AN INTERNATIONAL CRISIS

Chicago.-A special from Washington says: The confirmation of the news that an armed British force is marching through Brazilian territory to that part of Venezuela claimed by Great Britain will, it is said, bring the international dispute to a crisis at once. In some quarters fears are expressed lest the negotiations will be prolonged until England gets all the soldiers she wants into the disputed territory.

The shrine of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, erected to the glorification of the Blessed Margaret Mary at the Convent of the Visitation, was dedicated at St. Louis with imposing ceremonies yesterday.

The coming of the American Railway union to the east is looked upon by railroad managers with no little uneasiness, as the strength of the order is daily increasing, and the membership at present is said to be not far from 175,000.

The census of the City of Mexico shows 344,377 inhabitants, and in the immediate suburbs 148,735, making nearly half a million. Complaint has been raised in the press that the enumeration is not well taken and that the real population of the city is fully 400,000.

At a meeting of Custer post, G. A. R., in Tacoma, Wash., the resolution introduced a week ago providing for a committee to memorialize congress to place ex-confederate soldiers on an equality with ex-union soldiers for admission to the National Soldiers' home was taken from the table, and by a unanimous standing vote of the post was voted down.

There has been a sudden revival of rumors about the Panama canal plan. Sir Henry Tyler, ex-president of the Grand Trunk railroad, has visited the Isthmus and sent out the statement that 6,000 men are to be employed on the canal work and that there are ample funds for completing it. Then comes a dispatch from Colon announcing that 3,000 men have already been engaged.

Harold Frederic cables to the New York Times: "There seems to be no doubt that Queen Victoria is passing again through one of those phases of semi-insanity which recall that she is George III's granddaughter. These in the '70s were rather frequent; of late years they have recurred less often, but for six weeks now the worst of the series has been giving everybody about Baltimore much anxiety and ceaseless trouble."

It is announced that the Dominion government intends to direct the mounted police to assume control of the whole frontier along the Canadian boundary of Alaska with power to collect customs duty and to hold court martials to try criminal cases.

Secretary Carlisle has not yet decided as to whether he will go to Kentucky to vote. The question has arisen as to his right to vote, in view of the fact that he can no longer claim residence in the ward in which he last voted. The laws of the state of Kentucky require sixty days' residence in a ward as a necessary condition to voting in that ward, hence Mr. Carlisle is in doubt as to his right to register and vote in any ward of the city of Covington, and he may, therefore, in view of the circumstances of the case, decide not to make the trip.

STATE AUTHORITIES DEFIED

Managers of Corbett and Fitzsimmons Preparing to Pull Off Fight at Hot Springs

REGARDLESS OF GOVERNOR'S PROTEST

Arkansas Militiamen Called Out to Prevent the Fight - Fitzsimmons Endeavoring to Elude State Authorities - Warrant for a Sheriff's Arrest.

Hot Springs, Oct. 30.-The announcement from Little Rock that Gov. Clarke had placed the state militia under waiting orders produced no perceptible effect on the leaders of the local sporting fraternity, who, by the way, are identical with the citizens' committee. Such a step had been expected. It is thought that the action was made to prepare for the emergency of Fitzsimmons falling into the hands of Sheriff Houp's officers at Texarkana and being brought to this city.

MOVEMENTS OF FITZSIMMONS.

Little Rock, Ark.-Fitzsimmons was met at Marshall, Texas, by Sheriff Houp and party and left at once for Shreveport. The route will be through Alexandria, Pine Bluff and thence over the Cotton Belt to Camden, from Camden to Guardton, thence to Maizeville. The affairs of Clarke, Lafayette and Ouachita counties have been notified to arrest Fitzsimmons and Julian and hold them for the sheriff of Pulaski county. As the party is on a special train it is improbable that they will be arrested.

MILITIAMEN CALLED OUT.

Little Rock, Ark.-Gov. Clarke has called out the 1st regiment to stop the fight between Corbett and Fitzsimmons. The companies at Pine Bluff, Helena, Cabot and Jacksonville have been ordered to be ready to march this afternoon. The McCarthy light guard and the Fletcher light battery of this city have also been notified to be ready to move.

The captain of the Helena company says that he has forty-eight men ready to march with 1,000 rounds of ammunition. Forrest City has thirty-eight men with plenty of cartridges and all eager for the trip.

The plan now is to send about 100 militiamen to Hot Springs from this city to-day and to mass the other companies at Little Rock. They may be sent to Hot Springs early to-morrow. The governor is still determined that the fight shall not occur. He says he proposes to exhaust every resource at his command.

HURRYING TO HOT SPRINGS.

Chicago.-"Parson" Davies passed through Chicago to-day for Hot Springs. The Parson said that he had received a telegram to "come on" and he thought the chances were that Corbett and Fitzsimmons would meet. As to when or where he had no information. In his opinion Corbett would win.

Sullivan refused to commit himself. Speaking of Tommy Ryan, Davies said that Ryan was going to Hot Springs to fight and would meet the "mysterious" Billy Smith in a baloon or anywhere else.

John L. Sullivan has been engaged by a New York newspaper to report the fight if Corbett and Fitz appear to face each other.

FITZSIMMONS WARNED.

Hot Springs.-Fitzsimmons and Julian have been warned of the danger of falling into the hands of the officers of Pulaski county at Texarkana. They may leave the Texas & Pacific train at Marshall, proceed to Shreveport, and thence go north into Arkansas by way of Louisville. If this plan is adopted the party can not reach here before to-morrow.

POSITIVE ANNOUNCEMENT.

Memphis, Tenn.-The Iron Mountain railroad office in this city has a flaming sign exposed, which reads: "Official - Prize fight between Corbett and Fitzsimmons will positively occur at Hot Springs October 31."

WARRANT FOR SHERIFF HOUPT.

Little Rock.-A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Sheriff Houp, of Texarkana, who is engaged in an effort to get Fitzsimmons to Hot Springs.

HOLMES ON TRIAL.

Proving Himself a Genius By His Mysterious Conduct of His Own Defense.

Philadelphia, Oct. 30.-Whether Holmes is guilty of any or all of the crimes hanging over his head, there is no doubt that the man is an abnormal genius. Last night he recalled Lawyers Shoemaker and Rofan, whom he dismissed the day before, but it is apparent that their presence even now is superfluous.

Scarcely a question is put to a witness without its being first framed or suggested by Holmes, and should counsel ask anything without first consulting him and the query falls to strike him as felicitous, he manifests his displeasure by irritably tapping with his pencil on the railing of the dock.

The first witness to-day was Susan Hurley, who said that Peitzel boarded at her house on Race street a week in August, 1894. Mrs. Alice Price, who has a cigar store at 134 Calow Hill street, identified Peitzel's picture as that of a man who lived at No. 1316. She said that Peitzel was not a man of cheerful disposition.

On Forest Perry, assistant to the president of the Fidelity Mutual Life association, which was swindled out of $10,000, for which Peitzel's life was insured, identified a policy issued, in which Carrie E. Peitzel, the widow, is the beneficiary. It is dated November 9, 1893.

Perry related the story of the train robber, Hudspeeth, that he overheard Holmes and Peitzel in jail at St. Louis, conspire to defraud the insurance company of $10,000 by palming off a corpse as that of Peitzel. Holmes was captured in Boston and confessed that he defrauded the Fidelity company. He said that Peitzel, with his son, Howard, was in South America, but he declined to say where Mrs. Peitzel was.
