

PLEASANTLY PASSED.

Thanksgiving Generally Observed by Our Citizens.

Thursday was one of the brightest, clearest and pleasantest days that could be imagined, and contented one thing to be thankful for, even if everything during the year past had gone wrong with some.

Very little business was done during the day. The retailers who opened up as usual in the morning closed up one by one as trade grew slack towards dinner time.

TURKEY DINNERS were, of course, among the main features of the day.

Thanksgiving is not counted as properly observed without the regulation turkey among those who can afford it, and as a result the turkeys number very many less than before Thanksgiving.

UNION SERVICES at the new and spacious Presbyterian church on Douglas avenue.

A new Philharmonic music society is being organized by our best and most talented musicians. It has for its object the study of the best classic music, and will meet once a week for that purpose.

A new sidewalk has just been finished in front of J. C. Blake's harness store, near the First National bank.

A Pleasant Party was gathered together at the St. Nicholas Hotel in about a half hour's time in the evening and a most pleasant dance was indulged in by the twenty couples or so who enjoyed themselves hugely until nearly midnight.

THE NATIONAL HOTEL dance in the evening was a lively affair and under the management of J. W. Zellars passed off finely.

THE BOOK AND LADDER COMPANY gave a hook in the building formerly occupied by the Adams Express company. A goodly number of young folks attended, and had a good time, of course.

THANKSGIVING WEDDING. Mr. Nick Chaffin, formerly of the firm of Chaffin & Dunson, and Miss A. Green, were joined in wedlock Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

THE CHARITY COLLECTION, which was gathered Wednesday to make the poor happy on Thanksgiving day was distributed to such as called at the Rosenwald building.

ALL IN ALL. Thanksgiving as observed in Las Vegas could not well be improved upon. The day was pleasant and quiet. Several observed that it seemed like Sabbath, and where work was going on it seemed altogether out of place.

THE PROFITS OF SHEEP. Capt. J. G. Clancey is up from Puerco to Luna. He has just sold his herd of fine sheep to Dinkel, Handy Bros. & Co., for the neat sum of $22,000.

Bell & Co., the plaza grocers and bakers, give a very flattering report of the fall trade in their line. It has largely increased over last year at the same time. There is a much greater demand for fancy groceries this season than formerly which indicates an increase in this class of buyers.

The Texas Journal of Commerce of Nov. 19th comes to us with a large map showing the proposed extensions, branches and connections of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railway, or great "Texas Midland Route."

An overland outfit of ten wagons and sixty head of horses passed through the city this morning. They came from north of Denver and will halt in New Mexico. Several half frozen, half starved women and children were with the party.

GAZETTE OBSERVING.

Extra fine weather. Thanksgiving passed off pleasantly. Mrs. Potter advertises canary birds for sale, singly or in pairs.

Corn is selling in Mora at three dollars a fenega and wheat at $2.25.

It is intended to have the Hot Springs hotel ready for occupancy by April 1st. Gross, Blackwell & Co. unloaded thirteen carloads of merchandise yesterday.

Kollock and Cooper received a fine lot of dressed turkeys and chickens, yesterday.

An addition is being built to the millinery store opposite the Sumner House on Douglas avenue.

It is said to be raining and snowing alternately in the East. Mud now prevails without let up.

The Adams Express company have opened an office at Engle station with Kim Ki Rogers as agent.

The office in the Exchange Hotel is being remodeled, a new counter being one of the main features.

Mr. N. B. Stoneroad is building a fine residence on Zion hill. Thus the good work of building up Las Vegas goes on.

A private letter received here yesterday from St. Louis states that Gillie Otero is slowly recovering. He is now able to walk across the room.

William Gillerman yesterday loaded 20,000 pounds of freight to be shipped to his store at Liberty. This looks like there was some trade in that section.

The receipts of the entertainment held at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening are much larger than at first estimated. The net receipts were $78.25.

A. H. Reynolds yesterday bought a lot thirty feet front from Mr. Charles Blanchard, on Bridge Street, west of the GAZETTE office for seven hundred and fifty dollars.

A new Philharmonic music society is being organized by our best and most talented musicians. It has for its object the study of the best classic music, and will meet once a week for that purpose.

A new sidewalk has just been finished in front of J. C. Blake's harness store, near the First National bank.

The depot at Watrous is being enlarged. The new building will be 30 by 60 feet, and two stories in height. A new section house is also being built.

The Santa Fe papers are getting hotter and hotter in their slings at each other. Just think of one accusing the editor of the other paper of being older than Santa Fe, the oldest village in the United States.

J. C. Booth, superintendent of the street railway, is rigging a turn table to turn the cars this winter.

J. W. Foster has purchased the interest of Mr. Howard in the California meat market. Mr. Dames will remain and the firm will be known by the name of Foster & Dames.

The fare from Las Vegas to the "Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe" at Paso del Norte has been placed at $36 for the round trip.

The Las Vegas Coal Prospecting Company have employed a force of men who commenced yesterday to sink a shaft on their claim a few miles west of town.

Superintendent Booth is the most accommodating street car manipulator we ever had the pleasure of meeting.

John Brady, a passenger for Socorro on Thursday's Pacific express, had an overcoat stolen from his seat in the coach while he was out taking dinner at the Depot Hotel.

L. H. Maxwell, lumber inspector for the A. T. & S. F., returned Thursday from an extended Eastern trip. He was thoroughly disgusted with the weather back there, and says he saw but four days of sunshine during his entire trip.

THE WATER WORKS. Work is being crowded on the water works, this pleasant weather, at a rapid rate.

There are now between seventy and eighty men engaged on the several mains in progress of construction. The main over Zion hill toward the M. E. church is being laid in solid rock.

Three-quarters of a mile above the springs which is to furnish the supply will be finished by next Tuesday. The settlers are already completed and in addition a large well has been dug in order to guard against any possible failure of water.

This precaution was thought necessary as it was feared that large amounts of sediment might settle above the dam and thus cut off the flow of water into the settlers for a time. Should the present beautiful weather hold out the works will be ready for use in a very short time.

German Sociable. Thanksgiving evening, the Germans of Las Vegas feeling thankful for the manifold blessings bestowed upon them during the past year, assembled at the residence of Mr. Van Lomma and enjoyed themselves as only they can do.

There were about fifteen couples present. They had plenty to eat, plenty to drink, and the music was excellent. Under these circumstances then, who could blame them for tipping the light fantastic to until a late hour in the morning. The supper was all that could be desired and every one went home alleging that it was very pleasant to give thanks.

By a dispatch on the telegraph page, it will be seen that the directors of the Atlantic & Pacific have determined to push work on the construction of both the Central and Pacific divisions of that road. Construction of the road from Vinita westward has been authorized.

The surveyed line of this railroad comes almost to our door and a little effort will deflect the road sufficiently to take in Las Vegas. It will come to us in order to get into canon Blanco, the only real good, practicable and available route through the mountains to the Rio Grande. The road from Vinita here will be almost an air line and place us in direct communication with St. Louis.
