THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Delegate Joseph Has Not Abandoned Hope of New Mexico's Statehood Bill.

Disposing of Appropriation Bills—Silver and Sugar—Cost of Removing Southern Utes.

Washington, Mo. 2.—Delegate Joseph, of New Mexico, has had a conference with Senator Faulkner, chairman of the senate committee on territories, relative to the bill for the admission of New Mexico. He was assured by the senator that an effort would be made to get the bill up, and that he hoped to succeed. Senator Faulkner still thinks it may be possible to get a day for the consideration of the New Mexico and Arizona bills, but says that if an entire day can not be obtained he will call up the bills in the intermissions afforded between conference reports on the appropriation bills.

A GOOD SCHEME. Mr. Gallinger briefly addressed the senate at the opening of the session yesterday in favor of a plan presented by the Daughters of the Revolution that a copy of the declaration of independence be conspicuously displayed in every post-office.

REMAINS A DEMOCRAT. Senator McLearnin, of Mississippi, speaking last night of the proposed formation of a new party, said: "I am in favor of the unlimited coinage of silver at 16 to 1, but I am a Democrat, loyal to my party, and I hope to see this accomplished by the Democratic party. I will not join any new party. The Democratic party is good enough for me."

SILVER AND SUGAR. The senate passed the sundry civil appropriation bill, including the item appropriating $5,000,000 for sugar bounties, and the provision for a commission to represent the United States in the international monetary conference.

The latter feature brought out a wide difference of opinion among the silver men of the senate as to the advisability of participating in an international conference. Mr. Stewart (Nev.) sought to have the United States delegates instructed not to make any agreement short of a recognition of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. This was opposed by Mr. Wolcott, who has always heretofore co-operated with Mr. Stewart on the silver question. Mr. Wolcott severely arraigned the Nevada senator for his intolerance on financial questions. Mr. Stewart only commanded a bare majority of 16 in amendments, most of the leading silver men, Democrats and Republicans, voting against it.

COST OF REMOVING THE SOUTHERN UTES. The conference committee of the two houses on the Indian appropriation bill have agreed to the appropriation of $10,000 for procuring the consent of the Southern Utes to their removal and for removing them.

SENATE HAS ENTERED ON A LONG SESSION. The senate entered upon its final session to-day with the prospect of sitting continuously until Monday at noon. There was a rush of private bills, as was the last chance of many eager claimants.

Senator Call, of Florida, presented the following telegram from Dr. Moore, at Tampa, Fla.: "Two American citizens, Saugilly and Aguirre, have been incarcerated in Havana. They enter a protest and want to have the case investigated at once." Senator Call asked the committee on foreign relations promptly to communicate with the state department with a view to American intervention.

DISPOSING OF APPROPRIATION BILLS. Final action was taken confirming the conference agreement on the fortifications appropriation bill.

Senator Gorman, in charge of the naval appropriation bill, cut off the rush of private bills by urging the need of the speedy consideration of this last of the great appropriation bills. His plan prevailed and the naval bill was taken up. The first item caused a spirited debate. As proposed by the committee the number of extra seamen to be enlisted by the secretary of the navy in times of emergency was reduced from 2,000 to 1,000. Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, earnestly opposed the reduction.

UNCLE SAM MAD.

The Government of Honduras Must Account for the Murder of An American Citizen.

Chicago, Mo. 2.—The Tribune has the following dispatch: "The United States has determined that Honduras must comply with its demands for the punishment for the murder of American citizens. Diplomatic means having failed, the cruiser Montgomery has left Mobile, Ala., for Trujillo. The instructions to the commander are there thoroughly to investigate and assist American Minister Pierce. M. B. Young is obtaining prosecution of the offenders. The crime in question was the murder of Charles W. Benton, who purchased an estate near Brewer's Lagoon, Honduras, a short distance from Trujillo, and lived there until March, 1894, when he was set upon by negroes and Hondurians and killed."

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. World's Fair Highest Award.

Sentence of a Hoodler. New Orleans, La., Mo. 2.—The application of Louis Octave de Fargus, one of the convicted hoodler counselmen, for a new trial, was overruled by Judge Forges, and he was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

RIO GRANDE WATERS.

A Tale of Woe from Down the Valley—They Want Water.

Washington, Mo. 2.—Mr. Charles E. Weshe, acting United States consul at Paso Del Norte, Mexico, has told in a pathetic way through a report to the state department some of the sufferings of the people of that section through drought brought on by the diversion of the waters of the Rio Grande by the agriculturists of Colorado and New Mexico.

