The New Mexico Grand Lodge of the Scottish Rite, will journey to Santa Fe next week to participate in the ceremonies incident to the laying of a class of stone here.

Assisting Mr. Hanna as master of the degree, will be a degree team, consisting of the most part of resident members of Santa Fe, who are available at all times for practice.

Among the Albuquerque members who have signified their intention of attending the cornerstone laying are: Dr. J. H. Wright, R. R. Pollock, W. H. Hahn, Ernest L. Grunfeld, Paul Teutsch, Fred Miller, D. S. Rosenwald, Sidney L. Rosenwald, Bernice Ziffa, Simon Stern, H. Yarnes, E. A. Mann, C. A. Frank, W. F. Gierke, Isaac Barth.

Among the local candidates for officers will be J. F. Keogh, W. C. Osterlich, J. A. Miller, and Fred B. Hays, the two last named gentlemen being at the present time engaged in mustering enough courage to take the work, so it is said by their brethren.

Charles J. Chaudell of Santa Fe, one of the most prominent members of the rite in New Mexico, will visit Albuquerque within a few days to make final arrangements for transportation of the local candidates.

The Santa Fe railroad has granted a special rate of one and one-half fare for the round trip for the reunion, the rate from Albuquerque and return being $4.10. Tickets will be placed on sale August 18 and the return limit is August 24.
