

EDUCATIONAL MEET IS CONCEDED TO ALBUQUERQUE FOR 1912

Consensus of Opinion Among Educators in Capital City That This Is Logical Place for Next Convention.

INTERESTING SESSIONS WERE HELD TODAY

(Special Correspondence to the Herald) Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 16.—It was the consensus of opinion here among the educators who are gathered in this city for the annual convention of the New Mexico Educational association that the lowest point for the next convention would be in Albuquerque. The persistent rumor that the Albuquerque delegation was making a strong effort to get the convention, aided and abetted by the Commercial club of that city was born out by the fact that a number of people were seen to be wearing badges with the slogan "Come to Albuquerque." There does not seem to be much opposition to these Albuquerque boosters, and it is generally admitted Albuquerque will be chosen as the convention city for 1912.

There was no formal program yesterday, the time of delegates being taken up by sight-seeing, and getting acquainted. There was also a meeting of the town superintendents and principals. Chairman John Mills of Albuquerque appointed a committee to prepare drafts of needed legislation. It is thought that the results of this committee's work will solve a number of educational problems in the new state of New Mexico.

Today's was the first formal program of the convention. The session was opened at nine o'clock by President Hoyer of Tucuman. After an address of welcome spoken by Governor Mills on behalf of the city of Santa Fe, the president's annual address was delivered by Mr. Hoyer. He chose as his topic, "The Status of Education in New Mexico," treating the topic along general lines. He was followed in this discussion by County Superintendent C. C. Hill of Roswell, who spoke of education in the rural schools of New Mexico. Mrs. Nora Brumbrach of Santa Rosa further illuminated the subject as regards the graded schools of the territory. President E. McQueen of Gray, Superintendent of the University of New Mexico spoke of the influence of the secondary and higher educational institutions of New Mexico. Mr. Walter M. Peterson, supervisor of the Indian Schools in Albuquerque, undertook to explain what progress Indian education had attained within the past year.

The afternoon was taken up by the attendance of the convention at the football game between the University of New Mexico and the Las Vegas Normal.

In the evening the convention ressembled to listen to a general discussion of the Archaeology and Resources of New Mexico undertaken by Dr. E. L. Hewitt, L. B. Prince, and Benjamin M. Rowell.

The large delegation sent up by the Commercial club of Albuquerque met a hearty welcome, and the numbers of delegates from Bernillo county was considerably increased by this body, so that Albuquerque and vicinity make a good showing. It is expected that Albuquerque will carry the convention for the next meeting in 1912.

active Clovis booster had boarded the front car and was shouting "Hooray for the State Normal at Clovis" badges to all takers, with the admonition that they work at Santa Fe for the success of the movement. Clovis wants the educational association to endorse that city as a location for the school in Eastern New Mexico.

Nor is the normal the only thing Clovis wants. She wants the annual meeting of the association next year and to secure it is making quite a considerable propaganda.

The high school girls' basketball team, a part of the delegation, is to play a series of three games with the girls' team of the Santa Fe high school and expect to win at least two of the series.

The boys have along a large number of copies of the "High School Weekly," a publication by the students of Clovis high school, and are giving them away to all takers. The edition is an extra large one and is handsomely illustrated with photographs of the school building, students and student activities. It is a bright, new sheet.

The basketball girls include Misses Maybelle Davis, Mildred Morgan, Mildred Lantz, S. E. Owen, Beattie Woods, Beattie Hyatt, Eva Odum. The teachers and high school instructors with the delegation are Prof. C. E. Davis, Miss Buchanan, Miss Norris, Miss Rutter, Miss Pearson.

The following are the young men accompanying the basketball team as managers or rosters, Owen Forben, Charles Houchen, Claude Billington, Harry Davenport.

They are all out to land the association meeting next year, and they are out to get that normal school. Maybe they need the normal, but there is one thing they do not need, if the sample of pretty girls here this morning is a representative one, and that is a beauty institution.

