PERSONAL MENTION

Definio Montoya, farmer near Galisteo, purchased supplies today in the Capital.

Mrs. Carl A. Bishop is spending the week on the Pecos as a guest at the Valley Ranch resort.

District Court Clerk A. M. Bergere who has been on legal business at Estancia for the past week was among those who returned to the city last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Wilson, of Chicago, who have been in the city for several days, left last evening for El Paso and other southern points. They will return to Santa Fe shortly.

George B. Paxton, mining engineer interested in the Red River district, Taos County, registered at the Palace Hotel last evening. He came to the city to attend to mining and legal business.

A. A. Keen, who for eight years served this Territory faithfully and efficiently as commissioner of public lands, was a guest at the Claire Hotel today and attended to personal business while in the city.

John H. Young, one of the old time residents of northern Taos County and who has a nice farm near Questa in that section, reached the city last night from his northern home. He is registered at the Normandie.

Francisco Serna, of Chamita, well known citizen of southern Rio Arriba County, spent today in town on business. Mr. Serna is a member of the Board of Trustees of the New Mexico Reform School at El Rito.

Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue T. C. McConnell has returned home after an absence of about two months, during which time he visited nearly every town of importance in Arizona and New Mexico. He was on official business.

Chalmers McConnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. McConnell, has joined his parents in Santa Fe. He arrived in the city from Holton, Kansas, where the family formerly resided and where he remained to finish his course in the Holton High School. He was graduated there last week.

Mrs. George Kinsell left yesterday for Hutchinson, Kansas, where she formerly lived and will be the guest of relatives there for a month or so. She will be accompanied back by her sister, Miss Edna Condon, who has been elected as one of the new teachers in the public schools of Santa Fe.

Master Fred Givard has gone to his home at Capulin, Colorado, after attending the public schools of Santa Fe. He has been staying meantime with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Nusbaum, on Washington Avenue. He will return to resume his studies when the schools reopen in the fall.

Mrs. E. W. Foster and Miss America A. Foster, of Kansas City, Kansas, are among the recent arrivals in Santa Fe, and they propose to make their future home in the Capital. They have secured apartments at the residence of Simon Nusbaum. Miss Foster is a music teacher by profession and expects to secure vocal classes here.

William A. Lamb, of Carlsbad, district hydrographer of the U. S. Geological Survey and the U. S. Reclamation Service, was an arrival last evening in the Capital, and registered at the Palace. Mr. Lamb's territory comprises all of New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas. He came here on official business with Territorial Engineer Vernon L. Sullivan.

Leonard H. Hole, of New York City, member of the banking firm of W. M. Coler and Company, spent yesterday in town looking over the financial situation. Mr. Hole has just finished a long visit through the western and Pacific states and territories in the interest of his firm and is on his way home. The firm of which he is a member is a heavy holder of Santa Fe County bonds, of judgments and of unpaid coupons. Mr. Hole met a number of old friends here who were very glad to meet him.

Sister Fidelis, of St. Vincent's, who has been traveling and had at work for some weeks past gathering contributions for the construction of a large hospital building in this city, has met with gratifying success and in addition to the sums heretofore collected has managed to secure about $900 more, which sum has been added to the building fund. The Sisters at St. Vincent's will persevere in this very commendable work until the sums required are secured which will be necessary for the construction and furnishing of the contemplated addition to St. Vincent's Sanitarium.

H. L. Pollard, of Espanola, who graduated with honors at the New Mexico Military Institute, a week ago passed through the city today en route from Roswell to his home at Espanola where his father conducts a big mercantile establishment. Mr. Pollard speaks enthusiastically of his four years' term at the Institute and is proud of being a graduate of that first class military school. He expects to adopt the vocation of a merchant and will remain in his father's store for a while, then take a business course in a Denver business college. While in the city he visited friends and hobnobbed with some of his former associates at the Institute. He went north to Espanola this morning.

Associate Justice John R. McFie, accompanied by Chairman Sparks and by County Commissioners Madrid and Roibal spent Monday and Tuesday in the northern part of the county. The party went overland for the purpose of inspecting the public roads in that section. Judge McFie was especially interested as there is a case pending before him in which a resident of Santa Cruz has been enjoined from closing what is claimed to be a public road. The controversy is very much mixed and the Judge decided to take personal cognizance of the affair. There have been disputes about other public roads in that section and hence the county commissioners also concluded to make a personal investigation. Although it was rather cold and windy the trip was enjoyed by the participants.

CATARRH

To prove unquestionably, and beyond any doubt that Catarrh of the nose and throat can be cured, I am furnishing patients through druggists, small free Trial Boxes of Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure. I do this because I am so certain, that Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure will bring actual substantial help. Nothing certainly, is so convincing as a physical test of any article of real, genuine merit. But that article must possess true merit, else the test will condemn, rather than advance it. Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure is a snow white, healing, antiseptic balm, put up in beautiful nickel capped glass jars at 50c. Such soothing agents as Oil Eucalyptus, Thymol, Menthol, etc., are incorporated into a velvety, cream like Petroleum, imported by Dr. Shoop from Europe. If Catarrh of the nose or throat has extended to the stomach, then by means also use internally, Dr. Shoop's Restorative Stomach distress, a lack of general strength, bloating, belching, biliousness, bad taste, surely call for Dr. Shoop's Restorative. For uncomplicated Catarrh only of the nose or throat nothing else, however, need be used.
