LORD SALISBURY PREMIER.

Immediately After Resignation of Rosebery Salisbury Invited to Form a New Cabinet.

Both Wings of the Unionist Party Will Be Represented—Expected That Parliament will Soon Dissolve.

London, June 24.—The Marquis of Salisbury conferred this morning with the Right Honorable A. J. Balfour, conservative leader in the house of commons, the Duke of Devonshire, unionist leader in the house of lords, and with the Right Honorable Joseph Chamberlain, unionist leader in the house of commons, and proceeded to Windsor at 1:30 p. m. in response to a summons of the queen, following the resignation of the Rosebery ministry.

OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED. Later.—It is officially announced that the Marquis of Salisbury has accepted the task of forming a new cabinet.

OFFICIAL ETIQUETTE IN ENGLAND. New York.—A special to the World from London says that it is a requirement of official etiquette that upon resigning a minister should first dine at such intention until it has first been announced to the house of commons. But there is practically no doubt that the Rosebery government, after a cabinet council of five hours, determined to resign, and that Lord Rosebery, who had already been "commanded" to dine at Windsor, seized the occasion to surrender his office. It is also the custom that the prime minister shall recommend to her majesty his successor. Lord Rosebery may name Lord Salisbury, Mr. Balfour or the Duke of Devonshire.

It is etiquette for the queen to send first for the first person named. If it is Lord Salisbury he may decline and suggest Mr. Balfour or the Duke of Devonshire, or vice versa. In the other case it seems to be the general impression that even the conservative party will not again risk a poor premier, and that Mr. Balfour will be chosen. But either of the three or any other conservative may decline. Then Lord Rosebery will retain the office and be in a stronger position than before.

If a conservative leader accepts there is no real doubt that he will find a majority, even if small, against him. He can not dissolve parliament until the supplies have been voted, and a liberal majority can prolong the situation for months.

ANNOUNCED IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS. In the house of commons to-day Sir William Vernon Harcourt announced the resignation of the ministry. "Under ordinary circumstances," he said, "it would have been incumbent to move an adjournment, but the seal fishery bill must be passed before July, and when it has passed to a third reading the government will move an adjournment of the house."

CRITICIZED BY BALFOUR. Mr. Balfour criticized the conduct of the government. He said that he thought the constitutional manner of proceeding would have been to advise the queen to dissolve parliament. But either of the three or any other conservative may decline. Then Lord Rosebery will retain the office and be in a stronger position than before.

SEAL FISHING BILL PASSED. Numerous questions were asked regarding the agreement with Russia on the Behring sea question and the complaints received from the government of Canada on the same subject. The parliament secretary of the foreign office, Sir Edward Grey, in reply said that satisfactory assurances had been given Canada of the point raised in behalf of the dominion. The seal fisheries bill then passed to a third reading.

Dr. Ches. K. D. Tanner, anti-Parnellite, raised a disturbance by exclaiming that he did not see why the seal fisheries bill should be given precedence over the Irish land bill. The house then adjourned. It was rumored that Sir William Vernon Harcourt would not present himself as a candidate for re-election.

IN MEMORY OF PRESIDENT CARNOT. Paris, June 24.—In the presence of enormous crowds the anniversary of the death of President Carnot was observed at the Pantheon with touching ceremony. In the official cortege were President Faure, M. Chalmel Lacour, president of the French senate, and M. Bisson, president of the French chamber of deputies, followed by cabinet ministers, members of the senate and deputies. M. Faure, in depositing a crown on the tomb, said: "In the name of the republic, on a day on which there is renewed mourning in the country, I lay this crown upon the tomb of President Carnot."

Hunting a Lost Mine. Escalon, Mexico, June 24.—Three Americans, Louis Demond, James Crismore and Hal Jeffrey, have fitted out an expedition and leave here to-day for the Sierra Madre mountains in search of the famous lost mine, La Fuente, which, according to tradition, contains a vast amount of ore of fabulous richness.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Trouble with Arapahoe Indians in Oklahoma.—Another Divorce Decree.—Fate of Albuquerque National Bank Creditors.

Washington, June 24.—Additional reports, received at the Indian bureau respecting the trouble growing out of the shooting of Coash Red Lodge, at Arapahoe, Okla., implicates Little Man, son-in-law of Soft Belly, of the Cheyennes and Arapahoes, as the party who recently outraged an Octogenarian woman there, which was the primary cause of the trouble. There are six witnesses ready to testify for the prosecution and only one who corresponds with the description given as Little Man. The condition of Coash Red Lodge, who was shot by the sheriff while under suspicion, is improving.