He recalls the fact that Mexico by treaty consented to an equal share with the United States of the waters of the river, and shows how a vast tract of Mexican land, which formerly produced great crops, is now barren as a result of the operations of the irrigation companies in the upper river and tributaries in Colorado and New Mexico. Attention is called to the recommendation of President Cleveland that a "mixed commission be created with power to build a great reservoir at Paso del Norte to store the winter flood waters for use in irrigating the lands on the lower river, which for ten years has been made dry every summer."

Arizona Camels. San Francisco, Cal., Mo. 2.—M. F. Campbell, of the Ganisight mine, near the line of southern Arizona, says the camels of the desert, introduced many years ago by Ben Butterworth and now grown wild, are increasing rapidly, now numbering 300 or more in the range in land between the Gila and Colorado rivers. They are kept in good condition by the first bunch grass and are often killed and palmed off for beef. They are often captured for circus purposes and are easily trained.

Political Party. Saginaw, Mich., Mo. 2.—Charles T. Beatty, state president of the American Protective association and national secretary, is in the city completing arrangements for a big convention of the American Protective association to be held March 12, 13 and 23. The prime object of the convention is for the consideration of the proposition to form what is to be known as the Independent American party.

Mr. Beatty says: "We feel ourselves strong enough now to form a new party. We have 100,000 members in Michigan, and this large membership will be represented by about 800 delegates. The question of forming a party will then be discussed and decided upon. It is openly said here that the party will put a presidential ticket in the field next year."

A Queer Silver Episode. Ann Arbor, Mich., Mo. 2.—President Angell and the silver students attending the state university have been involved in a jangle over the use of the university hall. A free silver club embracing nearly 200 students has been formed, and the hall is largely in their hands. The club members have addressed by Senators Wolcott and Teller and Representatives Bland and Bryan.

President Angell refused permission on the ground that the regents had decided that no political meetings should be held there. The students claim a free silver propaganda is not politics and have all appealed to the president. They assert that opposition to bi-metallicism in the faculty is the real cause of the president's refusal.

DETAILS OF THE DISASTER.

Railway Horror in Mexico—Bodies of the Dead Await Official Investigation—Many of the Wounded Can Not Live.

City of Mexico, Mo. 2.—The Mexican government has commenced a rigid examination of the train men and officials of the Interoceanic railroad to fix the culpability for the recent terrible railway disaster. The engineer was John Neuffer and the conductor was J. H. Steele, both Americans.

The Jefe Politico, of Tanango with some mounted rifles had the dead bodies laid out on the bank for identification on arrival of the relief train, and refused to permit them to be brought to the city, awaiting a complete official examination at the scene of the wreck. The bodies were still lying there at noon yesterday, when the regular train went by after the wreck was cleared away.

Most of the dead will to-day be buried in a great trench being dug along side of the track. So far as ascertained all the killed and wounded were of the lower class. The locomotive engineer disappeared but was afterward captured at Chalco. He as well as the conductor and other train men are held as prisoners pending official investigation. A number of the wounded can not possibly live. Conductor Steele made a declaration before the judge and was allowed his liberty on his own recognizance. Officials of the road say that the wreck was caused by the trucks of the tender slipping out of place. The first coach on striking them immediately left the track and was telescoped by the second coach, the remaining coach piling on top.

S. O. Moran, grandson of Foreign Minister Mariscal, died here yesterday from injuries received in the wreck.

SOME MORE HISTORY.

How it Happened that Confirmation of the Executive Appointments Was Secured.

The Governor and the Council Acted Promptly to Take Advantage of an Opportune Moment.

There seems to be some question in the public mind as to who organized and planned the coup whereby the executive nominations were confirmed by the legislative council on Thursday last week. It has come to the New Mexican that Mr. Felix Martinez, the self-constituted party boss from San Miguel, is making loud boasts as to his connection with this clever piece of political legerdemain; indeed, he has given it out that he was the prime mover in the affair that secured this victory to Democracy. But the cold steel of truth finds no difficulty in puncturing this claim. The facts are that Martinez was not at all in the city. He didn't even have an inkling as to what was going on. His presence on the outside of the council chamber, with the locked-out Republican members, at the critical moment, was so noticeable and his blank expression of contentment so painfully apparent, that a group of Democrats standing near Florida county men, observed his dilemma and one of them remarked, sarcastically, "that's where Martinez belongs."

