

GAZETTE GLEANINGS.

John Chapman has sold his fine team to the Street Railway Company.

Maitland's store on the East side is to be moved to Colorado Springs, Colorado next week.

George Wiley has been held in $500 bonds for selling liquor to Indians at the A. & P. R. R. front.

Work will be commenced on Gardner & Gillies' new store on Centre street soon. It will be built of solid stone.

Company I, Ninth Cavalry, has gone from Ft. Wingate to Craig en route for "hot pursuit" of the Apaches, or vice versa.

An Albuquerque man has offered to raise a volunteer company to fight the reds providing horses and provisions are furnished.

The renegade chief, Nane, has been recognized in several instances during the recent raid of the Apaches, as leading the red curses in their deviltry.

T. Rutenbeck has just received a large invoice of filigree and other styles of jewelry. The public will find a splendid assortment at his store.

The date of the grand ball to be given by the Hook and Ladder company, has been changed. It will be held Aug. 18th in Dr. Milligan's new brick building.

Our telegraphic report has been somewhat limited for the past few days as for lack of wires and rush of commercial business no press report has been sent until after midnight.

Billy Burton is still adding attractions to his saloon on the south side. He has recently obtained a live badger, a real beauty, and yesterday he got in two eagles, a bald headed eagle and a Mexican eagle, both fine birds.

The express train from the south was a little more than an hour late yesterday. Near the summit of Glorietta hill the track spread and let a part of the train off the metals, the only great inconvenience being loss of time.

Our informant was in error in stating that Gov. Sheldon had gone to Cimarron, hence our blunder in yesterday's issue. It was Mr. Sheldon, editor of the News and Press, of Colfax's capital, who returned from the East whither he had been to meet his wife.

Friday night firing was heard within fifteen miles of San Marcial, and it was thought that a fight was going on between the Indians and the whites. Eighteen men guarded the pass at Antonita all day Saturday, expecting a portion of the band to pass there on their way to the reservation.

An Albuquerque woman who spied her husband at a gambling table last Saturday night embraced the opportunity of giving her hubby a certain lecture there and then. But she failed to convince him that it was the correct thing for him to spend his spare cash for bread instead of chips, and he continued the play until the latter had all been lost.

Twice Deserted.

Yesterday Deputy U. S. Marshal H. J. Franklin took down to Lamy a deserter whom he arrested in this city, and who was to have been turned over to a Sergeant at that point. Marshal Franklin had had his eye on the fellow, Joe Hardy by name, for some time, as he has been a rustler about the saloons for a number of months. But he allowed him to go on as the fellow was a harmless sort of chap, who was paying penance for any misdemeanor he might have committed by being obliged to "rustle" hard for a living. On Monday night Hardy stole a pair of boots from off the feet of a shoe-maker who had fallen asleep in a saloon and then Franklin took him in. Hardy deserted from a 15th Infantry company stationed at Ft. Selden on the 23rd of February last. He had previously deserted and was confined at the time in the guard house at the post, awaiting shipment to the military prison at Ft. Leavenworth having been sentenced to four years' imprisonment. He is likely to get six years now.

Narrow Escape.

Brother Paulin, Superior of the district of Missouri and New Mexico, accompanied by Bro. Basile, President of St. Michael's College, of Santa Fe, came near being drowned last Saturday while crossing the Manueltas river near Sapello. It seems the river was rising rapidly, caused by heavy rains above. When the brothers drove in the water took the buggy and carried it down the stream some distance. Luckily it did not upset, and some men being near at hand, threw in ropes and drew them ashore.

St. Mary's College.

Brother David, the genial and able President of St. Mary's College of Mora, is in the city. He is making preparations for the closing exercises of this college which will take place on the 24th inst. This institution has a deservedly high reputation for learning and all are cordially invited to attend the closing exercises, and will be made welcome.

Just received at Theo. Rutenbeck's, a nice lot of filigree jewelry. 8-10-1f

Stealing from Trains.

Yesterday J. S. Rogers after having been in jail several days had his examination before Judge Steele, being brought up for breaking into A. T. & S. F. freight cars and stealing goods. The Judge bound him over for the action of the Grand Jury. Rogers, who has been a brakeman on the Southern division of the railroad was nabbed about 10 o'clock last Friday night in the yard here by Deputy U. S. Marshal Franklin, just as he was about to take his pick of articles in a car that he had broken open. There has been systematic stealing from cars on the road in New Mexico for some time and the company has been obliged to pay out a considerable sum for goods thus taken. Franklin had been at work at the case, and when he shadowed Rogers he knew his man. He has been known to dispose of at least three cases of canned goods at Kingman station, his only expense for which was his time and crime. Rogers confessed that there were others besides himself in the game. Clothing, hats, boots and shoes, canned goods and other articles have been sold at stores at different points along the line considerably below cost and they were undoubtedly sold for the gang that has kept up this pillage. Some of the stealing, no doubt, has been done by tramps, for only a short time ago a case of clothing was found broken open when it arrived here, and a pair of breeches, a coat and vest of different sizes missing. None other than a tramp would have been so indiscriminate in choice and anyone making a business of stealing would have been more fastidious. But those who have been carrying on a traffic in goods thus stolen, and those who do the stealing should be made examples of.

