SUBJECT OF CHURCH UNITY.

Episcopal House of Deputies at Minneapolis Considers Questions of Moment to Churchmen.

SHALL THE MISSIONS BE REPRESENTED?

Gov. Prince, of New Mexico, Strongly Favors Giving Missionary Jurisdictions Representation in The House of Deputies—Prince Wins His Point.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 14.—The subject of church unity came to the front almost at the opening of the session of the Episcopal house of deputies to-day.

A report was presented by a majority of the committee on amendments to the constitution presenting an amendment empowering a bishop to recognize congregations outside the Episcopal church and take them under his special care, provided such congregation subscribe to the Episcopal creed, in which case it need not necessarily be confirmed.

A minority report signed by six members of the committee was presented by Rev. J. J. Faude, of Minneapolis. The minority report opposed the amendment because it touched the book of common prayer, gave bishops the right to set aside the customs and canons of their church, even gave a bishop power to celebrate mass if a congregation desired without confirmation, and would thus alienate many from the church and had no compensating advantages.

In the mind of the minority the amendment, instead of being a step toward church unity was really in the direction of aggression and not spiritual unity.

The report called attention to the fact that there had been absolutely no response to the advances made by the church toward unity in the Chicago Lambeth declaration and that this move was premature and they contended that even if it passed few congregations would avail themselves of the privilege.

In the Episcopalian house of deputies to-day the constitutional revision committee submitted its final report with the exception of the canon on marriage and divorce, which was promised to-morrow.

The report is substantially the same as that already printed, the changes being minor verbal ones.

Section 6 of article 1 was taken up. This precipitated a debate over representation of the missionary jurisdictions in the house.

Gov. Prince, of New Mexico, made a strong speech in favor of giving the missionary jurisdiction representatives all the privileges of all other delegates save that of voting. He declared that the 346 clergymen and 26,000 communicants in the missionary jurisdictions had a right to be heard.

Gov. Prince won his point by practically a unanimous vote. Bishop Garrett, of northern Texas, presented a memorial asking that the missionary jurisdiction of northern Texas be erected into a diocese.

TO-DAY'S CONDENSATIONS.

The boom in South African mines at London is on the wane, and attention is being given American securities.

The picture of the Virgin of Guadalupe was crowned amid imposing ceremony of many high dignitaries, and in the presence of a vast crowd.

Charles K. Holiday, nominated by petition for chief justice of Kansas, on the independent free silver re-election ticket, has issued a formal letter of acceptance in which he charges that the leaders of the old parties have hatched a scheme to prevent a silver campaign by holding their national conventions late next fall.

Spanish newspapers report an engagement near the city of Santa Clara. Fifteen hundred regulars under Gen. Valdez were attacked by the insurgents and routed. La Quinta, in Remedios, was attacked by the insurgents, who took the port and set it on fire. Two thousand Spanish troops were quartered there.

Corbett and his party will leave San Antonio to-night for Hot Springs, Brady is not confident that the fight will be held in Arkansas. He makes no attempt to conceal his disappointment at the action of Judge Duffie, saying it begins to look as if they would have to fight in private before only four or five representatives of each side.

The London Chronicle says on the subject of the pamphlet history of the United States, issued by Lord Sackville, former minister at Washington: "The feeling existing with reference to the appearance of Sackville's pamphlet is one of unqualified regret. This finds its strongest expression, perhaps, in diplomatic circles."

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

The Maxwell Grant is Private Property Declares Secretary Hoke Smith.

Washington, Oct. 14.—On August 15, 1895, O. P. McMains, of Stonevale, Colo., addressed a letter to the president regarding the status of the Maxwell land grant, saying: "I have the honor to request information as to the petition of settlers on the alleged Maxwell grant directed to your excellency under date of May 8, 1894, and requesting, as a bar to this petition, the enforcement of certain laws. The petition has been pigeon-holed by the commissioner of the general land office."