To ascertain the facts in the case a New Mexican representative was commissioned to call on President George Curry. He said, in substance: "When it became apparent to the six members of the council who had voted to go into executive session that the five Republican members had walked out with a view to breaking our quorum, we at once sent the sergeant-at-arms to bring in Congressman Desmarais. A moment later Gov. Thornton, who had been apprised of the situation, came to the council chamber, knocked and was admitted. Addressing the members of the council the governor said: 'our opportunity has arrived' and he requested Mr. Bunker to prepare the resolution confirming all executive nominees then before the council, except the three over which there was some contest among Democrats, and urged that as soon as a quorum could be secured the council should go into executive session and pass the resolution."

"The governor then retired and thus it happened that when Mr. Desmarais was brought in by the sergeant-at-arms the quorum was complete, and the five Republican members arrived two minutes later to find themselves locked out and the Democrats in the act of confirming the appointees."

In addition it may be stated that Felix Martinez followed the governor into the council chamber, and, overhearing his suggestions as to the propriety of the moment, went out immediately to again join the crowd outside and loudly boast of his shrewdness in planning the coup when, in reality, he "like the flowers that bloom in the spring, had nothing to do with the case."

Saved in Mid Ocean. New York, Mo. 2.—The Wilson steamer Colorado, which reached this port from Hull, England, to-day brought the captain and crew of ten men of the German bark Norma, picked up at sea. The Norma was an old vessel and was loaded with dye woods from Buenos Ayres for Antwerp on the 15th. She encountered a heavy storm, which caused her to leak badly. When the Colorado came in sight the Norma was sinking.

OFFICIAL BUDGET.

The Capitol Committee Organized this Morning—Good News from Washington—Get Their Pay.

The capitol rebuilding committee met at the Palace hotel this forenoon, all members being present as follows: Mr. F. A. Manzanares, of Las Vegas; Mr. W. S. Hopewell, of Hillsboro; Mr. Solomon Luna, of Los Lunas; Messrs. A. Stab and H. L. Waldo, of Santa Fe. The latter gentleman was last evening appointed by the governor as a member of the committee in place of Mr. B. Seligman, who could not find it convenient to serve. The board organized by electing Mr. Manzanares president and Mr. Stab secretary. Although the members serve without pay they are each required to give bonds in the sum of $5,000 and this was done this afternoon. Advice from Washington are to the effect that the house committee on territories has favorably reported the resolution sanctioning the issue of $75,000 of territorial bonds for rebuilding the capitol.

LEGISLATIVE EMPLOYEES' PAY.

The supreme court at 2 o'clock this afternoon announced its decision on the legislative employees' question. It was in favor of the employees, the decision of Judge Langhlin being reversed and a mandamus absolute being ordered against the auditor requiring him to pay the employees as provided in the resolutions passed by the assembly. Chief Justice Smith took occasion, in announcing that the court felt constrained to differ with Judge Langhlin, to pay a high tribute to that officer, stating that in dissenting from his opinion they did not lose sight of the ability of the officer and the purity of the purpose that had characterized his ruling on the subject. The chief justice further announced that in the opinion of the court the organic law did not impose any limitation as to the employment of persons by the legislature to assist in carrying out its functions. The chief justice stated that the abuse of power on the part of the legislature did not authorize a denial by the courts of the existence of that power. After announcing the decision the court adjourned until 3:30 when the formal order on the auditor was signed. Solicitor General Bartlett states that he will take no appeal.

OFFICIAL NOTES.

The 46th fiscal year for New Mexico begins on Monday next.

Hon. John P. Victory will succeed Gen. Bartlett as solicitor general of New Mexico on Monday, March 4, the beginning of the new fiscal year.

Hon. G. D. Bantz, the newly appointed associate justice, took the oath of office before Secretary Miller yesterday.

M. S. Hart, territorial coal oil inspector, has been to Denver to arrange for the brands to be used in his office under the new law respecting the inspection of kerosene.

Hon. W. S. Hopewell, of Hillsboro, one of the newly appointed members of the capitol rebuilding committee, arrived in the city from Denver last night. He is a guest at the Palace.

Ex-Congressman Bunker threatens to make a few affidavits and publish them in the Optic. 'Tis well. The more light the better—under the circumstances. But can he clear his own record? That's the question!

District Attorney J. H. Crist is at Cerillos for the purpose of taking a stenographic report of the evidence brought out before the coroner's investigation into the White Ash disaster.

U. S. District Attorney Hemingway, Assistant G. P. Money, U. S. Marshal E. L. Hall and deputy, Mr. Loomis, leave to-morrow for a month's stay at Albuquerque where United States court opens on Monday.

