Attorney General Harmon Will Make a Motion to Advance Stanford Case on Docket.

INTERESTS OF CONCERNED DEMAND THIS

Minister Denby Wires State Department that Chinese Missionary Butchers Are Being Punished as Demanded by the Powers.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Attorney General Harmon will make a motion in the U. S. supreme court to advance the Stanford case as soon as the appeal can be brought here, with a view of procuring a final decision as early as possible. About $15,000,000 are involved. Mr. Leland Stanford had an interview with the attorney general this morning. She concurred with the attorney general in the opinion that the government's interests, the interests of the Stanford university and her own interests would be best served by the earliest possible final decision.

REGARDING CHINESE NOTES. Minister Denby and the British minister to China have succeeded in overcoming the obstacles which were threatening to make the Ku Cheng commission a failure as far as it was intended to secure the punishment of the Chinese guilty of participation in the riots at Ku Cheng.

At each stage of the commission had been hindered in prosecuting its case by the local Chinese officers, and the viceroys of the province of Szechun himself stood in the way of the punishment of the guilty parties.

Finally an appeal was made to the young viceroy directly and that body acceded to the demands of the ministers, as evidenced by the following cablegram received at the state department to-day from Mr. Denby:

"Peking, Oct. 11.—Seventeen criminals will be executed at Ku Cheng. The names agree that all the other leaders in the rioting shall be executed. All the leaders sentenced and others implicated will be tried and the commission will probably then be adjourned. An imperial decree has been issued which refers all the Szechun officials implicated to the board for punishment."

It is supposed that the commission has concluded its work by this time.

Joined the Catholic Church.

New York, Oct. 15.—An interesting ceremony was performed last evening at St. Lawrence Roman Catholic church, when George W. Davidson, who was until lately sexton and director of a religious order in the high ritualistic Episcopal Church of the Redeemer, made a confession of faith, received absolution and was baptized and received into the Roman Catholic church. The church of the Redeemer is a high Episcopal church. Mass is said there, and confessions are heard and all the paraphernalia used in the Catholic church in public worship are to be found there. Mr. Davidson is the third person to leave it for the Catholic church.

NEWS FOR THE STOKMEN.

Chicago Railroads Have No Legal Right to Make Switching Charges.

Chicago, Oct. 15.—The railroads centering in Chicago have no legal right to make switching or terminal charges for delivering live stock or other traffic at the Union stockyards.

The state board of railroad and warehouse commissioners handed down a decision to the above effect to-day. It affects not only every railroad centering in Chicago but every live stock shipper in the west.

Is the War Over?

Troona, Wash., Oct. 15.—At the regular meeting of Custer post, G. A. R., of this city, Geo. Hasbeard, a well known politician and a member of Custer post, gave notice that he would next Saturday night offer a resolution providing that Custer post appoint a committee of five to memorialize congress for the passage of a law doing away with the distinction between Confederate and Federal veterans so far as relates to their admission to national soldiers' homes; in short, that disabled ex-Confederate soldiers be admitted on exactly the same basis as ex-Union soldiers. Mr. Hasbeard, while not an active Grand Army man, has been a member of Custer post since July, 1883. In the late war he served in company C, Thirty-Sixth Indiana volunteers. His proposed resolution has stirred up much feeling in Custer post, many members being outspoken against its passage. Under the rules it will lie on the table two weeks after being introduced.

LAREDO WORKS A BLUFF.

Fearing Juarez Will Get the Big Fight Laredoans Eagerly Quote President Diaz.

Laredo, Tex., Oct. 15.—The Mexican consul in this city, Lameda Diaz, said to-day that President Diaz would never consent to allow the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight in Mexico, and owing to the good will of the people toward the president they would not participate in anything to meet his disapproval.

A representative of the Associated Press was shown official dispatches from the Mexican capital which authorized the consul here to state that the fight should not occur on Mexican soil.

NOT HARRISON'S AFFAIR.

The Ex-President Did Not Meddle with the McKinley Tariff—Political History.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 15.—The Commercial Gazette, a strong McKinley paper, says:

"A great deal has recently appeared respecting the attitude of ex-President Harrison toward the McKinley tariff at the time of its adoption. It is contended that in the capacity of president General Harrison opposed the adoption of such a tariff as high as those in the McKinley law, and that he entered a protest against them to those who had the measure in charge. One prominent Republican newspaper has stated recently that the McKinley tariff defeated Harrison's re-election and that the fact is the cause of Harrison's feeling toward McKinley. Another influential Republican newspaper in the west announced that during the consideration of the McKinley bill President Harrison summoned its author and Speaker Reed, and possibly other party leaders, and urged them against the adoption of such high figures."

