MELQUIADES MARTINEZ OF TAOS NOMINATED FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR AT 6 O'CLOCK TONIGHT

(Special Telegram to Evening Herald)
Las Vegas, N. M., Sept. 29.—At 5:30 o'clock this evening the state Republican convention had not made any material progress since it convened at 10 o'clock this morning. At 10 o'clock an adjournment was taken until this afternoon. It was fully 1 o'clock before the convention was called to order. It is toward Bernalillo county, a well known G. A. R. man, immediately rose and was recognized by Chairman Spices. Mr. Spices made the point that the convention in adopting a platform had overlooked favoring the Sherman pension bill, which is now pending in congress. T. B. Catron, E. A. Mann and others made speeches in favor of incorporating into the platform a resolution favoring the Sherman bill and this was done by rising vote, there being no nays. The vote was taken on the proposition with the understanding that recommendations now being considered by the national board of the G. A. R. be adopted later.
Recesses were frequent today because of the inability of the delegates to get down to serious nominating work. Candidates for all the state offices were many and all of them were persistent. The delegates from Socorro, Sierra and Valencia counties took advantage of the recesses to get together and nominate judicial officers. Messrs. McEwen being nominated for district judge and John E. Griffith for district attorney. The delegates from the district comprising Santa Fe, San Juan and Rio Arriba also got together and held a caucus. It is understood that E. C. Abbott for judge and Alex. Read for district attorney is the choice of the delegates from the northern tier of counties. It is expected that all nominations will be made some time before midnight.

HON. HOLM O. BURSUM.
Nominee for Governor of New Mexico.

Las Vegas, N. M., Sept. 29.—With a total of 228 votes out of 303 in the convention, Honorable Holm O. Bursum, the Abraham Lincoln of New Mexico, the man with a pipe, as he was called by the speakers, was nominated as the Republican candidate for governor by the state convention here shortly after midnight this morning. Secundino Romero, the only other candidate, remained in the race until it reached the floor of the convention, received 75 votes. He at once moved to make the nomination of Mr. Bursum unanimous and with a shout which echoed and re-echoed through the Dunham opera house, where the convention sat, the delegates voted unanimously for Mr. Bursum. The nomination of Mr. Bursum has been foreseen for several weeks by his friends. The majority of the counties that were for him, not because of any defects in the opposing candidates, who were all excellent men and who would have made good as candidates on the Republican ticket, but the sentiment was for H. O. Bursum, because he had a greater personal following of loyal friends and he had the confidence of the people who have known him for many years and have followed him to victory in three of the hardest fought campaigns in the history of New Mexico—Secundino Romero, a fine type of American citizenship, a representative of his community, a daring and successful political leader and a man respected by every delegate in the great convention, was given an ovation by the delegates when his name was presented to the convention, which spoke eloquently of the esteem in which he also was held. But the delegates had determined that in this nominations campaign, when the first state government was at