Wonderful Grant.

We have to thank Col. W. S. Fletcher, special agent of the Interior Department, for an exhibition of the finest specimens of silver matte ever discovered in the Territory. They are from the wonderful new strike in Grant county, and Col. Fletcher is fortunate in owning an interest, which, although small, is very valuable. The specimens were taken from a twenty-five foot shaft on the "Blue Bell" claim located in the Burro Mountains near Bullard's Peak and only sixteen miles from Silver City. The ore is from a well defined vein between three and four feet wide in micaceous granite, through the center of which runs a six inch strata of native silver. The specimens which were shown us by Col. Fletcher are remarkable as to richness, and beautiful specimens. Several are nothing less than a mass of wire silver entwined about black quartz, and even the finest workman in filigree cannot match them in point of workmanship. They contain silver in all varieties, genuine ruby silver among others. It is the richest silver strike thus far made in the Territory and its discovery is another feather in the cap of Wonderful Grant. Mr. C. P. Crawford of Silver City is half owner of the "Blue Bell" and a number of others are interested with him. The lucky prospector is Cherokee Jim an old Indian scout who has prospected not a little in the Southern country.

Golden Prospect.

A few days ago John Wilson of White Oaks picked up on Baxter Mountain one of the finest specimens of gold quartz that has ever been exhibited in that camp of wonderful specimens. It was literally filled with gold containing at least a pound of the precious metal. It was taken from the surface of the "El Capitan" lead and bore the marks of long exposure to the weather. Gentlemen just in from the camp say that the "Homestake" never looked so well as now. Other claims are showing up well and before long that camp will be sending forth the glad tidings of the wealth of hidden treasure in the shape of golden kidneys and bullion, and the mint will know the name of White Oaks, and less attention paid to cabinet specimens. With the trade of such a camp, with such great prospects as that now ours, are we to lose it from the lack of an exhibition of enterprise on the part of our citizens. Consider the following from the New Mexican and act:

Las Vegas is not behind in securing the White Oaks mill and trade and the papers announce that an offer has been made for the line already, which it would be advantageous to accept. If Santa Fe merchants would move in the matter they would have the White Oaks trade as easily as not.

Colonization Scheme.

A commission composed of General T. W. Conway, of New York, who was formerly Superintendent of Public Instruction in Louisiana; Rev. C. A. Harvey, D. D., and Prof. Thomas Robinson of Howard University, Washington City, are in the Territory. They are here for the purpose of examining the Pecos valley with the view of ascertaining its advantages for the colonization of thousands of people who are looking towards New Mexico as a place of residence. They come accredited from Washington and are the bearers of letters from Secretary Kirkwood, Gen. Sherman and other high officials. By order of Gen. Pope, Gen. Hatch has ordered the detail of an officer and escort from Fort Union, who is instructed to join in the report of General Conway, and also to make an individual report of his observations and opinions.

He will reside at his old home in East Walpole, Mass., for a month and will probably return at the expiration of this his first vacation since coming to New Mexico.

Mr. H. C. Baldwin, for a long time in the engineer department of A. T. & S. F., and who has resided in this city since last December, will leave in a few days to accept a very responsible position on the D. & R. G. R'y. He will be division engineer on the Gunnison extension of the Denver & Rio Grande, and will have a very important post. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin both in this city and Santa Fe will be sorry to learn of their removal from the Territory. We congratulate Mr. Baldwin on his success, but regret his leaving Las Vegas. Mrs. Baldwin will spend a short time in the Gunnison country with her husband.

Notice to Leave.

A serious charge is made against a man who is braking on the Southern division of the A. T. & S. F. A short time ago a young man came to Las Vegas and made application for work on the railroad. After patiently waiting he was given a position as brakeman running south from this city. He came back from his first run on Monday night, and met an old railroad man who had been here several days waiting to strike a job. Late in the evening the latter urged the young man to go up town, and invited him into a saloon to drink. He kept urging and urging until the young fellow had taken two or three stout doses of whisky, which he bore up under bravely contrary to the expectation of the old railroad man who undoubtedly expected to get him full. But later the young fellow was persuaded to take another drink, and that was the last that he remembered till he waked early yesterday morning completely broken up, with his watch, money and ring gone. Going to the railroad office he found that his friend of the night before had taken his run out about midnight. There is every reason to believe that it was all a put up job, and that that last drink was drugged as in his desperation at not striking work as soon as a man of his self-estimated importance should, he had dropped about that it would be a good scheme to get some man drunk that he might step into his place. The unfortunate young man has made quite a number of friends among the railroad boys and they threaten to make it hot for the smart chap who rigged up such a trick, if they do not formally invite him to leave town.
