SEE THE COLEMAN QUICK-LITE IN OUR WINDOWS

The Coleman Quick-Lite is the one you've seen advertised for years in the Saturday Evening Post and the Country Gentleman. It's the brilliant economical light that can't explode. Fine looking, efficient, dependable, the Coleman is the next best thing to electricity—and costs less to operate.

- 300 Candle power of pure white light.
- More light than 20 old style oil lamps.
- No wick to trim; no chimney to wash; no smoke; no soot; no smell; no dripping oil.
- Lights with common matches; no torch needed.
- Makes own gas from common motor gasoline.
- Can't spill or explode, even if tipped up—see the window display.
- 15 to 20 hours service on one filling. Costs less than 50c a month.
- Built of brass heavily nickled. Lasts a life-time.
