TERRITORIAL CAPITOL.

Plans for a Handsome Structure Submitted to the Rebuilding Committee To-day.

The territorial capitol rebuilding committee is in session this afternoon at the Board of Trade rooms. There are present, F. A. Manzanara, president; A. Stab, secretary; W. A. Hopewell, Solomon Luna, and W. H. Pope.

The territorial capitol rebuilding committee is in session this afternoon at the Board of Trade rooms. There are present, F. A. Manzanara, president; A. Stab, secretary; W. A. Hopewell, Solomon Luna, and W. H. Pope.

The plans call for a building of the colonial style of architecture, much more attractive in design than the former capitol, and the interior arrangement is far more convenient, particularly as to the location of the senate and house chambers, and the supreme court and territorial library.

The idea is to utilize as far as possible the buff colored stone preserved from the old walls and to this end the first story is to be built of this material, the second and third stories to be of buff colored pressed brick with stone trimmings.

Very Much Disappointed. Col. J. Francisco Chavez was a very much disappointed man when he arrived in town last night and found the land court had adjourned. He drove his team seventy-five miles from his ranch in eastern Valencia county, yesterday, to Lamy and came in on the train last night, bringing a witness in his grant case, Don Francisco Sanchez, only to find that his case set for to-day can not come up until March.

ROUND ABOUT TOWN. The new territorial capitol will be a beauty. There will be a regular meeting of the Woman's Board of Trade Monday afternoon at 2:30.

The wife of S. D. Lasier, quartermaster of Carleton post, G. A. R., died at 10 o'clock this morning of rheumatism of the heart. The funeral will take place on Monday morning, at 8 o'clock, and the body will be buried in San Rosario cemetery.

The following program will be rendered by Prof. Perez' band in the plaza to-morrow afternoon from 3 till 4:30: March—Copenhagen Polka; Sweet Forget-me-not; Sweet March—The Soldier's Delight; Green Quadrille—Chesney Waltz; Green Bolero—Andante and Waltz; Brown Polka—Adieu; Bolero—Holloman; Galop—Wrath of Sparta.

Deputy Sheriff S. N. Rose came in from Cerrillos last night with Gregorio Garcia and Pedro Perea, charged with wholesale horse and cattle stealing in south Santa Fe county. The preliminary examination is in progress this afternoon before Justice Smith.

John Harrison, of Glorieta, who has been in town a couple of days on land office business, returned home this morning. He says that Captain Ball, at his ranch three miles north of Glorieta, near the eastern line of Santa Fe county, has trees loaded down with fruit, this being the first bearing year, and from trees raised without irrigation.

A largely attended meeting of the citizens of Santa Fe is in progress this afternoon for the purpose of drafting resolutions taking issue with the statements in the Colorado Catholic touching the character of the native people of New Mexico. The resolutions will appear in full in the columns of the New Mexican on Monday.

It is somewhat amusing, says an exchange, to see how quickly some of our business men will catch on to advertising in a haphazard sheet or card, which is once looked at and then destroyed, while a good daily or weekly newspaper, that is kept through the day and week, and read by the whole family and their visitors, is very reluctantly patronized. Starve your home paper, and you are sure to starve your business, your city and your home industries. It is your live paper that makes a live and prosperous city.

The Halloween party for the benefit of the Woman's Board of Trade hopes for the usual patronage given by the people of Santa Fe to all local enterprises. The benevolence committee is already making large demands upon the funds of the society, as the cold weather is the hard season for the poor. Tickets are now for sale at 50 cents. Ice cream and cake or coffee and sandwiches will be sold at 15 cents.

Rapp, Las Vegas; Sol. Luna, Los Lunas; P. W. Putnam, El Paso; T. W. Smith, New York; W. S. Hopewell, Hillsboro; O. J. McDonald, St. Louis; B. W. Freer, Cleveland; Herbert R. Brown, Philadelphia; W. A. Carty, Kansas City; S. Baur, Fremont.

The NEW MEXICAN received a pleasant call to-day from Prof. Brodie, superintendent of the city public schools. He is a man, evidently, of liberal educational training and broad ideas, and has in view many reforms which will be gradually worked into our local educational system.

Prof. Brodie believes that the children should not be crowded, that they should study earnestly during school hours and let their tasks end there. Many parents will thank him for taking this humane stand in behalf of the little ones.

The Champion Fuglister. Says the El Paso Times at hand this morning: "The fight is coming to El Paso. The Times is in possession of information on the subject which it is not at liberty to make public. Indeed, to make it public at present might result in defeating every chance El Paso has of securing the big attraction. Too much talk has lost it to other places and the El Paso committee does not intend to risk anything simply to satisfy the curiosity of those who might talk too much."

Those who want to see El Paso get the fight, said one of the committee last night, can rest assured that no stone is being left unturned by the committee in its efforts to bring the crowd to El Paso. This should satisfy them. To tell the world what we are doing would be placing in the hands of our enemies weapons to work our own defeat.

Last night telegrams were received indicating that El Paso was very distinctly and emphatically in it. If the two big gladiators ever meet they will meet in the vicinity of El Paso. That they will meet there is almost a certainty. Everything is working smoothly and as soon as the thing is clinched so there can be no backing down, all will be made public.

The Paquin Sanitarium Project. Mr. M. A. Otero came in last evening from St. Louis to look up some matters pertaining to the sanitarium project at this end of the line and says that his co-worker, Dr. Hummel, is now in Chicago and is pushing the work there. The plans for the location of the sanitarium at the springs will probably assume definite shape within the next few weeks.

The medical fraternity of the east all seem to be highly in favor of the advantages which this point offers and all that remains is the arrangement of the financial details. At the meeting of physicians in St. Louis to consider the matter several speeches were made and an article which lately appeared in the Examiner was read. Dr. Francis Crosson, of Santa Fe, was in attendance and delivered several interesting and instructive lectures and it is just to the doctor to say that New Mexico has not a better friend. It is understood that while the hot springs can not be bought, yet satisfactory arrangements can be made for leasing them, and we hope soon to announce that the project is an assured fact.—Las Vegas Examiner.

The World's Fair Tests showed no baking powder so pure or so great in leaving power as the Royal. The Citizen's Latest "Break." Chas. Flinn, who was taken from his business at Winslow, A. T., and forced to go to Santa Fe, presumably as a witness in the Catron-Spices case, but, like many other witnesses, was not called upon to give his evidence, is in the city, arriving last night from Santa Fe. Mr. Flinn does not expect to receive any compensation in return for the money he was compelled to spend on the trip in the interest of alleged justice.—Albuquerque Citizen.

Information of Mr. Flinn's affidavit, alleging that Editor Hughes had told him that Lawyer Neil B. Field wrote the famous libel on the supreme court, had evidently failed to reach the Citizen up to the time yesterday's issue went to press. After reading the NEW MEXICAN of last evening, the Citizen has probably concluded not to display quite so much solicitude on the subject of compensation for Mr. Flinn.