Mr. Bursum's friends knew to be the true character of the man who was being placed before the convention. Mr. Griffith did not eulogize. He spoke the plain truth. Mr. Bursum was placed in a true light as a man among men, who had begun life as a section hand—a common laborer on a railroad, and who has worked himself up by toil and honest efforts. From boyhood to the present time, Mr. Griffith told forcibly and honestly, the story of a man that Holm O. Bursum was and is and the delegates knowing this to be true, applauded every word enthusiastically. Colfax county yielded to San Miguel and O. A. Larrazolo, one of the finest orators that New Mexico has produced, nominated Secundino Romero. Mr. Larrazolo has made many masterful speeches in New Mexico. He has turned the tide of political events at many a crisis, but never did O. A. Larrazolo speak better nor appear to finer advantage than when he nominated Secundino Romero. If anything could have changed the sentiment against H. O. Bursum by an appeal direct to the native people, it was the speech by Mr. Larrazolo that nominated Secundino Romero. It was a subtle plea direct to the hearts of the people that he knows and loves so well. It produced the greatest enthusiasm and at its conclusion, the hand played and the San Miguel delegation paraded through the aisles of the convention, waving flags and shouting for Secundino Romero. Judge Mann, on behalf of Bernalillo county, seconded the nomination of Mr. Bursum. Charles Springer of Colfax county, seconded the nomination of Mr. Romero. The other counties had no candidates and as the roll call proceeded they seconded as follows:
Grant, Bursum; Guadalupe, Romero; Luna, Bursum; McKinley, Bursum; Mora, Romero; Otero, Bursum; Rio Arriba, Bursum; Roosevelt, Bursum; Sandoval, Bursum; San Juan, passed; San Miguel, Romero. Chairman Charles A. Spices personally accompanied Mr. Romero.
Mr. Spices spoke at some length and paid an eloquent tribute to San Miguel's candidate. The speech was one of the ablest of the convention and was heartily cheered. Santa Fe, Bursum; Torrance, Bursum; Valencia, Bursum. Then the roll was called by counties for a vote on nominations.
The vote by counties for Mr. Bursum was as follows:
Bernalillo, 25; Chaves, 19; Colfax, 5; Curry, 5; Dona Ana, 13; Eddy, 4; Grant, 19; Guadalupe, 1; Lincoln, 9; McKinley, 5; San Miguel, 1; Otero, 7; Quay, 17; Rio Arriba, 16; Roosevelt, 7; Sandoval, 19; San Juan, 4; Santa Fe, 17; Sierra, 5; Socorro, 17; Taos, 13; Valencia, 14; Luna, 3; Torrance, 8. Total, 228.
The vote by counties for Secundino Romero:
Colfax, 8; Guadalupe, 11; Mora, 15; San Miguel, 29; San Juan, 2; Taos, 1; Union, 7; San Juan, 2; Valencia, 1. Total, 75.
At the conclusion it was announced that out of 303 votes in the convention Mr. Bursum had received 228 and Mr. Romero had received 75. The result was greeted with the greatest enthusiasm heard in the convention. A committee consisting of A. Gallaguer, Don Eugenio Romero and Alex. Read was named to escort Mr. Bursum from the floor of the convention. Mr. Bursum was given a great ovation and it was fifteen minutes before he could reach the platform. The delegates crowding about him, grasped him by the hand and assured him that he would be elected by the greatest majority ever rolled up by the party.
Mr. Bursum's speech accepting the nomination follows:
"Gentlemen of the convention: For this confidence I thank you. I accept the nomination and shall do the very best in my power to obtain victory at the polls on November 7 for the Republican party. I accept the nomination with the full approval of the platform which you have here adopted, and it shall be my pleasure to defend and preach the doctrine contained therein as enunciated by the Republicans here in convention assembled and the people of New Mexico, and it is in these policies as enunciated that I trust that we will be able to attain the approval of the electors of the new state of New Mexico on November 7. If I am elected governor I shall undertake to the best of my ability to see that the laws are faithfully executed and if we have had laws the quickest way to secure their respect will be through their enforcement. I shall have no enemies to punish nor friends to reward at the expense of the public. I will do my very best to carry out the promises and pledges contained in your platform. If I am elected governor I shall favor the passage of a corrupt practice act. There is nothing so demoralizing in politics as the use of money in elections. And the sooner it is stopped the better. And I pledge you here that I will seek such legislation as will guarantee the people of this state honest elections, the purity and sanctity of the ballot and provide some method by which the voter may be enabled to vote secretly without any workers at the polls watching to see what ticket he is about to hand to the election judges. If I am elected governor it shall be my policy to use whatever influence I may possess toward securing a land policy which will enable homesteaders and home builders to claim small tracts of land at the most reasonable terms. The public lands of this state which belong to land grants and to forest reserves represent nearly one-half of the entire area of the state. There are those who say that we ought to retain the lands as a future heritage and for future generations, that we should lease them all as a

