OPEN STORE WITH DANCE

Crocker Mercantile Co. Give Big Dance in New Building

The Crocker Mercantile Co. formally opened its new store on Saturday after a three-months' construction. It is located in the new quarters which it has purchased from the Continental Building Company. The new store is two stories high and will be a substantial addition to the retail business of the city. The store is situated at the corner of Main and Fourth streets, its chambers facing both streets. The store is a large one and is equipped with all the necessary fixtures for the different departments. The store is open to the public and is well worth a visit. The new store is commodious and well lighted, and the display windows are large and inviting. The store is well arranged and the goods are well displayed. The store is well worth a visit.

NOTABLES GO FISHING

Railroad officers and others fished at the Trout—Private cars. The managers of the Crocker Mercantile Co. and a number of their friends went fishing on Saturday afternoon. The trip was made to the Trout River, where they fished for trout. The managers were accompanied by a number of their friends, and they enjoyed a pleasant day on the river. The trout were plentiful, and the managers were successful in catching a number of them. The fishing was good, and the managers were satisfied with the results. The trip was a success, and the managers were pleased with the experience. The trip was a success, and the managers were pleased with the experience.

EXHIBITION BUILDING

For Colfax County at Albuquereque to be Started Next Week

The building which Colfax County is planning to build at Albuquereque will be started next week. The site for the building has been selected, and the necessary plans have been made. The building will be a large one, and will be used for the exhibition of agricultural products. The building will be located in the center of the city, and will be well lighted and ventilated. The building will be well constructed, and will be a credit to the county.

RESERVOIR

Farmers Development Company Complete Big Reservoir

The Farmers Development Company has completed the big reservoir at the Colfax County site. The reservoir is a large one, and will be used for the storage of water for irrigation purposes. The reservoir will be located in the center of the county, and will be well lighted and ventilated. The reservoir will be well constructed, and will be a credit to the county.

DIVINE PREACHED HERE

Rev. G. H. Adams Preached In Methodist Church Last Sunday-Good Words for Colfax—Known Here

Last Sunday evening Rev. G. H. Adams, a member of the Methodist church, preached a sermon. The sermon was well received, and the congregation was well pleased. The sermon was a good one, and was well delivered. The preacher was well prepared, and his delivery was good. The sermon was well received, and the congregation was well pleased.

TO START CLUB HOUSE

Rhyado Fishing Club To Start Five Cottages

The Rhyado Fishing Club, which was organized last summer, has decided to build five cottages at the Rhyado landing. The cottages will be built on the shore of the river, and will be used for fishing purposes. The cottages will be well lighted and ventilated. The cottages will be well constructed, and will be a credit to the club.

BAD FIGHT IN PRISON

Marshall Shoots Prisoner Who Fires Jail And Fights Rescuers

A bad fight occurred in the Marshall county jail last night. A prisoner named Marshall, who was incarcerated for a crime, shot and wounded a guard and a rescue party who were attempting to rescue him. The guard was hit by the shot and was taken to the hospital. The rescue party was unsuccessful, and the prisoner was left to his fate. The incident was a sad one, and it is to be hoped that it will not be repeated.

MARTIAL SHOOTS PRISONER WHO FIRES JAIL AND FIGHTS RESCUERS

Coombe, N. J., June 2.—(AP)—Martial, a prisoner in the county jail here, shot and wounded a guard and a rescue party who were attempting to rescue him. The guard was hit by the shot and was taken to the hospital. The rescue party was unsuccessful, and the prisoner was left to his fate. The incident was a sad one, and it is to be hoped that it will not be repeated.