ANOTHER DIVIDEND. The comptroller of the treasury has declared a dividend of 10 per cent in favor of creditors of the Albuquerque National bank.

Corbett Divorce Case.

New York, June 24.—Judge McAdam, in the special term of the supreme court to-day, on application of A. R. Hummel, sent the divorce suit of Mrs. Ollie Corbett against J. J. Corbett, the pugilist, to Edward Jacobs as referee. Referee Jacobs will determine the issues and ascertain what amount of alimony, if any, the plaintiff is entitled to.

KENTUCKY DEMOCRATS.

State Convention To-day—Hot Contest Between Administration and Anti-Administration Candidates.

Louisville, Ky., June 24.—The Democratic state convention to-morrow will be among the hottest contests in the history of this commonwealth. Many delegates are here to-day for the preliminary skirmishes in the district meetings. The polling of all the Louisville papers shows that the gold delegates are in the majority. The silver men charge that the Louisville papers claim most of the unattached delegates, who are equally divided. The lines are drawn on the indecision of the administration with Carlisle and his friends leading for the administration, and Blackburn's friends against its financial policy.

ADMINISTRATION AND ANTI-ADMINISTRATION.

Gen. Cassius M. Clay is the administration candidate for governor and Gen. P. W. Harbin, anti-administration candidate. The full roll of the delegates, showing on the selection of the temporary chairman, who has the appointment of two members-at-large on all the committees. There are eleven congressional districts. It is estimated that the gold men will have six and the silver men five on the committee on resolutions from the districts, but if the silver men secure the temporary organization the platform makers will stand seven to six.

BUCKNER WANTS TO BE SENATOR.

Ex-Governor Buckner published a card to-day saying that he would not accept the nomination for governor. He says that he is a candidate for senator on a sound money platform and will have nothing else.

PROBABILITIES THAT HARDIN WILL WIN.

The Post, which strongly supports the administration's financial policy, to-day has full poll of the delegates, showing 435 for Harbin, 370 for Clay and 65 doubtful. The Post says: "There are 378 delegates, 440 necessary to a choice, and the polling indicates that Harbin lacks only five votes. The Harbin men say that they have the five votes. This is not by any means certain. Gen. S. Gordon Williams was defeated sixteen years ago by James B. McCreary when within five votes of a nomination."

Because They Were Refused Free Rides.

San Antonio, Tex., June 24.—The arrest of seven negroes, some living in Floresville and some in San Antonio, charged with wrecking trains on the San Antonio and Arkansas Pass railway during the past four months, was made to-day in this city. Two have confessed. Refusal of free rides is their excuse for their crime.

SIX MONTHS A BLANK.

Missing Carriage Contractor Comes to His Senses Near Louisville.

Carthage, Mo., June 24.—Ellis Jackson, the Carthage contractor who mysteriously disappeared in Kansas City during the Priests of Pallas parade in October, has written to his family from Louisville, Ky., that he came to his senses wandering along the banks of the Ohio river two months ago. How he came to be in the vicinity of Louisville or what had happened in more than six months he claims is all a blank.

Carload of Dynamite Explodes.

Buenos Ayres, Argentina, June 24.—A carload of dynamite exploded in the streets of San Paulo, Brazil, on Saturday. Fifty persons were killed or wounded, and many houses were destroyed.

Perished in the Flames.

St. Petersburg, June 24.—Over a hundred houses have been burned at Tvernee Polotchev, seventy miles from Tver on the Zna. Many inhabitants perished.

Lawyer Arrested for Forgery.

New York, June 24.—Edmund Hourstel, a lawyer, was arrested to-day on a warrant charging him with forgery. The specific charge is the forgery of a check for $7,900, although the amount involved is said to reach many thousand dollars. The complaint is brought by Eugene LeCour.

Pioneer Packer Dead.

Chicago, June 24.—Chas. P. Libby, the well known packer, died to-day after a lingering illness. He was the first man in Chicago to make the experiment of canning meat.

Another Fight in Cuba.

Havana, June 24.—An important engagement has taken place on a plantation near Placitas, in the province of Santa Clara. The insurgent leader, Cestero, has been killed and the body identified. The insurgents lost two more killed and four wounded and the troops captured ten saddled horses. The insurgents were compelled to retire and in their retreat lost many dead and wounded. The band is now in flight.

INSURGENT LEADER DEAD.

Havana, June 24.—It is reported from Remedosa, a province of Santa Clara, that the insurgent leader, Zucayas, has been killed.

