

GAZETTE GLEANINGS.

Attention is called to the card of Mr. C. Frank Allen in this issue.

Land Commissioner Laken, of the A. T. & S. F. R. R., is spending a few days at the Hot Springs.

The train going East yesterday was unusually light, but the one going West was crowded.

Alejandro Meas at Canoncito, on last Sunday, is still at large.

Fitzgerald, the live real estate man, sold two thousand dollars worth of town property yesterday.

George Willard, the young man who stole Judge Sumner's spoons, made his escape from the chain gang a few days since and is still at large.

Mr. A. O. Robbins, who has recently returned from the east, went down the road yesterday to look after his interests in Santa Fe and Albuquerque.

Louis Sulzbacher Esq. was mistaken, while on a recent visit to Santa Fe, for a former clothing merchant of New York and successfully humored the joker.

The station agent at Glorieta, Capt. Fauble, went east yesterday on a visit to his former home in the Keystone State, to be gone some five or six weeks.

The Odd Fellows of Las Vegas, preceded by the Las Vegas Cornet Band, all in full uniform made a fine demonstration in the street parade yesterday afternoon.

G. F. Blaskok, of Cuba, Mo., writes Captain Fitzgerald to secure a location for a brewery, and promises to be on hand to commence business by the 8th or 10th of next month.

The rear wall of Sebbin's building adjoining the San Miguel Bank shows a chasm some eight or ten inches wide and the south wall inclines to tumble into the excavation for Reilly's cellar.

Dr. S. D. James, Homeopathic Physician of Indianapolis, is spending some days in Las Vegas, and expresses himself as pleased with the place generally and the Hot Springs particularly.

Madam Dupree, who recently gave the walking exhibition in this city, is beating the picked men pitted against her at Albuquerque as easily, as she laid it over the boys in the Las Vegas match.

but it is no less true, that it is a very serious inconvenience and source of discomfort to an innocent man to be arrested and detained through mistaken identity, as is obviously true in this instance.

S. H. Wells, of Watrous, has purchased the Park Grocery on the plaza and will, we understand, shortly become a resident of Las Vegas. He went up the road yesterday, to return Saturday.

Pegram & McMillan have sold their sawmill near Bacon Springs to Alonzo Lucky, and turned over to him contracts aggregating about one million feet of lumber for railroad construction purposes.

There is some talk of a school of telegraphy being opened soon in this city. We doubt not but a number of our young people would gladly embrace a favorable opportunity to learn this useful and profitable art.

Captain Harner returned from Fort Wingate day before yesterday and left yesterday for Topeka. The Captain carries in his pocket-book some certificates of assays of valuable rock, made for him by Professor Robertson.

Messrs. Burr & Lantry sent twenty-five laborers by yesterday's train from Pueblo down to Callisto to work in the stone quarries at that place. This firm has charge of the stone work over the A. T. & S. F. R. R.

And now, right on the heels of the recent increase in prices at the eating houses along the railroad, comes the announcement that the wages of the employees are to be reduced; some of them as much as fifteen and twenty dollars per month.

The champion liar has turned up at Deming in the capacity of a noble red man employed as a government scout. He came in a few days since and reported having counted seventy dead bodies of soldiers, who had been murdered by Indians in Old Mexico.

From the Albuquerque Journal we learn that there is a probability that the Albuquerque Minstrels will soon visit this city and entertain our people with the genuine Pinafore "hardly ever" witnessed in this Territory. Let us have it by all means. "Our sisters and our cousins and our aunts" will be delighted.

The GAZETTE commenced yesterday the publication of a daily market report, embracing the ruling prices of all staple articles, and it may be relied upon as correct, being changed daily to correspond with the quotations of Messrs. Brown & Manzanares. This publication is made at the instance, and for the accommodation of a large class of our readers, who are directly interested in keeping up with the fluctuations of the home markets.

THE ODD FELLOWS.

A Splendid Celebration of the Second Anniversary.

Yesterday was the second anniversary of the establishment of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in this city, and the day was properly observed by the lodge. This order has grown wonderfully in numbers and influence and numbers among its members many of our leading citizens. The liberal charity and kindly feelings engendered by the high moral precepts taught in this society have been felt and appreciated in this community. It is a great advantage to the town that strangers coming here find these societies fully organized and equipped, and where they find friends of common sympathies bound together by the mystic ties of a common brotherhood. The principles and teachings of Odd Fellowship are advancing throughout the world because they are universal.

THE PROCESSION. Formed yesterday at three p. m. at the lodge room and marched thence to the East Side and through the principal streets of the city. The lodge presented a very handsome appearance. They were preceded by the Las Vegas Brass Band, L. Sulzbacher Esq. acting as marshal.

