical talent. A Vocal Solo, "May Morning," a difficult piece, was well rendered by Mrs. Jarrell.

The recitation lakie and Old Jacob, by Miss Ruth Aber, kept the audience in a roar of laughter, and the rendition could not be improved upon, was an excellent piece of acting. Mandolin and guitar, by Anderson, Herring and Miss Anderson, of course was good, and the audience regretted there was not more of it.

"Of Picket's Nell," by Miss Anderson, to say good, would be putting it mildly—yes, it was better than that. It was as natural as nature. "Over The Ocean Blue," by Jerome McCourt, like his previous song, was good, very good. Everybody declared the entire performance the best ever given in Tucumcari. We are very proud of our local talent.

Sherman Racey was in town from the Bell Ranch. He is gaining health again after a slight indisposition.

A Dallas Stockman Buys it for the Sum of $400,000.

LARGEST RANCH IN LINCOLN

J. R. Dendinger, the well known stockman of Dallas, Texas, has purchased the Block Ranch, or the ranch and stock of the El Capitan Land & Cattle Company of Lincoln county, including the ranch lands, sheep and 18,000 head of cattle, for the sum of $400,000. The range is located in Lincoln and Chaves counties and is approximately 500,000 acres.

This is one of the largest sales made in cattle land in a long time. The ranch was purchased from the sole owners, H. Appleington and Mrs. Nancy Thurber, both of New York. Mr. Dendinger will assume control at once.

The purchaser is one the best known stockmen in New Mexico and Texas, having been actively in the business for about thirty years. He owns extensive land interests in the Pecos Valley, besides large holdings in land and cattle in Texas.

The Hon. M. Rudolph, County Supt. of public schools, was in from Revuelto, Tuesday to attend to business matters.

Men's Clothing of Worth

THE BELL SYSTEM
COPYRIGHT AND
STEIN, LAHER, SHON AND CINCINNATI

We are doing a great deal of arguing just now to convince you that we can fit and please you in your Winter Suit—but how easy it would be to convince you, if you would only drop in for a look over our stock.

Price is not the measure of goodness in Men's Clothing, though it is the only commendation you get at some stores. Sunny Jim, says "You can fool a hen with a China egg, but it makes a mighty poor Omelet." So it is with clothing. The price may be low, but the goodness is gone. You find very little of the Gross, Kelly kind of Clothing offered you

We say without hesitation that we have the most imposing display of Clothing Tucumcari has ever seen. Everything a man desires in a Suit, Style, Snappiness, Wear, Shape, Dependability, and then too, our prices are more economical than would at first seem, for it is in the after satisfaction and wear that their true worth is shown.

"The recollection of quality will remain long after the price is forgotten."