FRIDAY BIG NIGHT FOR ELKS IN THE CLUB ROOMS

Mysterious Stunts Will Be Pulled Off Which Will Surprise and Delight Those Who Are Present.

The entertainment committee of the Albuquerque Lodge, R. P. O. E., has announced that there will be "something doing" on Friday night at the Elks' club rooms, beginning about 8:30. The committee, however, is very reticent about disclosing the nature of the proceedings, but by many mysterious and diverse winks and nods, and significant looks indicate that the entertainment will be "very classy."

This is to be exclusively for the "best people," and while the attendance is limited to Elks, it is urged by the committee that every Elk be on hand to share the fun. Any member of the benevolent order who does not put in his appearance, it is said, will regret it to his dying day.

WILLIAM ALDEN SMITH HERE LAST NIGHT

Chairman of Senate Committee on Territories Spends Several Hours in Albuquerque; Guest of Simon Stern.

William Alden Smith, senator from Michigan and chairman of the Senate committee on territories, passed through Albuquerque last night, on his way home from the Pacific coast. Mr. Smith spent several hours here between train trips. He has been making a number of speeches for good government in Arizona and the coast cities.

Mr. Smith renewed the promise made some time ago, when he went through Albuquerque on his way west, to return to the state for its inaugural ceremonies, and said that nothing would please him better than to visit the initial functions, as a state, of the territory, to which he was admittedly a friend in need. Mr. Smith, following his usual custom, declined to express an opinion on the election results, or to talk on any subject allied with politics. He did express a great interest in the coming senators from New Mexico, and was very anxious to know who they would probably be.

Mr. Smith spent the time between train stops as the guest of Simon Stern, whom he met in Washington at the time of the campaign for the immediate admission of New Mexico.

EDUCATION BOARD PAYS FOR HIGH SCHOOL PLOT

Meeting of City School Superintendents Last Night Authorizes Final Payment for Land on Highlands.

A meeting of the city board of education was held last night in the Central school building which took an action that will go far toward supplying Albuquerque's crying need for a proper high school building in the near future.

The board last night authorized the final payment of $1500 on the plot of ground which it bought some time ago for the erection of a high school building. This land is the big plot at the corner of Central and Broadway, a location admirably chosen for convenience and general suitability.

Today the payment was made, and the deed for the ground recorded with Probate Clerk A. E. Walker.

The board was last night informed of the intended removal of Mr. Gleigold, a member, to California. Mr. Gleigold did not formally resign, but as he is to leave for his new home on the coast within a short time his resignation is expected within a few days.

Mr. Gleigold has served the city for several years, and has been faithful in the performance of his duties as a member of the board or in any other work to which he was called. His departure will be marked by real regret.

CURTAIN TO RISE AT NINE O'CLOCK

Manager Frank Stortz Delays Opening of Richard and Pringles to Accommodate Persons Who Work Late.

Nine o'clock curtain will be the rule at Richard & Pringle's minstrel show here Saturday night. The change from the usual hour of 8:20 is made at the instance of Manager Frank Stortz to accommodate the many people who must work late Saturday evening or who have their buying to do at that time.

The sale of seats for this attractive presentation opened this morning, and a goodly number have been disposed of, though there are still many good ones to be had.

The personnel of the company contains the names of such well known performers as Clarence Powell, the dean of Ethiopian comedians; Tom White, Arthur Wright, Bonnie Sparrow, Dave Smith, the famous exponent of leglessness; Fred Simpson, "the Black Friar"; Major Daniels, the world's greatest colored horse scientist; Sidney Kirkpatrick, the fashion plate interlocutor and hatter; Whitney Viney, delineator of the "Aunt Dinah" character studies; and a host of others—forty in all.

The scenic and electrical paraphernalia is the best that money can buy and specialized brains produce.

The wardrobe is the costliest ever carried by a minstrel organization.

A SECOND LOT OF STICKERS IS ORDERED

Because the first installment of 25,000 little red and white stickers lasted less than a week, Secretary H. B. Henning of the bureau of immigration has ordered another lot, double the size of the first one, and the handy labels for use on correspondence will be again in stock in a short time.