"The Commercial Gazette is in a position to say that all such statements are untrue and misleading. Ex-President Harrison deserves neither censure nor praise on account of the McKinley tariff law. He took no part in the drafting or the consideration of the measure. No feature of the law, so far as those who compiled it are aware, represented his particular views or met with his specific disapproval. Repeatedly President Harrison, when asked by those drafting the bill what he thought of it, stated that the details should be left to those in charge of the measure, that they were responsible to the people, and were most familiar to the subjects in hand. He offered no advice. When the bill went to the White house for signature the president did not, so far as is known, show any displeasure or offer criticism. Nor did he express displeasure with the law. If the law was held responsible for the defeat of 1892 President Harrison should stand blameless."

AN IMPOSING CEREMONY.

The Royal Crown of Gold and Jewels Placed in the Cathedral of Guadalupe.

City of Mexico, Oct. 13.—An immense crowd yesterday sought admission to the church at Guadalupe to witness the coronation of the image of the Virgin. The doors were open at 7 o'clock, but so great was the rush that the doors had to be closed an hour later. The ceremony was magnificent, there being thirty-seven archbishops and bishops in full robes of office present. The crown was carried to the front of the altar by ladies who had subscribed to it, and there in the presence of the public notary, was formally presented to Abbott Plancoarte and the chapter of Guadalupe. They took the oath to preserve it for the purpose for which it was intended.

The crown is a blessed and mass followed, and afterward the procession, led by the archbishops of Mexico, New York, Cincinnati, New Orleans, Oaxaca and a great number of bishops and priests followed. The crown was carried around the church to the entrance, and as she then turned to the right she placed above the image of the Virgin by bishops and archbishops.

The image crowned to-day is a painting claimed by Mexican Catholics to have been miraculously painted in the year 1531. This event is said to have taken place at Guadalupe, a village about three miles distant from the City of Mexico. The frame in which the picture is encased weighs 2,000 pounds and is of solid silver.

The crown is composed of gold, contributed by the ladies of Mexico, the jeweler supplying nothing but the workmanship, for which he charged $2,000. This sum was also contributed by Mexican ladies. It is rich in diamonds, sapphires and other precious stones and is said to be worth $400,000.

THEY COULDN'T FIGHT HERE.

Gov. Thornton's Decisive and Direct Reply to a Representative of the Florida Athletic Club.

DAN STUART'S REPRESENTATIVE HERE.

The Great Mill Likely to Be Pulled Off Near Juarez—El Paso Elated Over the Prospect.

The Corbett-Fitzsimmons prize fight to settle the world's championship will in all probability take place in the central Rio Grande valley. The bare possibility of such a thing has set the local sports here to doing a good deal of talking and some inside facts have leaked out. It appears that within the last three days and the Florida Athletic club has been in Santa Fe, and has been in close conference with a number of prominent residents who are not particularly sporting men but who are inclined nevertheless to do what they can to aid Mr. Stuart in his present emergency and bring the great 'physical culture' engagement off down in these parts.

To this end at least two parties have approached the local authorities to

on the subject, and the subject has also, it is said, been mentioned to Gov. Thornton, with a view to learning the position he would take in case the contest were secured to come off in New Mexico. And the governor made a very decisive and direct answer. He told the pugilistic emissaries that under no circumstances will he permit the fight to take place in this territory. He added that he had in New Mexico doing his full duty in the premises, but if he be, he said, he would call on the national government to aid him in suppressing any attempt of this sort. He said no law breaker could find asylum in New Mexico as long as he was a governor.

This settled it, or appears to have done so, as far as New Mexico is concerned, and as a result Stuart's representative

From that point to-day comes the following press dispatch:

"El Paso is excited over word from the City of Mexico that Diaz had decided that a prize fight south of the border was a local matter for the state government to handle. The matter is now in the hands of the governor of Chihuahua with a view to pulling off the fight in Juarez."

"The plan is to put a Mexican guarantee in a bank on this side of the river and if there be no interference with the fight the money will be handed over."

So it seems that the prospect for having the famous mill pulled off down on the Rio Grande is at this writing very flattering.

This morning two imported Lincolnshire bucks arrived for W. A. Skinner. They are cared for at the Red Barn on Copper avenue, and attracted a number of spectators during the day. They are hornless and their fleeces are long, silken and wavy, with a cream-colored sheen. They are the first of their breed ever brought to New Mexico, and are decided beauties. When fully grown their size will be largely increased. Mr. Skinner intends them for his sheep ranch east of the Sandias.—Albuquerque Citizen.

The Enterprise calls for the repeal of the game law because the Navajoes come down from their reservation and kill hundreds of deer, many cattle and an occasional man in the Mogollon mountains and Black Range every year. It would be better to leave the law on the statute books and enforce it against the Navajoes as the officers of Wyoming enforced the game law against the Bannocks this summer. Even a Navajo can be made to understand a game law if the lesson is properly taught.—Lordsburg Liberal.