This letter was referred by the president to Secretary Smith, who has made reply to Mr. McMains. He says the lands in question are held under an outstanding federal patent, and are private property, over which the interior department has no jurisdiction, as twice decided by the supreme court of the United States.

OCEAN MAILS.

On October 16 the new arrangements for carrying ocean mails will go into effect. The first trip will be made by the St. Louis. At that time the United States will begin paying the new American line mail from New York to Southampton. It is estimated that the cost of carrying the mails will be something over $700,000 per year. Under the contract the American company must dispatch a ship every week and carry all mail that is offered.

SHIP-WRECK LOSERS. The government's annual report of the operations of the United States life saving service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1894, is being distributed.

These hundred and eighty-two disasters to documented vessels occurred during the year and the aggregate number on board these vessels was 4,024, of whom sixty-one perished. The estimated value of the vessels was $6,772,706, and cargoes, $2,372,855, a total of $9,145,560. Of this amount $7,654,430 was saved and $2,141,130 lost. Ninety-one vessels were totally lost. Two unaccounted crafts, on which there were 467 persons, there were 214 casualties and seven losses of life. The property value was $109,810, of which $75,045 was saved and $34,765 was lost. These disasters were distributed as follows: Atlantic and gulf coasts 309, lake coasts and Louisville 265, Pacific coast 22. The total losses were distributed as follows: Atlantic and gulf coasts 63, lake coasts 26, Pacific coast 2.

Money Growing Scarce.

New York, Oct. 14.—The New York financier says this week: There is no cessation to the move which is drawing down the reserve held by the New York clearing house banks; the statement issued Saturday, October 12, showing a further decrease of $2,232,923 and $2,111,000, respectively, on the part of the clearing house banks and below their reserve requirements and are calling in loans.

Cherokee Intruders.

Guthrie, Oct. 14.—The bill providing for the removal of the intruders from the Cherokee nation has just passed both houses and was signed by the chief. By provisions of the bill 315 heads of families will be paid for improvements made in the nation. The amount of land held is estimated to be 100,000 acres, and worth $68,000. The bill just passed by the council ends the struggle that has waged for the past twenty years between the Cherokee people on one side and the so-called intruders on the other.

THE KIRKMAN TRIAL.

In Progress at Fort Riley—Some Inside Facts—Personnel of the Trial Court.

The Kirkman court-martial convened at Fort Riley on Thursday last and the accused officer is again tried on the same charges upon which he was arraigned at Fort Leavenworth. Now that the facts concerning the allegations against Capt. Kirkman have been disclosed through the evidence given during his trial, it is but just to that officer that the public should be made acquainted with the real facts in the case, especially as several reports have appeared in newspapers purporting to give the evidence before the court.

The Kansas City Times says: The Times representative, by permission of the attorneys for the accused, has been enabled to examine a duplicate of the record setting forth the proceedings of the Fort Leavenworth court. From this record it appears that Capt. Kirkman is charged with entering the bedroom of Mrs. Littell while she was visiting her father, Capt. Gregory Barrett, 10th infantry, at Fort Reno, Okla. The testimony discloses the fact that there was but one witness who could testify to the actual presence of some intruder in Capt. Barrett's quarters on the night in question. This witness was Mrs. Littell herself, who testified that she was awakened by someone who fled from the room when she called for her father. She further testified that she recognized this individual to be Capt. Kirkman. Mrs. Littell's mother and sister were awakened by the witness, and hastened to her room, but saw no one, though they state that the window was open.

Capt. Kirkman denied this in toto on the witness stand, testifying that he did not leave his room on that night, and there was other testimony to support this statement, and other testimony was introduced to show that some great mistake had been made in charging Captain Kirkman with this offense.

