News from the "Corwin" in the Sea of Ice.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Captain Hooper, of the revenue marine steamer "Corwin," in a private letter under date of St. Michaels, July 7th, says: We arrived here on the 4th and go north again to-morrow.

Members of the Cabinet have been very anxious to-day and paid several visits to the White House.

Among other things that might cause the President's death, some papers have contained mention of tetanus, or lockjaw.

At 1 p. m. Dr. Boynton said to a press reporter: "I think the President is a little better to-day."

Transatlantic Cablegrams.

Paris, Aug. 22.—At the election today for members of the Chamber of Deputies polling here was perfectly orderly.

FRANCE HAD TO BREAK OFF.

A semi-official note is published which repeats the assertion that France had no option but to break off negotiations for the new commercial treaty with England.

FREE TRADE.

The belief that the new chamber will be more favorable to free trade is doubtless erroneous.

DYNAMITE DEVILS' WARNING.

Geneva, Aug. 22.—The Socialists addressed a threatening letter to the Federal Tribune in regard to their appeal from the grand council of Zurich prohibiting a social congress there in September.

RESULT OF THE FRENCH ELECTIONS.

Paris, Aug. 22.—The general result of the elections in Paris shows the return of one moderate candidate, thirteen republicans and nine irascible ones.
