PHYSICAL CULTURE CONTEST.

The Governor of Arkansas Has Joined in the Movement to Prevent the Fight.

THE ARKANSANS GENERALLY FAVOR IT

Whether the Efforts of the Minority Will Win Remains to Be Seen—Law on the Subject in Arkansas—Governor's Power.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 12.—Governor Clarke's letter to Judge Duffie, Sheriff Hought and Dan Stuart, together with the telegram to Jim Corbett and Bob Fitzsimmons, given to the public by the Associated Press exclusively last night, are the subject of much discussion here today.

The sentiment here and at Hot Springs is overwhelmingly in favor of the fight. It is well known here that personally the governor is not violently opposed to the contest. He is quoted as having said recently that seven-tenths of the people of Arkansas wanted it, two-tenths were indifferent and that all the clamor raised against it came from the other tent.

When Judge Duffie brought the matter to the governor's attention officially, however, he at once began a close investigation of his authority in the premises, which resulted in the letters referred to.

Gov. Clarke discovered that the act of 1891, making prize fighting a felony, never passed. The two houses could not agree on the bill and it was sent to a conference committee and when the report was presented to the house it was adopted only by a viva voce vote, the yeas and nays not having been called.

As the law of 1893 sought to amend this act, it would seem that there is no law on the subject of prize fighting in this state. The law relating to riots, unlawful assemblies, etc., etc., perhaps, be brought into requisition to cover the case should the governor deem it necessary to go to extreme measures.

By this law the governor is authorized to call out the militia without waiting for a request from the local authorities and is empowered to expel with force all disturbers of the peace.

In this connection, it is an interesting fact that, since the legislature refused to appropriate money for the maintenance of the state militia, nearly every company of citizen soldiers in the state is disbanded. The most enthusiastic advocates of the contest believe that the match will be brought off on schedule time.

A PLEA FOR MEXICO.

Austin, Texas, Oct. 12.—A well known sporting man of this city says there is but one place on the American continent where the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight can be pulled off, and that is at New Laredo, Mexico. He adds that three weeks ago the Florida Athletic club signed papers to have the fight in a bull ring at New Laredo and up to this hour they have not asked for release from contract.

HEALER HELD HER HANDS.

The Young Woman was Fretty and the New Healer Had a Sinking Spell.

Denver, Oct. 12.—Within a few days a great change has come over Francis Schlader, "the healer and messiah." On Thursday he held the hands of one woman in his own for two hours, while 1,500 people waited in the line for him to treat them. At the end of that time the woman swooned and the "healer" had a sinking spell, lasting several minutes.

The woman was young and attractive. Schlader has not explained why he held this person's hands so long, but he says: "The work is getting stronger and soon some wonderful things will take place." He has a heaving cough in consequence of standing out doors in thin clothes in all kinds of weather and in the face is very red.

There is no diminution in the crowd seeking relief from his treatment. It's just as easy to try One Minute Cough Cure as anything else. It is easier to cure a severe cough or cold with it. Let your next purchase for a cold be One Minute Cough Cure. Better medicine; better results; better try it. Newton's drug store.

Constantinople, Oct. 12.—Advices from Trebizond say that 200 persons were killed or wounded during the rioting there between the Turks and the Armenians.

It is added that the Armenians at Rodosto, Armenia, also tried to attack the Mussulmans of that place, but were prevented by the police. An Armenian was killed by a policeman.

The Silver City Tragedy.

The Silver City Enterprise is at hand this morning with a detailed account of the deplorable tragedy which resulted in the death of Marshal Cantley. The report is essentially the same as that printed exclusively in these columns on Thursday afternoon. It shows that Marshal Cantley was clearly the aggressor and that Mr. Feider acted in self defense. Editorially the Enterprise takes almost identically the same view of the false and misleading reports of the unfortunate affair first sent out by the New Mexican. It appears that Mr. W. B. Walton, clerk of the court and editor of the Headlight, promptly filed a correct account of the affair for both the Associated and United Press associations, but some malicious wretch succeeded in side-tracking Mr. Walton's dispatches and securing the transmission of his own false substitute. As the New Mexican remarked, on Thursday evening, this individual ought to be "smoked out and taught a wholesome lesson."

You can not be well unless your blood is pure. Therefore purify your blood with the best blood purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The Healer in Denver. Francis Schlader, who first came prominently before the public in the capacity of a "healer" while sojourning in New Mexico a few months ago, continues to be the sensation at Denver. The Denver papers do not hesitate to surrender columns of their space to detailing the past and present doings of the remarkable man. He is constantly surrounded by crowds of visitors, who hang reverently upon his skirts, and he continues to be overwhelmed with letters from everywhere. Amazing cures of paralysis, rheumatism, deafness and blindness are eagerly testified to by many responsible persons, who can to be by many responsible persons, who can to have no conceivable reason for giving false evidence. Among the number is Fitz-Mac, the well known newspaper writer, who has been deaf as a lamp-post for years. He says he went to see Schlader at Albuquerque, and that his hearing has since wonderfully improved and is still improving, just as the healer told him it would.
