Folsom Case in U. S. Supreme Court—Famous Land Suit—Land Office Transactions—New Corporations—Notes.

It is announced from Washington that the case against S. M. Folsom, the Albuquerque bank wrecker and embezzler, has been argued and submitted to the U. S. supreme court.

CERRILLOS LANDS INVOLVED.

The Albuquerque Democrat prints a press dispatch under date of New York, Nov. 20, which says: "The hearing of a suit, in which William C. Reeves sued United States Senator Stephen B. Elkins, of West Virginia, to recover interest claimed by him in certain lands in New Mexico and also for an accounting, was commenced to-day before Judge Patterson in a special term of the supreme court."

Not Reeves, but William C. Rencher, is the party who is suing and the case is a famous one, involving lands now covered by the Cerrillos town site. Years ago Rencher's father was surveyor general of New Mexico. Under his administration certain so-called non-mineral bearing U. S. lands in south Santa Fe county were put up at public auction and bought in by the Elkins-Catron syndicate at $1.25 per acre.

LAND OFFICE TRANSACTIONS. The following persons have made original homestead entries at the U. S. land office in this city during the week: Manuel Gutierrez, Bernalillo county, 160 acres; Eleanor C. McKellar, Mora county, 170 acres; David Stewart, Bernalillo county, 80 acres; Percy C. Crews, San Miguel county, 160 acres; Hannah Downs, Bernalillo county; Casimiro Pando, Rio Arriba county, 74.72 acres; Chas. H. Woods, San Juan county, 160 acres.

OFFICIAL DOTS. Judge Walker, register of the U. S. land office, says that land office business has been uncommonly good so far this month.

PERSONAL. Mr. J. P. O'Brien has returned from a trip to Golden. Mr. Wm. White returned to-day from a surveying trip in the Rio Puerco region.

be set apart and observed as a day of thanksgiving and prayer. On that day, let us assemble at our respective places of worship, and with grateful praise and thanksgiving, confess our responsibility to God, the Creator of all, and renew our determination to live better and more upright lives in the years to come. May we not forget to comfort the sick, cheer the unfortunate, and manifest charity towards all.

As to Judge Prince's Home. The way in which the editor of one of the territorial papers that is hostile to Judge Prince keeps asserting that he has removed from New Mexico is amusing, especially to those who understand the animus. The wish is father to the thought.

The only foundation is that his son has gone to school for the winter in Denver. If every one in New Mexico, who has found it desirable to send a child to school in the east or north, was thereby considered to have changed his residence, our population would be considerably reduced.

The fact is that Judge Prince has never thought of a single moment of leaving the territory; and if the editor aforesaid ever visits Santa Fe he will find him living in the same house which for sixteen years has been his home, unless absent on business or to represent New Mexico at some national meeting, as in Minnesota in October and Omaha next week. If the editor in question instead of injuring the territory by reporting the loss of prominent citizens would devote a little time and money to aiding it by attendance at some of these congresses, it would at least show more public spirit.

By the way, it may gratify him to know that Judge Prince has just arranged to build a house at his Espanola orchard as a residence during the fruit season.

PERSONAL. Mr. J. P. O'Brien has returned from a trip to Golden.

Mr. Wm. White returned to-day from a surveying trip in the Rio Puerco region.

Mr. J. D. Hughes, business manager for the New Mexican, is on a trip to the central part of the territory.

Messrs. A. Stans, Simon Nusbaum and Mortimer Kaufman went to Las Vegas last night on business before the district court.

At the Palace: Jim Curry, Espanola; Wm. Green, San Marcos, Texas; Frank J. Woods, Chicago; C. C. Perry, C. L. Ballard, S. P. Painter, John I. Hinkle, Roswell.

At the Exchange: H. R. Whiting, Albuquerque; Edwin Laube and wife, Urday; Mrs. Herbitz, Durango; E. York, wife and child, Denver; B. W. Bunsdick, St. Louis; M. W. Lawrence, Garden City; G. Bovard, Albuquerque.

Mr. L. W. Young, of Prescott, A. T., was in the city yesterday and spent the day with his friend, Mr. Weltmer. He left this morning on a trip to Chicago. He is a thorough-going business man and a genial gentleman who expressed himself as much pleased with the capital city. He may return here.

Mr. C. L. Ballard, a well known and popular citizen of the lower Pecos valley, accompanied Sheriff Perry up from Roswell to-day.

AT TIERRA AMARILLA.

Delightful Dramatic and Musical Entertainment at the County Seat of Rio Arriba County.

