BILIOUSNESS

Who has not suffered this misery—caused by bile in the stomach which an inactive or sluggish liver failed to carry off.

THE PREVENTION AND CURE IS

liquid or powder, which gives quick action to the liver and carries off the bile by a mild movement of the bowels. It is no purgative or gripping medicine, but purely vegetable. Many people take pills—more take Simmons' Liver Regulator.

"I have been a victim to Biliousness for years, and after trying various remedies my only success was in the use of Simmons' Liver Regulator, which never failed to relieve me. I speak not of myself, alone, but my whole family."—J. M. FLEMMING, Seaside, Ala.

DE VARGAS PROCESSION.

Commemoration of a Notable Historical Event To-morrow Afternoon.

The annual De Vargas procession will form at the cathedral at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon and march to the chapel of Our Lady of the Rosary.

In 1680, the Pueblo Indians of New Mexico revolted against Spanish rule; seized and pillaged Santa Fe and other white settlements; murdered all the Christians, priests and seculars, women and children, except such as escaped with Gov. Otermin to El Paso and such maidens as were reserved by the warriors for wives; and solemnly decreed that "God, the Father, and Mary, the Mother of the Spaniards, were dead, and that the Indian gods alone remained."

In 1822 Don Diego de Vargas Zapate Lejan headed an expedition from El Paso to wrest New Mexico from the possession of the rebellious Pueblos. He reached Santa Fe with his brave little army on September 12, of that year, carrying with him a statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary. He entered the city from the south by a road now called "El Camino de Vargas," and first halted his troops near the present church of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Thence he crossed the Rio Santa Fe at a point yet called "Puente de Vargas," that point being selected because the ground on the southwest was higher and the plaza more exposed on that side and hence the Indians could be attacked with more facility from that vantage ground than elsewhere.

Thence De Vargas marched direct to the spot where now stands the chapel of Our Lady of the Rosary and there erected a palacio. The Indians, numbering about 10,000, were then centered and fortified on a waste, which is now the beautiful plaza of Santa Fe. During the bloody battle that ensued, De Vargas, in the name of his troops, on their bended knees before the statue of Mary, made the solemn vow that, should he take the city, every year that same statue should be brought in solemn procession from the principal church in the city to the spot on which they were camping, where he should build a sanctuary, and there be left for nine days, the people flocking to the chapel to thank Mary for the victory. The victory was won, the Sunday after the Octave of Corpus Christi was fixed as the time for the fulfillment of the vow, and since then it has been annually observed, the identical statue De Vargas brought here being used. To-morrow will be the 233rd anniversary of the event commemorated.

ROUND ABOUT TOWN.

Trade is showing marked improvement in Santa Fe. Every live business man should be "in it" on our special edition to be issued next week.

Capital city cyclists will have a run to the crater to-morrow. They will meet at the postoffice at 8 a. m.

Mottley has leased one of the rooms in the Gonzales block and will remove his Delmonico restaurant there.

Since the trees in the capital park were trimmed by Supt. Bergmann they have made remarkable growth and the grounds are now beautiful.

The Santa Fe base ball team will leave for Las Vegas at 10:20 o'clock this evening to play the return game with the Meadow City team to-morrow afternoon.

Gentlemen will not monopolize all the seats in the plaza during the Sunday afternoon concerts and let ladies stand up. It is hoped that this mild hint will be regarded to-morrow afternoon.

The attention of Commissioner C. W. Durdow is called to the bad condition of several bridges just east of the city limits. The county should repair these.

The Fireman's Herald, published in New York City, devotes considerable space to mentioning the gall team of the volunteer firemen of New Mexico are booked to enjoy in Santa Fe July 3, 4, and 5.

At the Palace: J. T. Lindley, St. Louis; W. G. Franklin, Denver; W. A. Sanders, Albuquerque; C. E. Jones, Pueblo; F. Gregory, Boston; J. S. Barton, Kansas City; John P. Foley, White Oaks; C. Kilmer, Topeka.

Cerrillos is all "tore up" over a school board scandal. It is charged that there has been a gross misappropriation of funds under the administration of Tony Neis' presidency of the board.

Mr. James D. May, the capable superintendent of the Crown Point mine at Bland, and a sterling good man, is in the city. He will probably remain until after the closing exercises of Loretto academy, at which excellent institution his daughter is in school.

The wires bring the gratifying news from Washington that the Santa Fe post-office has been restored to the second grade with a corresponding increase of the postmaster's salary and allowances. The new rating becomes effective on July 1. This is another significant business straw.

Archbishop P. L. Chapelle and Rev. Father Glold, of Washington, returned on Thursday from a trip to the Rio Jemez and Rio Puerco parishes.

Mrs. Bryan and daughter, of New Castle, Ind., mother and sister of Mrs. Stanley, left last evening for a visit to El Paso.

Col. C. G. Coleman left this morning on a two weeks trip through Valencia, Bernalillo and Lincoln counties.

Mr. John P. Foley, of White Oaks, one of the best known mining men in the west, is a guest at the Palace.

Hon. Amado Chavez and family returned last night from a trip to Bernalillo and Rio Puerco parishes.

Mr. W. A. Sanders, of Albuquerque, is visiting the city to-day.

Rev. G. S. Madden leaves Monday for a trip to Espanola valley.

Mrs. A. J. Fischer and little Minnie Behr are getting on nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Clausen will return from Albuquerque on Tuesday.

Mr. Arthur Staab is on a visit to Jemez hot springs.

A MILL EXPLOSION.

Mysterious Blow-up in the Lucas Mill at Golden—A Close Call for Cruz Sanchez.

Correspondence New Mexican. Golden, N. M., June 20.—A mysterious explosion took place at the stamp mill of James M. Lucas, on the Tuerto, in this camp, yesterday. Cruz Sanchez, an employe, started a fire in the furnace early in the morning. After waiting some time to see if it was burning well, he started for his house. He had only gotten about 100 feet away from the mill when a terrific explosion occurred. The force of the explosion tore out the side wall and part of the rear wall of the air chamber and tossed the whole top off of same. A hole 8x6 feet was cut through the sheet iron roof. Very little damage was done to the outside of the boiler but careful examination may disclose serious damage inside of it. Mr. Lucas thinks it was the malicious work of some enemy and that giant powder was used to accomplish the purpose. But it is reasonable to suppose that it may have been an accidental explosion. It is hoped that an investigation will so prove it to be. The mill will be repaired at once and will be in full blast shortly.

Excellent Selection. The trustees of the New Mexico School of Mines, at their recent meeting in Socorro, appointed Prof. W. H. Seamon, late of the school of mines at Rolla, Mo., director for the ensuing school year. It is understood that there will be one or two assistants employed if their services are required. The school will open about the middle of September. Prof. Seamon comes recommended by the best men in the country. His record as a teacher speaks for him and an acquaintance with him confirms the fact that he is qualified a gentleman for the position he has been selected to fill.

Letter List. List of letters remaining uncalled for in the postoffice at Santa Fe, N. M., for the week ending June 22, 1905. If not called for within two weeks will be sent to the dead letter office at Washington.
