It has been all along surmised that the German imperial government was not in earnest in taking up the proposition for an international settlement of the silver question.

Mr. W. B. STEVENS, of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat's editorial staff, is now in Santa Fe.

IT WON'T DO.

It will not do for Jurymen Myers, one of the twelve men who sat in judgment on the four men charged with the assassination of ex-Sheriff Chavez.

Colorado to fully participate in these obvious benefits is the construction of competing lines of railroad to Galveston.

The building of the line down the Rio Grande, as its name plainly implies, was unquestionably contemplated by Gen. Palmer, Gov. Hunt and the other original promoters of the road.

The recent purchase of the latter road by the Denver & Rio Grande people, the manifest feasibility and desirability of the extension of the line southward from this city.

PRESS COMMENTS.

And Isn't He Right? Governor Thornton has been heard from in New York representing that the people of New Mexico are unanimous on the silver question.

Will Benefit New Mexico. New Mexico will derive great benefit from the change if, as Gov. Thornton of that territory says, its people shall follow their cattle at home instead of sending them to Kansas and Nebraska to be fed.

Judge Bantz's Ruling. It is believed that the ruling made by Judge Bantz in regard to free process in criminal cases will go a long way toward discouraging the taking of changes of venue.