Correspondence New Mexican. Tierra Amarilla, Nov. 16.—Last Thursday evening the residents of this village and the court visitors were most delightfully entertained. An amateur theatrical performance was presented by the young ladies of the place, for the benefit of the Catholic church in course of erection here.

The program rendered was of a most entertaining and enjoyable character. From time to time the brass band, under the able management of Mr. Harry Boalby, delighted the audience with the sweetest of strains and gained for itself laurels of which many a more pretentious organization might well be proud.

PROGRAM. Prologue—Read by Miss Burns. Three Little Maids—Paul and Virginia Her Letter—Bret Hart—Virginia McCarthy Hand. Murder Will Out—Comedy Vocal Solo—L. G. Read The Raven—A. B. Renahan The Sweet Family—Fare

Guitar Solo—Miss Burns The Medical Man—A Love Fare The Gypsy Countess—Miss Burns Chorus—V. McCarthy and M. Burns Guitars Solo—Vocal—Harry Boalby

Closing Remarks—Judge N. B. Laughlin Miss Marguerite Burns, as Ma Sweet, was a most decided success. In her imitable style she introduced to the audience her four handsome daughters, whom she recommended for various accomplishments. The "new" and "catchy" tunes, to use Ma Sweet's own words, were received with great applause.

Mamie Markley, as Gloriana Gadabout, Ma Sweet's youngest daughter, distinguished herself (as her ma said she would) for giggling. Her giggling recitation was exceedingly well done.

Miss Burns, as Betsy Belindy, another daughter, proved that as a champion of her sex she has no peer. Her advice to suffering womanhood to vote, vote early and vote often, was received with deserved applause.

"The Raven," delivered by Mr. A. B. Renahan, needs no comment. Mr. Renahan's reputation as an elocutionist is well known, and he treated the weird poem in a manner at once individual and unique.

The vocal solo by Mr. L. G. Read was well rendered and added much to the pleasure of the evening.

"Her Letter," a story of early California life, and one of Bret Hart's most forcible poems, was rendered in the clear, expressive voice peculiar to Miss Virginia M. McCarthy. In selecting this poem the idea was not alone to entertain the assembled company, but to honor the poet of the west—the land of cloudless skies and fresh breezes, of graceful prairies and flowering canons.

In the comedy, "Murder Will Out," Miss F. Romero, as Dinah, a negro maid, impersonated the original dusky lady to perfection, and to Miss J. Vigil was left the work of making the end speech which contained the all truthful and rather suggestive remark, "We must always remember that some time or other 'Murder will out!'"

"The Medical Man," Alphonso de Pickleton, a confirmed bachelor with some landed property (in his boots), and also "rents" in the same boots, was most forcibly personated by Miss M. Burns, and Miss E. Burns, as the lady who finally compels Alphonso to realize that souls (souls) always, without exception, go in pairs, was, above criticism.

Both ladies possess rare dramatic ability and as a result the "Medical Man" was highly enjoyed.

Miss V. M. McCarthy, as Gipsy Countess, and Miss M. Burns as count were heartily encored.

Thanks are returned to Messrs. Martinez, Kinderman, James Sargent and J. Burns for their kind assistance in helping equip the hall, and to J. Burns and J. Sargent, committee on stage arrangements.

A Mountain Mishap. Mr. C. C. Ridgway, of Washington, D. C., well and favorably known in this city, who is staying at present at the Jemez hot springs, met with quite a serious accident the other day and he and his companions miraculously escaped with their lives.

They had been attending the feast of the pueblo of Jemez and on their return to the spring, in the dark of the night, the wagon fell down a precipice and it was with great difficulty that the occupants got from under the wagon without any serious injury.

The wagon was full of men and women. An Egyptian dentist, Dr. Farah, one of the party, received some bruises only.

Mr. Ridgway has made many friends in this territory and will return home after Christmas fully restored to health.

"The Common People." As Abraham Lincoln called them, do not care to argue about their ailments. What they want is a medicine that will cure them. The simple, honest statement, "I know that Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me," is the best argument in favor of this medicine, and this is what many thousands voluntarily say.

Hood's pills are the best after-dinner pills, assist indigestion, cure headache, 25c.

They are papa's, and all right for him, but all wrong for the little girl. When spectacles are necessary, they are very necessary, but nothing can be worse than spectacles that do not fit the eyes, as they fail to supply a want that must be met fully to save the sight from injury. Spectacles can't be bought off hand. It needs the aid of an optician to assure the selection of a properly fitted glass. We make a specialty of ocular examinations, for which we charge nothing. Our prices for optical goods are the lowest in town.