GILLENWATER GANG FAILS TO MAKE GOOD
(Special Telegram to Evening Herald)
Las Vegas, N. M., Sept. 29.—The fight that the Gillenwater delegation made for a seat on the floor of the convention after they had been turned down so unanimously by the essential committees. When the convention met last night at 8 o'clock, the committee on credentials included the Mann delegation on the permanent roll of the delegation and omitted the Gillenwater delegation. That ended the matter and the Republican organization of Bernalillo county is now a matter of record in the first state Republican convention. GERMAN NEWSPAPERS ROAST THE ITALIANS
Berlin, Sept. 29.—The German Press today does not spare words in condemnation of Italy's action. The Lokal Anzeiger, which is in close touch with the foreign office, says: "A state with the slightest regard for its honor can only answer no."
The Frankfurter Zeitung declares that civilized Europe, disregarding political differences, must protest against an act of open pillage and naked violence, and says that there is no justification for Italy's "brutal methods, particularly toward two allies."
Zeitung Am Mittag says one must go back to the partition of Poland to find a similar example of brutal violence and political hypocrisy.
The paper adds that Italy, with its border of illiterates, is the last justified in using as a pretext conditions in Tripoli for an action against all the rules of civilized intercourse.

WARRANT FOR BANKER
Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 29.—A warrant for the arrest of T. F. McClure, president of the Metropolitan Bank and Trust company, was sworn out today by a depositor, who charged him with receiving money from a depositor after he knew the bank was insolvent. The bank was closed by state examiners on September 18.

ABLE TO WITHSTAND STRIKE
Los Angeles, Calif., Sept. 29.—V. O'Leary, district organizer of the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers, asserted today that the railroads could not withstand a strike more than six or six days. For the present he said the men were eager to go out.
"The recent retractions made by the railroads and the consequent lagging off of thousands of men," O'Leary continued, "has caused a piling up of work and the railroads are in poorer shape today to withstand a strike than they were a month ago."

PRESIDENT TAFT IN DES MOINES TODAY
Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 29.—President Taft received a welcome from many thousands of the citizens of Des Moines this morning where he began the second day of his Iowa tour. Senator Cummins, the progressive leader, who was conspicuously absent from the state reception committee yesterday, greeted Mr. Taft at his train.
Mr. Taft's address at the Coliseum was devoted to the peace treaties.

ITALY DECLARES WAR ON TURKEY
Rome, Italy, Sept. 29.—Italy has declared war on Turkey. The official announcement was made late this afternoon. It declared that the two countries were in a state of war beginning at half past 2 o'clock on the afternoon of Friday, September 29. This is the hour at which the Italian ultimatum to Turkey expired and followed a session of the cabinet at which the Turkish reply was considered and found unsatisfactory.
Though every indication pointed to this action by the royal government, there was always a possibility that the good offices of other governments would be successful in avoiding hostilities and when the final decision of the cabinet was announced the excitement throughout the city was intense.
Throughout the earlier hours of the day the papers had issued special editions announcing that the Italian fleet was moving in plain sight of the coast of Tripoli and intimating that war might be declared at any moment.
The minister of foreign affairs, Signor Di San Giuliano, received the Turkish reply this morning and immediately went into conference with his associates in the ministry. It is understood that the Ottoman government completely conceded Italy's economic claims in Tripoli but evaded a direct answer demanded by this government, which had set forth in its ultimatum that Turkey must say that she would not resist the proposed occupation of Tripoli and Cyrene.
Instead, the Turks sent a conciliatory note suggesting further delay. It was known that at the same time Turkey transmitted a note to the powers in which it is assumed that she represented herself as the injured party and by inference, at least, sought their intervention.
The royal government decided absolutely to abide in the ultimatum of yesterday, and in the absence of the reply called for to declare Italy and Turkey in a state of war from the hour that the ultimatum of 24 hours expired.
Tensions between Turkey and Italy which culminated this afternoon in a declaration of war in Rome, dates back to 1910, when, in the making of the treaty concluding the Russo-Turkish war, the powers were understood to have agreed to permit Italy a "specific penetration of Tripoli."
Turkey claims that this right has been respected ever since. Italy has colonized Tripoli until her interests in that African province are very great. She has asserted, however, that her subjects have been mistreated by the Ottoman authorities and constantly discriminated against.
Constantinople, Sept. 29.—The Turkish reply to the ultimatum of Italy, which demanded assurances that there will be no resistance to the Italian military occupation of Tripoli and Cyrene, was communicated to the Italian charge, Signor Di Martino, at 6:30 o'clock this morning. The message was couched in friendly terms and expressed surprise at the
