SENATE.
Mr. Morgan introduced a resolution for the constitutional amendment authorizing congress to establish the rules for all matters concerning the electoral vote and declaring the result of the election for president and for the government of congress, such laws not to be changed or repealed within a year before an election occurs in a state.
Private bills were considered and then the senate went into executive session.
When the doors were opened, Randolph gave notice of the following amendment in the nature of a substitute to the bill for the relief of Fitz John Porter: Be it enacted that it is hereby authorized in his discretion to reinstate to the army Fitz John Porter, who was dismissed by sentence of the court martial on January 17th 1863, provided, however, that such reinstatement shall give no higher rank than colonel. And further be it provided that said Porter shall receive no pay compensation or allowance for time intervening between his dismissal and his reinstatement.
Adjourned.

HOU E.
F. Wood agreed to postpone the funding bill until the pending debate on the electoral question is concluded.
Conger sarcastically said that Wood should not allow important public business to be interfered with by a political discussion.
Wood moved to dispense with the morning hour. Defeated.
The committee reports were called for but nothing of importance was reported.
McCook introduced a joint resolution authorizing the president to place U. S. Grant on the retired army list with the rank and pay of general as a recognition of services. Referred.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 8.—This afternoon a terrible and fatal affair occurred between two well known police officers in which officer John Brophy was instantly killed by officer Tom Casey. The two officers were walking different beats in the locality of Nashville railroad shops and about the time named met at a little shanty on the railroad crossing on Kennedy street between Ninth and Tenth. The two officers not being on very friendly terms soon quarreled. Casey drew his knife and at the same time Brophy got his pistol and fired, the ball striking Casey near the right shoulder but whether the shot was fired before Casey had cut Brophy is uncertain. Both a tacks were near the same instant. Casey jabbed his knife deep into Brophy's bowels just over the right hip. Brophy did not fall at once but striking Casey knocked him down and jumped on him. Casey then reached around his antagonists and attempted to stab him in the back but before he could succeed by-standers had secured his knife and dragged the two men apart. After being pulled off of Casey Brophy said "I am cut, cut bad," and turning on his side on a ash pile in a gutter he died. Casey was taken to his home immediately. Brophy was picked up and taken to a room across from where the tragedy occurred. The physicians say Casey has some chance of recovery. Both men were esteemed members of the police force.
