SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 30.

THE HON. FRANK CHAVEZ at the grand old party pow-wow of June 1, at Albuquerque, will probably stand up and ask the chief apostle of sweetness, love and harmony, "How can we fall on one another's necks and weep out the unity of the factions when the father of the republican party of New Mexico stands without the castle, and has been denied his rightful position hitherto in the council of the clans?"

THE territorial treasurer, the Hon. Ortiz Salazar, has enjoyed the usufruct of office for ever a decade of years. There is a positive impression skirting the mind of the taxpayers that a bit of reform and honest management in the person of a staunch democrat filling the office will have a most healthful influence toward inspiring confidence that the financial affairs of New Mexico are handled for the interests of all the people.

THE eloquent gentlemen who will address the people of Las Vegas tomorrow in memory of the dead heroes whose narrow homes will be decorated the land over with the emblems that tell of a nation's love, will fittingly and appropriately speak the sentiments of heroic resolve and devotion to duty and their country's welfare that actuated the defenders of those principles, which have in their operation given America the grandest government that a happy united people ever enjoyed.

THE democratic party of New Mexico will appreciate prompt action on the part of Governor Ross in paying his respects to the auditorship of the territory. The present incumbent has waxed fat in the disinterested manner he has performed the duties of the office. THE GAZETTE, in common with a majority of the people, has the opinion that when the operations of the auditor's office are turned toward the broad light of day, some very musty facts of republican mismanagement will greet the nostrils of the people, and be so pungent with odor as to cause the question to be asked why the airing was not made sooner.

GOVERNOR ROSS, with his hands no longer tied, but, on the contrary, with the hearty support of the party to uphold them in aiding him in his duties, should no longer let any sentiments of delicacy or regard for the opinions of the opposition deter him from making the changes required by the party in the territorial offices. The rank and file expect this, and any unnecessary delay will be a disappointment, to say the least. Men in accord with the administration are those that will give character and dignity to public affairs in office. The auditorship should be given to a member of the party. The man who will fill the office and make a most acceptable official, who has those elements of character and personal worth as well as high qualifications for the discharge of the duties of the office, is the Hon. Rafael Romero, of La Cueva, Mora county. Governor Ross will satisfy the wishes of the party by placing the office of territorial auditor at the disposition of Mr. Romero.

Good Maxims for Wives. Always remember that you are married to a man and not a god; be prepared for imperfections. Once in a while let your husband have the last word; it will gratify him and be no particular loss to you. Do be reasonable; it is a great deal to ask under some circumstances; reasonable women are rare; be rare. Anticipate the discovery by your husband that you are "only a woman" if you were not he would not care about you. Remember that servants are made of the same material as you are; a little coarser-grained, perhaps, but the same in essentials. Let your husband read the newspaper at the breakfast table; it is unobscure, but then it is only a trifle after all, and he likes it. Read something in the papers besides fashion notes and society columns; have some knowledge of what is going on in foreign countries. Try and forget yourself. As to your husband, forget that you married him and remember that he married you. He will then probably do the reverse. Be a comrade to your husband, if he is a wise man; and if he is not, try and make him become your companion. Raise his standard, do not let him lower yours. Let your husband know more than you do once in a while; it keeps up his self-respect and will be none the worse for admitting that you are not actually infallible. Respect your husband's prejudices; respect his relations, especially his mother—she is not the less his mother because she is your mother-in-law; she loved him before you did.

She Was Business. Wall Street News. A Chicago woman entered the office of a loan agency the other day and said: "I want to raise $1,500 on $5,000 worth of furniture. What is your lowest rate of interest?" "On such loans we generally ask ten per cent." "Very well. Send your examiner up to the house. It is a speculation with me." "Going into business, ma'am?" "Yes, sir. I'm going to take my three daughters to the sea shore, and either marry them off or drown them."
