BRIEF WIRINGS:

TO-DAY'S DEDICATION SERVICES.

The World's Fair Buildings to be Turned Over to the National Officials.

Great Parade of National and State Troops—The Program of Exercises—The Ode—Religious Services.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—The quadricentennial anniversary day of America's discovery was ushered in with the booming of cannons, with the raising of flags and with all the ceremony due the great day. It is the second of Chicago's public holidays and the climax of its week's festivities. Never in the history of the Garden City has so great a throng been within its boundaries, and never has it sheltered so vast a host of prominent men, representing every state in the Union, the nation and every civilized country on the face of the globe. The civic parade of yesterday pales into insignificance beside the great pageant which is moving through the great thoroughfares of the World's fair buildings.

The one effort of the director-general and his aides has been directed to lessening the crowd which will throng into the manufacturers' building to listen to the services. If two-thirds of the invitations are accepted, there will be over 100,000 there. To avoid this awful crush, all those not using their invitations will be given free admission on the opening day in May.

The crowd has, however, been streaming to the ground since an early hour this morning and as the train facilities are announced to be but 7,500 an hour at present, it will be seen that the visitors will not all get there till very late in the day.

The troops that are taking part in the parade to-day have been quartered during the night in the Electricity building and in the annex to the Transportation building.

The military procession will form near the Auditorium on Michigan avenue, and will proceed as follows:

Joint Committee on Ceremonies of the World's Columbian Exposition and the World's Columbian Commission and the President of the Centennial Commission of 1876, at Philadelphia, and the Director-General thereof.

The President of the World's Columbian Commission and the President of the World's Columbian Exposition.

The Vice-President of the World's Columbian Commission and the Vice-President of the World's Columbian Exposition.

The Secretary of State and Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of War and the Attorney-General of the United States.

The Postmaster General and the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture.

The Supreme Court of the United States and the Mayor of Chicago.

Ex-President Hayes, Ex-President John Sherman and Lyman J. Gage, ex-President of the World's Columbian Exposition.

Thomas F. Bayard and W. T. Baker, ex-President of the United States.

The Senate of the United States, headed by the President pro tem.

The House of Representatives, the Army of the United States, the Navy of the United States.

The Governors and their Staffs of the States and Territories of the United States.

The Cabinet Officers, the Orators and Chaplains, Commissioners of Foreign Governments to the World's Columbian Exposition, Consuls from Foreign Governments.

The World's Columbian Commissioners, headed by the second, third, fourth and fifth vice-presidents thereof.

The Board of Lady Managers, headed by the President thereof.

One woman to represent each one of the thirteen original States.

Board of Directors of the World's Columbian Exposition and the second vice president thereof and the Director of Works.

The Board of Management of the United States Government Exhibits, the department chiefs.

The Staff Officers of the Director of Works.

The City Council of Chicago.

This procession, escorted by United States cavalry and light artillery, will proceed south on Michigan avenue to Twenty-ninth street, where it will receive the vice president of the United States, after which it will proceed south on Michigan avenue to Thirty-fifth street to Grand Boulevard, thence to Washington park, where it will be formed in parallel lines on the west side of the parade grounds of the park.

When forming at the Auditorium, the mounted troops that are to act as escorts to governors of states and territories, and will accompany them from the Auditorium to Washington park, will take their position in rear of the staff of the governor whom they escort, and when the line of march is taken up, will proceed in their proper position.

The national and state troops will have been formed in the meantime by brigades in line of masses on the east side of the field at Washington park. As the vice-president approaches the ground, the president's salute will be fired, and on his taking his position opposite the center of the line, the commands will change direction by the left flank, forming columns and pass in review in the usual order, except that the distance in column will be that in mass. The "present" by the command and the ride around the line will be dispensed with, owing to the limited time. The troops having passed in review, will then become the escort of honor for the entire procession, and it will continue thence via Fifty-seventh street to the exposition grounds, thence to the manufacturers' and liberal arts building, where the troops will take position assigned them, the officials occupying the platform prepared for them.

As the vice-president's carriage passes through the exposition grounds a battery on the lake front will fire the national salute.

The following program will take place at the manufacturers' building: At 12:30 o'clock in the afternoon in this building, the dedicatory exercises will be conducted under the direction of the director-general as master of ceremonies, according to the following program:

"Columbian March," composed by Prof. John K. Paine, of Cambridge, Mass.

Prayer, by Bishop Charles H. Fowler, of California.

Introductory address, by the director-general.

Address of welcome and tender of the freedom of the city of Chicago, by Hempstead Washburne, mayor.

Selected recitation from the dedicatory ode; written by Miss Harriet Monroe, of Chicago; music by G. W. Chadwick, of Boston; reading by Mrs. Sarah C. LeMoine.

Presentation to the director of works of the master artists of the exposition, and award to them of special commemorative medals.

Chorus "The Heavens are Telling," Haydn.