Several reports have been published to the effect that Capt. Kirkman was caught by Capt. Barrett; that a fight ensued, and that Capt. Kirkman was thrown out of the window, whereas the testimony shows that Capt. Barrett was not awakened at the time of the alleged event and was not informed concerning it for several days thereafter. Capt. Barrett testified to this himself. It is to be regretted, in view of the doubtful nature of the testimony, that this matter was ever made public and brought to the attention of the military authorities. Gen. Merritt is to be commended for his desire to keep the proceedings from becoming public property.

It has been the purpose of the Times all along to refrain from the publication of any matter bearing directly on the case in this case, satisfied that neither the army nor the public could in any way be benefited by their publication. This finally became necessary because of the many misstatements sent abroad liable to cause the army and public to form an opinion unjust to all the parties concerned.

The following officers composed the detail of the court convened to Thursday at Fort Riley for the trial of Capt. Joel T. Kirkman, 10th infantry; Col. Abraham K. Arnold, jr., 18th infantry, and Samuel M. Whiteside, 3d cavalry; Majors Wallace F. Randolph, 8d artillery; William A. Zaffery, 2d cavalry; Alexander S. B. Keyes, 2d cavalry; and Henry S. Turill, surgeon; Capt. John B. Johnson, 3d cavalry; William P. Toss, 2d artillery; Colonel Augur, 2d cavalry; Frederick K. Ward, 1st cavalry; Thomas T. Knox, 1st cavalry; and Robert F. F. Wainwright, 1st cavalry; Major Isaac H. Crowder, judge advocate, judge advocate of the court.

All of the officers except Col. Whiteside, Major Keyes and Capt. Johnson are stationed at Fort Riley, these three belonging to the garrison at Jefferson Barracks. Major Crowder, of course, is not a member of the court. His station is Omaha, Neb. The attorneys for the accused are Selwyn Douglas, of Oklahoma City, who was also counsel for the defense in the celebrated Styles case, and Lieutenant D. H. Boughton, 3d cavalry. This officer graduated from the military academy in 1881, is an honored graduate of the infantry and cavalry school, class of 1887; has since been a professor and instructor of law at the military academy and was admitted to the bar in the state of New York with authority to practice before the highest courts of that state.

GOULDS AND VANDERBILTS.

Important Disclosures in Connection with Proposed Reorganization of the Union Pacific.

PROPOSED TO DISMEMBER THE SYSTEM

Vanderbilts to Take Main Line and Goulds the Old Kansas Pacific—The Former Are Also Negotiating for Central Pacific.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—The Tribune says to-day: The plan for the re-organization of the Union Pacific is now in course of preparation, and the preliminary steps already taken indicate beyond a doubt that when the Union Pacific gets out of the hands of receivers it will be controlled and operated by the Chicago & Northwestern company as one of the Vanderbilt roads.

A deal is said to have been made between George Gould and the Vanderbilts, whereby the former is to be given control of the Kansas Pacific, which is to be operated by the Missouri Pacific, while the latter will take the main line of the Union Pacific from Omaha west and make it a part of the Chicago & Northwestern system.

The most startling rumor which has lately gained currency is that the Vanderbilts look still further than acquiring the Union Pacific and the Oregon Short Line. Their great aim and object is said to be the control of a line through to San Francisco and to gain this end it is said that they are now negotiating with C. P. Huntington with a view to getting control of the Central Pacific branch of the Southern Pacific.

New York.—A meeting of the organization committee of the Union-Pacific company will be held in this city to-day. A member of a firm included in the underwriting syndicate says that he does not believe the reorganization plan will be ready for publication to-day. Gen. Louis Fitzgerald, chairman of the reorganization committee, confirms this statement.

The Stanford Suit.

San Francisco, Oct. 14.—Mrs. Leland Stanford has won another victory from the United States government, this time in the U. S. court of appeals. The decision handed down Saturday was signed by United States Circuit Judge Gilbert and by United States District Judges Morrow and Hawley. It is given on the appeal taken from the previous order of Judge Ross sustaining the demurrer of Mrs. Stanford to the suit brought against her to recover $15,337,000 alleged to be due the government from her husband's estate on account of Central Pacific bonds. As the decision is an affirmation of the correctness of the position already taken by Judge Ross there is no relief to be obtained in the premises through a suit in equity. It is held that if the liability exists it is purely a "creature of statute," the question before the court being entirely one of interpretation of the law.