Tri-Collegiate Race.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 24.—The weather conditions to-day are all that the most fastidious oarsmen could desire and the Columbia, Cornell and the University of Pennsylvania crews, who are to row in the postponed tri-collegiate race at 4:30 this afternoon, are in high spirits. The river is as placid as a pond. Cornell is favorite for the first place. Even money is the rule with an occasional bet of two to one on the Ithacans against either of the other crews.

INDUSTRIAL SKETCHES.

Dry Goods, Groceries, Jewelry and Bicyclers Represented in This Issue.

Gusdorf & Dolan.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN GENERAL MERCHANDISE.

It may be doubted if there are any two merchants in New Mexico who have been individually, and are now as a firm, more largely connected with the general merchandise trade of the territory than Adolph Gusdorf and P. M. Dolan. Both are experienced merchants; both have had individual mercantile enterprises in the territory, and both are well and widely known as exceptionally able and popular business men.

The business to which Gusdorf & Dolan succeeded by purchase in 1892, had been for more than twenty years owned and conducted by the Ilfeld brothers, and was, both by reason of the volume of the business done and the distance from which trade was drawn to the house, one of the most important mercantile enterprises in Santa Fe.

The stock carried by Messrs. Gusdorf & Dolan is in the aggregate one of the largest of the kind in the territory, and in its variety one of the most diverse in the southwest. In great cities there is always to be found one place above all others where the necessities of a man's wardrobe are best supplied. At this great people's store the mysteries of the feminine wardrobe may also be found. Without attempting to state all the lines carried we may name the following: Dry goods, ladies' ready made garments, millinery, ladies' furnishings, notions, carpets, matings, portieres, window curtains, blankets, bedding, wall paper, men's, youths' and boys' clothing, boots and shoes, hats, trunks and valises. A specialty is made of measure orders for gentlemen's clothing, and a fine line of samples is carried from which to order, as well as the latest London, Paris and New York fashion plates.

It is a trite but true saying that "Goods well bought are half sold," and this is the main reason why Gusdorf & Dolan have built their success. Wherever practicable goods are bought at first hands, in quantities, and for cash. In this manner not only is the lowest market price obtained, but an important discount as well. This is the secret of a large mercantile house being able to sell goods at a lower price and at a quality at a smaller price than smaller stores with less capital.

It is a fundamental rule of the house to carry nothing but honest goods. No shoddy will be given a place on its shelves. Another rule is to sell at the lowest possible price. It is the "one price for all," and a child or a blind person can buy as cheaply as an adult with all his faculties in perfection.

Besides being leading merchants of the territory, Gusdorf & Dolan are buyers of wool, and have important sheep and goat interests. They are both as a firm and individually thoroughly identified with the interests of Santa Fe, and are alike honorable for their commercial integrity and for their liberal patronage of the press and all public enterprises for the good of the city and territory. It may be appropriately said that Gusdorf & Dolan have attained in their business a second only to the esteem in which their members are personally held by patrons of the firm and by the public.

Santa Fe Bakery.

MULLERS & WALKER, PROPRIETORS—DEALERS IN STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES—SAN FRANCISCO STREET, TELEPHONE NO. 53.

The attractive modern grocery store, with its thousand delicacies gathered from every country and clime, has been developed within the last quarter of a century, and almost within the last decade. It is still unknown except in cities, and its coming may be said to mark an era in a city's growth. The excellent store which forms the subject of this sketch is in all the essentials a modern and complete retail grocery store. The name of the Santa Fe Bakery is retained because the place is so widely known under that name, but important, as the bakery trade has been for years, the grocery business has long since overshadowed it, and the Santa Fe Bakery has become a leading first-class retail grocery store, having in stock the thousands of delicacies as indicated in the first paragraph of this sketch. The location of the house, on San Francisco-street, is well known to its thousands of patrons in this city and throughout the country.

Messrs. Muller & Walker are agents for Club House canned goods, for Bona Patent flour, and for the celebrated Heinson Cerebrary company, of Newton, Kas. They are importers of table delicacies, their bread, pies and cakes are well known for their excellence and for years have commanded a sale among the best families of Santa Fe. Messrs. Muller & Walker cater to the best family trade, and run wagons for the free delivery of goods sold in the city. Their country trade is also important, and they are extensive buyers of garden, orchard and dairy produce.

The amount, variety and quality of the goods carried in stock, the attractive manner in which they are displayed, the courteous attention shown to patrons and the careful, painstaking manner in which patrons are served, warrant us in saying that this is one of the most complete retail grocery stores in New Mexico.

