LOCAL NEWS

We call your attention to the G. H. Atkerson & Co. ad in this issue.

Futman Nuzum and his wife (Lillian Davis) spent the week end here.

Frank Nelson, the "Good Fellow" from Krider, paid our town a visit during the week.

Fred Fry, of Dereno, was in town this week, filing on some land to the south of town.

Mrs. Horace B. Blackburn and her son, Louis Parker, are visiting on the plains for the week.

N. A. Vaughter and family, of House, spent last week in town, as patrons of the Chautauqua.

John W. Stratton, of the Taiban Hotel, has entirely recovered after his recent illness and is about again.

All the farmers have had to store their autos away, and are now using their "hay burners" for locomotion.

W. J. (Joe) Stone and family were in from their ranch a few days ago. He reports everything fine since the rain.

Charles C. Hall was in from Canton this week and as the rest of the cattle men, had a big smile on account of the bountiful rains.

W. O. Dunlap, a prominent cattle man from down around Dunlap, was a visitor during the week. He is very optimistic of the future since the late rains.

All Trans-Continental trains have been passing through town for the past few days, owing to the wash-outs on the main line. It gives us kind of a suburban feeling.

One of the pleasures of the Chautauqua engagement was to see Mrs. S. F. Culberson attending regularly, after her recent illness.

Tourists are having a hard time these days; sticking in all the mud holes east and west, and the cars are sure daubed with New Mexican mud.

The McChes Mills are arranging to handle all the wheat from the Plains and will be ready to accept it when threshing begins. Drop in and see the Manager when in town.

W. H. Vaughter headed a delegation to Fort Sumner on Tuesday, which delegation did appear before the Hon. Board of County Commissioners in regards the road to the north of Taiban.

Ben T. Robinson and Judge Wilson travelled to the County Seat on Monday. Ben to be in attendance upon the Commissioners Court, while the Hon. 'Mack' held a short session of his Court.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Parker, of Lucille, father and mother of Mrs. Horace Blackburn, but more particularly the grandparents of Louis Parker Blackburn, spent Chautauqua week in Taiban.

F. G. Forest, the Mayor of Tolar, was in town during the week attending to some business matters. F. G. is a live wire merchant and always has the situation well in hand, at his thriving Village.

W. H. Frierson, an old timer of these parts, now a resident of Parker Canyon, arrived in town during the week to look after interests that he has here, also shake hands with his old friends who are all delighted in seeing him. He reports his daughter, Miss Julia, doing nicely but longing for her old New Mexico home.

The Las Vegas Cowboy's Reunion

Las Vegas, N. M.—"Well, boys," boomed out Walt Naylor, President of the Las Vegas, N. M. Cowboy's Reunion, "seems like we are about to pull a new one on 'em this year. 'Meanin' what?" chorused back the puncher directors—"Meaning," replied Walt with a grin from ear to ear "that the Reunion has gone and busted out into poetry."—And then before the boys could recover from their amazement, Naylor read the following poem written by Jack Thorp, famous cowboy poet of Santa Fe, N. M., which poem has been officially adopted by the Cowboy's Reunion for their seventh annual show to be held this coming July 4-5-6:

Come on, all you cow-punchers,
To the round-up in July,
Where the Busters get together,
En the old broncos go sky-high;
We've got 'em spoiled en tricky,
Outlaws from far en near,
En we've got the boys to fork 'em,
Who know not the word of fear.

The cry of all the cowboys now
Is "To the Meadow City or bust!"
From far Colorado's borders
They come a-spurri' through the dust
You don't see prairie-schooners
A-headin' now this way,
But mobiles come by thousands
To the Reunion's openin' day!

Cow-girls from far Montana
En the little Prairie Rose,
They can ride 'em slick en keertless
Es everybody knows;
So come on to the Meadow City,
The key's thrown plumb away,
En everybody's welcome
To the Cowboys' opening day!

Chorus.

With angora chaps en carnival hats,
Checked shirts en handkerchiefs loud,
Come straddle yer horse en ride with us,
Come ride with the Wild West crowd!
For we're just cow-eatin' persons,
There's a welcome fer every one,
So whip up yer horse en lope across
To the Cowboys' Re-un-ion!

—N. Howard "Jack" Thorp.

Mrs Ida Pearson, we learn, is recovering rapidly from her late illness.

To the Public:—

I am taking this method to notify the people of this district that I have resigned the office of Trustee of the Taiban School District. Appreciating the faith and confidence placed in me by the large vote cast, I qualified, and was ready and willing to sit on all school matters with a heart and soul, but, owing to existing circumstances, and the friction in the Board I cannot conscientiously remain on the Board and do justice to my constituents, the children and the School. Thanking all for the confidence reposed in me, and wishing the School, all the success that it is entitled to,

I remain, faithfully yours,
W. H. Vaughter.

SAVES AND BUYS HOME WITH SAVINGS STAMPS

"There is no place like your own home!" So thought one of the reporters of The Dallas Morning News. From this thought grew the desire to get ahead, to have a home. The picture shows the result. It also shows what Uncle Sam's $5 Savings Stamps and 25 Registered Treasury Savings Certificates, which bear good four per cent interest compounded quarterly at maturity, will do for anyone who wants to get ahead.
War Savings Stamps and Registered Treasury Savings Certificates, bought at the postoffice every pay day, made it possible for this reporter to save and purchase this home, now worth twice the purchase price.
"I could not have saved the money except for Uncle Sam and W. S. S.," he says. Thrift and Savings Stamps and $25, $100 and $1000 Registered Treasury Savings Certificates are readily obtainable at our postoffice here.

Clean up, Paint up, and Keep it up!

Spring brings with it a new coat of nature, doing away with the weather worn appearance left by the winter months. As good citizens we lend our assistance toward this goal.

Cleanliness, sanitation, beautification, conservation and safety are all civic synonyms. They symbolize good citizenship. Cleaning up and painting, up rids homes and business houses of an accumulation of rubbish which is a long step toward prevention of fires. Though fires cost our nation $250,000,000, yet the deterioration from lack of painting is much greater.

A fresh coat of paint will not only add quality to the life of a building but will give it a more cheerful appearance. Lumber prices have fallen and building is now possible upon an economic basis. Rents have not decreased, and will not as long as the country is a million homes short. The situation offers a splendid opportunity for the investor and to the rent payer. Build now and take advantage of it.