The labels bear the slogan adopted from the prize contest held some time ago, "New Mexico, the Sunshine State," and the demand for them has been far ahead of the supply. Nearly all the business firms and a great many private individuals are using them on their letters and packages, and in so doing are boosting the state before the public eye.

"New Mexico Train a Go." "It now looks," said Mr. Henning this morning, "as though the New Mexico train in Chicago for the irrigation congress would be a go. We are receiving a great many applications for places on the train, and those who want to get aboard should make their reservations at once. We have had five applications from the Mesilla valley alone, and every mail brings one or more. I believe we are going to have a fairly good representation at the congress."

HUFFMAN CAUGHT AT CHAPPELLE

Ex-Switchman Who Had Meteoric 24 Hours Captured By Santa Fe Officers at Small Station.

C. W. Huffman, who had a meteoric 24 hours yesterday was today captured at Chappelle, a small station north of here, near Las Vegas. Huffman was arrested yesterday morning charged with assault with a deadly weapon, upon the person of Ed Morris. He was released on bond of $200, his surety being J. E. Goodell and A. B. Loken. He failed to appear for his hearing at 3 o'clock, and last night held up W. C. Smith, a watchman in the lower yards and abstracted his gun. He told Smith he would leave the gun with the yardmaster when he was done with it.

Huffman yesterday left the house where he was stopping without settling his bill, and with a suit case. The police were promptly notified of his apparent intention of "beating it" and it was in watching out for Huffman that Smith was held up by him. Railroad officers all along the line were notified of the desire of the local police to lay hands on the missing man, and the capture today is the result.

Chavez Case Settled. As he had expected, Sylvester Chavez was yesterday released from police custody, into which he had fallen for fraudulently obtaining money on a check, by the failure of his brother, Miguel Chavez, the rightful owner of the check, to prosecute him. The case was settled out of court, and what arrangements Sylvester made in regard to the return of the $275 which he received cash, goods and due bills for, from Mandell Meyer and company, are not known.

The Markets

REASSURING TONE DEVELOPES TODAY IN MARKET

In Decided Contrast to Yesterday's Weakness, Unusual Strength Manifested With U. P. Leading.

(By Evening Herald A. P. Leonard Writer) New York, Nov. 16.—With the exception of a period of uncertainty early in the day the stock market displayed a degree of strength during the morning which was in decided contrast with yesterday's weakness. Stocks were marked up under the leadership of Union Pacific and the Southern group.

Refusal of the court to permit the independent tobacco interests to intervene in the American Tobacco case helped the bull party to force up the bid. The bears centered their efforts about Lehigh Valley which yielded readily at first but on its recovery their operations were effectually checked.

Further advances were made all through the day in the second hour but the purchases decreased automatically as prices went higher. Union Pacific reached 175. The coal group, the heavy accumulation of Lehigh Valley which sold more than a point above yesterday's closing, had a strengthening effect on affiliated stocks and there was little holding for the local public utilities. Western stocks in general made a good showing.

Metal issues responded to the persistent buying of United States Steel and Amalgamated Copper, both of which were up a point.

Bonds were steady.

Room traders took profits sparingly and the market was set back slightly. Lehigh Valley later was pushed up to 177 3/4 but the general market remained in a state of abatement. Louisville and Nashville and Atlantic Coast line were absorbed steadily and showed advances of 4 1/2 and 2 1/2 respectively.

Stocks were sold more freely in the afternoon, the reaction from the heat figures amounting to a point in Union Pacific, Reading and Lehigh Valley. Prices improved again afterwards but the market appeared to have lost much of its snap.

The close was firm.

Chicago, Nov. 16.—Cattle receipts 4,000, including 300 southern. Market steady. Native steers $5.00-5.25; southern steers $4.00-4.25; southern cows and heifers $3.75-4.00; native cows and heifers $2.60-2.90; stockers and feeders $3.75-4.00; bulls $3.50-3.80; calves $4.00-4.25; western steers $4.00-4.25; western cows $3.90-4.20.

