CATARRH A SYSTEMIC BLOOD DISEASE

Catarrh is not merely an affection of the mucous membranes; it is a deep-seated blood disease in which the entire circulation and greater part of the system are involved. It is more commonly manifested in the head, nose and throat, because of the sensitive nature of these membranes, and also because they are more easily reached by irritating influences from the outside...

THAW WILL BE WITNESS

Must Appear in Court to Tell What He Knows of Death at Matewan.

Poughkeepsie, March 17.—It has been practically decided that Harry K. Thaw will appear in court as a witness at the next hearing of Daniel Rife, the Matewan attendant, who is charged with the death of John J. Nugent, a pastor. District Attorney Mack had a long interview with Thaw and he says the next hearing will probably be held on Tuesday...

QUEER FISHING BOAT

New York, March 17.—A fishing boat like those which the Russian warships fired upon off the Dogger bank, is at anchor in New York harbor, a surprising sight to the on-lookers along the water front. She is the steam trawler "Cinderella" of Aberdeen, Scotland, brought across the Atlantic as the result of a series of accidents...