Address—"Work of the Board of Lady Managers," Mrs. Potter Palmer, president.

Tender of the building on behalf of the World's Columbian exposition, by the president thereof, to the president of the World's Columbian Commission.

Presentation of the buildings by the president of the World's Columbian Commission, to the vice-president of the United States, for dedication.

Dedication of the buildings by the vice president of the United States, in the presence of the World's Columbian Commission, to the vice-president of the United States, for dedication.

"Star Spangled Banner" and "Hail Columbia," with full chorus and orchestral accompaniment.

Columbian oration, Chancery M. Dewey, of New York.

Prayer, by His Eminence Cardinal James Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore.

Chorus, "In Praise of God," Beethoven.

Benediction, by the Rev. H. C. McCook, of Philadelphia.

National salute.

More Free Land.

GUTHRIE, Okla., Oct. 21.—The Cherokee commission has concluded the deal for the surplus lands of the Kiowa and Comanche country after the Indians have been allowed their allotments. Two million dollars is guaranteed to the Indians, from which they are to receive annually 6 per cent until the principal is paid. Another stipulation allows them to appeal to congress for an additional $500,000, as the commission has offered but $2,000,000. The land is to remain as it is until April, 1894, much of it being leased to cattle-men. The Wichita mountains are not included in the treaty. The treaty is subject to the consent and signature of a majority of the Indians and then to ratification by congress. The total area of the reservation is 2,968,893 acres. From this must be deducted the Wichita mountains, 800,000 acres, and the Fort Bill military reserve of about 12,000 acres and allotments to 8,000 Indians of 160 acres each. This leaves a public domain of 2,276,893 acres subject to settlement, furnishing homes for 14,230 families.

Consolidation.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The stockholders of the Colorado Coal and Iron and the Colorado Fuel company, at their meeting, ratified the consolidation of the concerns. The new company will be known as the Colorado Fuel & Iron company. The capital stock is $9,250,000, of which $5,250,000 will be distributed to the stockholders of the Colorado Fuel company. The Colorado Fuel & Iron company is also to receive 60 per cent in stock of new development company which has been formed, to take over the agricultural and town lot property of the Colorado Coal & Iron company.

Synod After Him.

DENVER, Oct. 21.—The Rev. Walter S. Randol, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church, is at present being arraigned before the Presbyterian synod for certain heretical doctrines promulgated from the pulpit. The youthful pastor is charged with the utterance that he did not believe in eternal damnation.

Blaine on Deck.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Mr. Blaine was among the callers at the national Republican headquarters yesterday. He remained about an hour canvassing the situation with Chairman Carter and others and made several important suggestions.

Growing Worse.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—There has been a change for the worse in the condition of Mrs. Harrison and last night she was weaker than she has been at any time since her illness began. She is greatly exhausted and can not turn her head upon the pillow.

It Was a "Lollin"

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—The banquet given by the Fellowship club, of this city, last night, was one of the most notable events of its kind in the history of the country. Covers were laid for 150 guests, including Vice-President Morton, ex-President Hayes, Cardinal Gibbons, the members of President Harrison's cabinet, representatives of foreign nations, publishers of widely known newspapers and many men distinguished in professional and other walks of life.

Failed to Reach New Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The most important astronomical phenomenon of the year was the partial solar eclipse yesterday. The eclipse was visible throughout the whole of North America, except the New England coast, and that portion west of a line drawn from the northwest corner of California to the north shore of the Bay of Tehuantepec, in southern Mexico. As seen from Washington the eclipse began 11h, 12s, a. m. and ended at 5h, 57m, 12s, p. m. mean time.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 21.—The famous White Mountain Commercial Travelers' association holds its annual convention at the New Eagle hotel here to-day.

Raleigh, N. C.—The corner stone of the confederate monument will be laid here to-day with impressive ceremonies.

New York.—New York will to-night hear the first concert under the direction of the famous composer, Anton Dvorak. A new choral work of his own will have its first rendition.

New York.—The German veterans of the Republic have a party to be held in Germania hall to-night. All the German Republicans who fought in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New England regiments have been invited to attend.

AFTER 400 YEARS.

The Great Columbian Jubilee on To-day the Country Over.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—To-day the American republic puts on its holiday garb and proclaims to the world in a jubilee of oratory, song and pyrotechnics that it is just 400 years to-day since the Santa Maria and her two companion ships plowed their way into the shallow waters of the American coast. The celebration has its climax in Chicago, where the World's fair buildings are being dedicated, but every city, every town, every hamlet in the United States is joining in the jubilee. The school celebration throughout the country is uniform and from the rising of the sun on the eastern coast to the moment it drops in heaven's grandeur behind the golden gates of the Pacific, no moment will be without its echo of the patriotic voices of America's children, no moment without a salute to the American flag, at 10 o'clock to-day the school assemblies are joining in the jubilee.