This well known house was established about twenty years ago. Mr. F. Muller was, previous to the formation of the present firm, an associate partner in the house, under the style of Haffner & Muller. Upon Mr. A. Walker's purchase of an interest in the business the firm became Muller & Walker. Both gentlemen are well known in business circles throughout out the territory. Mr. Muller is a German by birth, but has been many years in America and ten or more in New Mexico. He embodies in his character in a marked degree the sterling qualities of his German ancestry, and besides being a successful business man is liberal in support of all enterprises for the good of the city and territory. Mr. Walker is a native of the state of Missouri, and a son of Hon. J. H. Walker, a prominent politician and for two or more consecutive terms a Missouri state senator.

J. H. Hudson. MANUFACTURER OF MEXICAN WIGGERS, AND DEALER IN JEWELRY AND SEWING MACHINES.

Santa Fe is headquarters for the manufacture of Mexican filigree jewelry. Among others engaged in the business, Mr. J. R. Hudson is a manufacturer for both wholesale and retail trade. He employs native workmen only, and besides following the best Mexican designs he manufactures to order. His sales to the trade are made through correspondents; and he has patrons throughout the mountain towns and all along the Pacific coast.

Besides being a manufacturer of filigree jewelry, Mr. Hudson is a jeweler and repairer of watches. He is, being himself a skilled horologist, enabled to guarantee all watch work. He carries a good line of watches in stock; and his judgment of a watch is, by all who know him, deemed conclusive. Another line, and an important one, of Mr. Hudson's is his agency for the Singer Manufacturing company. He has sub-agents throughout the county for the sale of this celebrated sewing machine, and besides keeping an assortment of Singer Sewing Machines in stock, keeps also a full line of supplies for all kinds of sewing machines.

Mr. J. R. Hudson is well known throughout New Mexico and southern California. He is a native of Ohio, but came west in 1879. He was for a time in the general merchandise business. He was one of the founders of the town of Golden, and was its first postmaster. He established his business in Santa Fe in 1883, and, besides his local business, receives mail orders for gold and silver filigree jewelry from all over the United States. Orders received by mail, whether for wholesale lots or for a single article, are given alike prompt attention.

In no other line of trade is it so important to patrons that sterling integrity of character should dominate in its management as in the jewelry trade. Not one customer in ten who buys a fine watch or costly jewel is able to judge of its real value. How important, then, it becomes that our jeweler should not only be a skilled expert, but a man of undoubted integrity. Mr. Hudson stands deservedly both in business circles and as a citizen. All patrons may be sure of fair and honorable treatment from him whether present in person or otherwise. His goods are standard, and in all cases of the degree of fineness stated.

AGENT FOR COLUMBIA AND HARTFORD CYCLES.

Wheel riding is now being taught all over the United States as an accomplishment. It is worthy of remark, too, that the erroneous idea that young people alone can enjoy wheeling is fast becoming dissipated. Bicycling is at least a pleasure to be enjoyed by everyone, and converts to the silent steed from all ages and classes are daily becoming more numerous. Never was a sport more universally enjoyed or more generally pronounced beneficial by physicians. And, besides, the wheel is fast being adopted for practical uses. Having a Good Time. Kiel, June 24.—The officers and men attached to the American squadron are delighted with their visit here, and they expect to remain some days enjoying the hospitality of the German and other fleets. After the banquet the American officers were all presented to Emperor William and the Duke of York. The former was extremely affable. He cordially shook the hands of the American officers and had a friendly word for each.

During his conversation with Admiral Kirkland Emperor William especially referred to the great interest shown in American naval matters. He mentioned Captain Alfred T. Mahan's book on the "Influence of Sea Power in History." Of this work he spoke in words highly eulogistic, adding: "I have told all of my officers to study Captain Mahan's book well—to sleep with it under their pillows."

Want a Silver Convention. Los Angeles, Cal., June 24.—In an interview Senator Stephen M. White said to-day: "I am in favor of a silver convention of Democrats of this state if it will represent the real sentiment of the Democratic party. In regard to silver every one knows where I stand personally." Other representative Democrats favor calling a silver convention.

PUNISHED FOR ARSON.

Leader of a Gang of Professional Property Burners Lynched. New Orleans, June 24.—In Gretna, a small town across the river, the body of John Frye, 22 years old, was found dangling to a telegraph pole early this morning. Frye belonged to a gang that made a business of burning property in Gretna. In the gang were James Strahl, a nephew of the sheriff; Jas. White, a nephew of the chief of police, and Gustave Raphael. Last night the gang were caught setting fire to a disorderly house occupied by negroes. Raphael, Strahl and White were arrested. Frye was arrested later, and while talking him to jail his captors were overpowered and their prisoner taken from them. That was the last seen of Frye until his body was seen this morning.