THREATENING RAINS BOOST WHEAT TODAY

Chicago, Nov. 16.—With rain continuing to do damage to crops in the Argentine and with more rain predicted, the wheat market today began to climb. In the option pit the opening was the same as last night to 1-6 higher. May started a shade to 1-8 up at $1.30 to 1.30 1-5, touching 97 7/8 and then advanced to 100 1/4. Corn rose in sympathy with wheat. May opened a shade to 1/8 higher at $4 1/2-5/8 to 6 1/2-5/8 and ascended to 6 1/2.

Oats felt the effect of the upswing of other cereals. May started at last night's level at 47 7/8 and was boosted to 50 1-8.

Although provisions eased somewhat at the outset the grain markets sold substantially in an upward. Initial sales were unchanged to 1/4-3/4 down with May delivery $17.12 1/2 for pork; $9.50 for lard and $5.60 to $5.62 1/2 for ribs.

YESTERDAY DEER SEASON CLOSED

Yesterday was the last day this season on which deer could be legally killed. Although the season on deer is very short now, several of Albuquerque's famous hunters brought back their deer spoils. The season this year has been remarkably free from poaching, and in spite of special activities of the game wardens very few offenses have been detected.

Deputy Game Warden Raymond P. Stamm, who has been on a tour of the mountains investigating certain charges in regard to the unlawful killing of deer, reports that game is very plentiful, there being especially large numbers of turkey and quail. Mr. Stamm thinks that the new law on deer is having the desired effect, and that deer will increase materially within the next few years.

Territorial Game Warden Gable at Santa Fe yesterday stated that he thought the number of deer killed this season is greatly less than usual.

"I do not think the sportsmen have reaped a great 'venison harvest,'" said Gable, "and Fish Warden Gable in discussing the sport of the past month in this territory. 'Of course a good many hunters have been out after the deer but they have not met with any phenomenal success and in my opinion, have not greatly reduced the deer population in our preserves.'"

COURT NOTES

District Clerk Thos. K. D. Madison yesterday poured out to waste a large amount of the liquid evidence in a number of cases of the sale of liquor to Indians. The vault in the district office were crowded with bottles and jugs of the stuff, which was "fies water" in fact as well as name, judging from the smell.

The case of Julian Howard, charged with passing a bad check to the Rice Cafe, is in the hands of the jurors, having been brought to a close so far as argument and evidence are concerned, about 11:30 this morning.

The district court is now occupied in the trial of Augustin Chiquiqui, a Pueblo Indian, for criminal assault alleged to have been committed upon the person of Marie Virginia Chavez, also an Isleta Indian. The alleged assault took place on the 24th or 25th of last August, that being the feast day of San Augustin, corresponding to a large saint with Thanksgiving day. Whether Augustin partook of too much new wine in celebration of his saint's day or whether his actions was from some other cause is not known. He is about 35 years old, and his alleged victim is about 45.

Burt was filed today by Angelo Viviani and Julia Castellina against Henry and Lena Augo, and Frank J. Wilson and the Western Meat company, for the foreclosure of a trust deed executed December 8, 1909 as security for principal and interest of a $4,000 loan claimed to have been made Augo, Wilson and the meat company appear as defendants through the holding of a second lien upon the same property, a lot in the Hunting addition.

Nelson Le Grand, lumberman for the forest service, will leave tonight for El Paso, where he will meet A. S. Peck, of the department of operation for this district, and H. B. Calkins, also of the forest service. The three will go to Houston and New York for several weeks' stay.

DRUMM'S STORY IS REPRINTED

The story of Harry C. Drumm, motor editor of the Chicago Record-Herald, of his trip over the Santa Fe trail in an automobile, is reprinted in the Santa Fe Employes' Magazine this month, by courtesy of the World Today. Drumm, while he does not live in Albuquerque, married a local girl, and local people look upon him as a resident of the city.

The article is profusely illustrated with photographs, one scene of the Rio Puerco arroyo being especially interesting to local motorists.

PERSONALS