THE BALL. Given in the evening was the leading feature of the entertainment. It was largely attended and although the hall was small it was a thoroughly enjoyable party. The orchestra furnished the best of music and all were sociable and agreeable. The following ladies were present: Mesdames S. S. Mendenhall, R. W. Wootton, M. Heise, H. Essinger, Charles Hoffmeir, Theobald, Brain, Rountree, Bogue, Bradley, J. D. Wolf, Morrison, J. M. Gardner, T. Rutenbeck, W. H. Moore, of Watrous, J. J. Evans, J. B. Baker, A. Menett, Fetters, R. G. McDonald, Lynch, Biglow, Liddell, Daily, Maier, and Misses Mary and Julia McKay, Ida and Kate Cavanaugh, Bogue, Reidlinger, Josie Hubbell, Hattie Nickson, Lulu McDonald, Josie Stoops, Lynch, McCoy, Ida Baker, Clara Goldbach.

An excellent supper was served by Jack Gehegan of the Exchange Hotel which was well served at half past eleven. The whole proceedings of the day were most orderly and creditable to the lodge.

Maj. Mix, whose death was reported to have been by his own hands, in our telegraph columns yesterday morning; died from the effects of a cancerous tumor, in Kansas City, on Tuesday night last. He had been in bad health for some time and left for his home a few days since accompanied by a physician, it being thought best to remove him to where he could have the care of his family. When he reached Kansas City it was not deemed prudent to continue the journey for a time, at least. He grew rapidly worse during the day and in spite of all efforts to relieve him, he died that night. He was a native of New York and had served in the army since 1852. He leaves a wife and several children in his native State.

Las Vegas is making a big effort to secure a woollen mill. Trinidad wants the same. It will be a lively contest between the two towns, when they get well started—Trinidad News. No contest about it. Las Vegas means to have a woollen mill. She is large enough and has trade enough to support it and intends to build one, or offer such inducements as will secure the location of one in the city; and it will depend entirely upon themselves, whether the citizens of Trinidad shall show the same enterprise in providing one for their vicinity.

Jackson Langton has taken the contract for transporting the new mining machinery on the side track to White Oaks. This machinery is for the purpose of introducing a new process in extracting mineral. It has just been patented and has been thoroughly tested on South Homestake ore in St. Louis. The company which owns the machinery is entitled the Electric Milling Company and they have entered into a contract with the owners of the South Homestake to work their ore at a certain percentage.

Chief of Police Peltier seems to have made a mistake in his man, in nabbing the supposed Pemberton day before yesterday as we understand, the party arrested is able to furnish abundant proof of his identity, and upon close examination the man who was arrested bears very little resemblance to the man described in the circular from Sheriff Lowe of Leavenworth. A close and proper vigilance on the part of an officer; such as Mr. Peltier we know aims to exercise is always commendable.

Leah, the Forsaken. This powerful play was most creditably presented to a large audience at Baca Hall, by the Nellie Boyd combination, on last evening. Miss Boyd, as Leah, won rounds of applause and more than sustained the high reputation she enjoys as an actress of unusual merit. The death scene was particularly striking, the parts of Leah and the apostate Nathan, both being excellently interpreted. The bills for to-night announce the Celebrated Case, with Miss Boyd in the leading parts.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. C. Dobriner went East yesterday.

Fred Harvey, the hotel man came in yesterday.

A. Chene returned yesterday from a trip to Trinidad.

Frank Dibble and N. Nolan came up last night to the Odd Fellows ball.

S. C. Slade, of the Mexican Central R. R., came in yesterday and registered at the Depot Hotel.

Wm. C. Pegram, the lumber contractor, for many years an official on the Wabash Railroad, was in town yesterday.

Manuel Abreu, Roman Martinez and Mrs. Luz B. Maxwell and daughter arrived yesterday and registered at the Grand View.

Chas. Hoffmeir, who is now foreman for J. S. Duncan, at Rogers Bend, came in yesterday to attend the ball last night.

Henry Beneke, who has been representing the Simmons Hardware Company of St. Louis in Las Vegas for several days, went East yesterday.

We would infer from reading the Vegas papers that Gerrel is the only living real estate agent at that place, and he has Fitz.—Golden Era.

Yes, and he gives Fitz to the real estate and keeps up a regular boom. But he is not the only real estate man. There is plenty more and they are selling property like fits and at rattling figures.

The recent order of Indian Commissioner Price, makes it a crime of serious consequence to sell intoxicating liquors to any Indian under any circumstances. Wonder if the Pueblos don't get amazingly dry sitting around the saloons in this city watching a basket of grapes?

The ladies of the Episcopal Sewing Society will meet this evening at the residence of Mrs. Charles Wiley.
