JACK JOHNSON IS OUT OF JAIL

Heavyweight Champion Says He Will Speed as He Has Always Done; Believes Trial Judge "Soaked" Him.

San Francisco, April 28.—Twenty-five days servitude in the county jail has failed to cure Jack Johnson of his mania for beating speed laws. The champion of the heavyweights admitted as much early yesterday morning when he took his departure from the county jail.

Are you going to be good any, Jack? he was asked. The reply was slow and measured. I think I will drive as fast as ever, he said. I have never been anyone I will drive as usual. I have no ill will against the people of California for putting me in jail. I am leaving today for Chicago and I don't know which I will go back here. I have several theatrical engagements.

ly to make less trouble for the court and officers. He promised to release me Easter Sunday. When Saturday came at 11 o'clock I had a parole paper signed by the district attorney and the sheriff the judge absolutely refused to sign it.

Therefore I believe that every good citizen of California will believe that Jack Johnson was put in jail that one judge might gain notoriety.

ROGER BRESNAHAN, 'THE MAKIN'S' OF ST. LOUIS.

In an eleven inning game last Monday, it was Bresnaahan's good work that won from Pittsburgh by the close margin of six to five. Bresnaahan opened the final round with a single, left and was sacrificed to second by Oscar. Blase hit to left field, the batter tossed to Hunter and Blase collided with the Pirate first baseman, was dropped the ball, and Bresnaahan scored—and that's the story.

SAM LANGFORD HAS GAY TIME IN PARIS

Negro Prize Fighters Gather in Force in Old World Center; Johnson May Fight Black Sam. With Jack Johnson out of jail there'll be a revival of talk of a fight between the champion and Sam Langford.

Most of these fighters hang out at Jim Pratt's, a suburb of Paris. Pratt is a wealthy Frenchman and has taken quite a fancy to negro pugilists, allowing them to train in his gym free. Life is all one roar of drums for the negro pug in Paris. Society calls him a hero, and every time he contends to appear in public—which he does quite often—whether in street clothes, evening clothes or fight togs, he gets a 'big hand.'

fighter has got all going. American go-to-meetings are all the rage here at present. Trainers rolled up at the bottom, long coats, American shoes, American hats and so on, so the graduate from the states is the boulevard's fashion plate.

OKLAHOMA ASSERTS THAT TEXAS RATES ARE LOWER

Washington, April 28.—The Texas railroads that are made defendants in the complaint of the Oklahoma corporation commission charging that rates in the Leland tariff are cheaper from Texas points to Oklahoma than from Oklahoma points to Texas, are filing their arguments. There are 70 lines involved, and the allegation is that rates from Texas jobbing points are made upon a specific basis to discriminate in Oklahoma, while the rates from the principal jobbing points in Oklahoma are made to Texas destinations on a group basis, the rate to the most distant point in the group being applied to all points therein, and a much higher scale of rates is used for the traffic moving southward than for the traffic moving northbound.

SOIL EXPERT VISITS POPULATION OF THE DRY FARMERS TERRITORY GIVEN IN STATISTICS

J. D. Tinsley, Santa Fe Agricultural Adviser, Talks to Gathering on Mesa in Regard to Prospects. For the purpose of giving the farmers of the mesa district advice and assistance in preparing for the coming season, J. D. Tinsley, the Santa Fe's dry farming expert, came in Wednesday night from his headquarters in Mesilla Park. Early yesterday morning he left for the mesa, where he spent the day. Mr. Tinsley addressed a gathering of the farmers, with weather conditions in mind. Mr. Tinsley looks forward to a most successful season for the farmers this year. Last year, in the face of conditions, that were not entirely encouraging, the dry farmers raised good crops. This season they should do much better. The result of the experiment carried on by the farmers last year under the direction of Mr. Tinsley and with seed furnished by the Santa Fe has been a long step forward in the acquiring of information of value to the agriculturalists.

It has been noticed with pleasure that the native people of San Miguel County are taking a greater interest in farming this season than ever before. It is estimated by men who come in contact with the ranchmen that the acreage of crops planted by native growers this year will be 40 per cent greater than last year. Beans, which proved such a successful crop last year, will be planted in large quantities. Other crops also will be attempted. Dealers in seeds and farming implements say the native people are purchasing heavily. The dry farmers of the mesa district are greatly encouraged at the outlook for a good year.