It is understood that the case will be appealed at once to the supreme court.

CAUSED A SENSATION.

State Bank of Fort Scott Closed on Account of Defalcation of the Cashier.

Kansas City, Oct. 14.—A special to the Star from Fort Scott, Kan., says: A sensation was caused this morning when Vice President J. J. Stewart, of the State bank, posted the following notice: "This bank is closed subject to the order of the state bank commissioner. Depositors will be paid in full. The failure to open is caused by a defalcation of the cashier."

Cashier J. R. Colan had the utmost confidence of all. He has been cashier since the bank was organized in 1883. Last Wednesday he left saying that he was going to his old home in Jerseyville, Ill.

New York, Oct. 14.—Secretary Carlisle is in town accompanied by Assistant Secretary Hamlin. Mr. Carlisle denied himself to the newspaper people, saying he had nothing to impart to the public.

The Pope's Sympathy.

New York, Oct. 14.—A special telegram from Rome says: The secretary of the Anglo-Armenian society has been received by Cardinal Rampolla, who has assured him of the deep sympathy of the pope with the Armenian cause. The pope has done all that was possible for some time past with the European governments to bring about united action. His holiness was much touched by the circumstance that the Armenians had taken refuge in the churches after the Constantinople riots.

An Italian-Armenian association is about to be formed, its leader being the great author and deputy, Signor Roughi.

THE WILDEST SPECULATION

John A. McCall on the Scenes that Characterize Mining Speculation in the London Market.

New York, Oct. 14.—Among the passengers on the St. Louis was John A. McCall, president of the New York Insurance company. He said: "The mad rush for shares in the South African mines by London investors was the most astonishing thing in the way of speculation I ever saw. There seemed very little effort on the part of investors to make inquiries about what they are buying."

"Everybody was buying the so-called 'King of Kings' Barney Barnato, once I believe a circus performer, announced in London the opening of a new mine in the Transvaal called 'The Coffin.' It was, I believe, about seven feet long and four feet deep. No one in London knew anything about the mine but the shares in no time commanded a fabulous premium."

"Of course, this is merely a public speculation and it is only a matter of time when the bubble will burst. When the reaction sets in, it will be, in my opinion, in favor of American securities. Finances in London are already beginning to turn from Africa to America."

Reid, John C. Montgomery, James E. Gregg. The capital stock is $1,000,000. The plan of the incorporators is to build a line from Denver to the divide via Platt canon, and to follow the north fork.

Helping the Producers.

Topeka, Kas., Oct. 14.—Through the efforts of the state board of railroad commissioners the railroads running through Kansas have established an emergency rate on fruits and potatoes of 23 cents per 100 from all points in the state to common points in Colorado. The former rate was 63 cents. The Santa Fe first made a cut rate of 23 cents from the Missouri river to Colorado points, and upon the recommendation of the board it made the rate general, as did the other roads. The new rate will be a great help to Kansas fruit and potato growers, who could not have made anything out of their crops had they been compelled to pay the old rate.

BUTCHERY IN COREA.

Queen Minister of State and Others Killed by Japanese—Bodies Buried—The King a Prisoner.

New York, Oct. 14.—A special to the Herald from Seoul, Corea, says: The palace was broken into on Tuesday morning by Korean troops and a band of Japanese Soshi in civilian dress. The Japanese killed the queen, the minister of the household and three women. The bodies were taken outside and buried.

It is believed that the queen dowager was killed last night. The guards from the United States war ship Yorktown and Russian cruiser, at Chemulpo, have been ordered to it. It is thought that this butchery will hasten action on the part of Russia. The king is a prisoner and his father has been proclaimed dictator.