Capt. J. G. Clancey returned from Santa Fe, where he was an honored and useful member of the legislature.—Optic. Yes, Capt. Clancey made but one mistake; that was when he permitted the Bunker-Fort-Martinez combine to entice him into trying to deliver H. B. No. 112 to the governor 'out of its regular order.'

The Albuquerque Citizen says: "Gov. Thornton made a good record for himself during the session of the legislature. He is the best Democratic governor this territory has ever had. * * * Gov. Thornton vetoed the bill making the marshal elective. This is one of the best deeds the governor has done this year."

Capt. L. C. Fort is not a bit pleased with the governor's appointment of Hon. A. A. Jones, H. B. 112 to the contrary notwithstanding. It is stated that he meditates court proceeding either by quo warranto against Mr. Jones to test his title to the office or by proceeding against Secretary Miller to prevent that official from issuing a certificate of appointment.

A mistake in the confusion, incident to the close of the session, was made in yesterday's paper in the statement that the bill for the appropriation of the proceeds of a .20 mill levy for the Las Vegas insane asylum, had passed both houses. The bill which passed by the narrow margin mentioned was that giving the arrangement committee for the Albuquerque irrigation congress $2,500. What is better still, the last named measure got the governor's signature and is now law.

Hon. Frank A. Manzanares personally knows Hon. William L. Wilson, the new postmaster general, very well, and makes no concealment of the fact that he thinks the president could not have invited a brighter, brainier or better man to take a seat in his cabinet. Mr. Manzanares represented New Mexico as a delegate in congress during Mr. Wilson's first term as a representative in the house from West Virginia. This was in 1883 and 1884. The friendship then cemented between these two gentlemen has proved enduring.

ROUND ABOUT TOWN.

Wanted—500 chickens. F. Andrews. An election for mayordomos is billed for Monday.

Like the late 21st legislative assembly the snow has nearly faded away.

The board of county commissioners will meet at the court house on Monday.

Felix Papp, well known to all old timers in Santa Fe, is so sore afflicted with rheumatism that he can hardly walk.

Doubtless the Almighty might have contrived a more glorious March day than this has been, but he hasn't done so up to date.

Work is being vigorously pushed on the 50-ton reduction plant below Bland. Superintendent Denny expects to be able to begin treating ore early in May.

Charles Neustadt has closed and dismantled his wholesale liquor and tobacco house in this city. For the present his goods and fixtures will be stored in a Santa Fe warehouse.

This is lent. "So is that $5 I had the hardhood to loan you six months ago with the distinct understanding that you would hand it back to me the next day."

"All right. I will pay you after lent." Carleton post office and arm corps has organized with the following officers: President, W. H. Hogle; secretary, Clarence Pierce; treasurer, Thomas Gough. This organization has ten members, five each of fifeers and drummers, under the leadership of Mr. R. J. Crichton. They hold meetings twice a week for practice and will be very proficient for service by Memorial day.

Hon. George Curry complimented his fellow legislator, Hon. W. A. Thompson, of the late house, with a dinner at the Palace hotel yesterday, at which about twenty guests were entertained. A feature of the occasion was the presentation to the popular representative from Union county of a magnificent gold-headed cane, bearing the inscription, "Thompson from Curry." There was no more highly respected man or better Democrat in the recent assembly than Mr. Thompson. His many Santa Fe friends hope to see him in the next assembly.

WISDOM OF PRES'DENT DOLE

Death Sentences Committed to Fine and Imprisonment—No Executions in Honolulu.

San Francisco, Mo. 2.—The steamship Australia arrived to-day from Honolulu. Among the passengers are thirteen exiles from the Hawaiian islands, put on board by officials of the republic at the last moment before the sailing of the steamer. Among the number are only a few accused of actual complicity in the recent revolution. The others are mostly Brits and Germans who made themselves obnoxious to the republican government by too much talking. Among the exiles, who became known as supporters of the revolutionary party, are Wendenburg, Creighton, Peterson, Rathen, Brown and Fitzsimmons. The most important news brought by the steamer was the decision of President Dole and his cabinet committing to thirty-five years imprisonment and $10,000 fine all death sentences imposed by the court martial upon Wilcox, Seward, Rickard and Gullick, the leading rebel plotters. This means that there will be no executions as a result of the recent revolution.

Weekly Bank Statement.

New York, Mo. 2.—The weekly bank statement is as follows: Reserve, decrease, $1,766,228; loans, increase, $1,588,700; specie, decrease, $4,844,200; legal tenders, increase, $306,200; deposits, decrease, $119,100; circulation, increase, $163,900. The banks hold $28,054,500 in excess of legal requirements.
