SIGHTS OF SANTA FE

(A brief outline of Points of Interest in and about the City of Santa Fe. A Guide for Tourists.)
 (July, 1907.)

The Plaza.—Under the care of the Woman's Board of Trade. Here Onate camped and set up the banner of Spain in 1598. Here the Pueblos in the uprising of 1680 burned the archives and historical records of the Province. Here De Vargas halted in triumph after taking the city from the Pueblos in 1692. Here General Kearny planted the Stars and Stripes in 1846. Most of the thrilling historical and gala events for the past three hundred years have centered here.

The Old Palace.—Without doubt the oldest governmental building in the United States. Date of construction variously set from 1598 to 1607. Occupied as executive building by Governors under the Spanish, the Pueblo, the Mexican and American regimes, last occupied as a residence by the present Acting Governor James Wallace Raynolds. Ceded by the Federal government to the Territory, the present owner, but which has voted to recede it to the Federal government as a National Monument. It is at present occupied by the postoffice, the Historical Society Museum, the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Territorial Republican Central Committee.

The Historical Society Museum.—In Old Palace. Open free to visitors. from 10 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 4 p. m. on weekdays, and 2 to 4 p. m. on Sundays. Contains fine collection of New Mexico antiquities and the most complete library of books relating to the history of the Southwest to be found in the United States outside of the Congressional Library.

Ben Hur Room.—In Old Palace. Here Lew Wallace, while Governor of New Mexico, completed Ben Hur. Key given to visitors at the postoffice.

Soldiers' Monument.—In Plaza. Erected by the Territory. Much criticized because it refers to the Confederates as Rebels.

Lamy Fountain.—In Plaza. Erected by Woman's Board of Trade in memory of the late Bishop Lamy, who introduced the orchard industry at Santa Fe and surroundings.

The Kearny Monument.—In Plaza. Erected by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Masonic Building and Hall.—On south side of Plaza. Oldest Masonic Lodge in the Southwest. Many interesting historic relics in lodge room.

Kit Carson was a member of this lodge.

The Fonda.—At southwest corner of Plaza. End of the historic Santa Fe Trail. Now Exchange Hotel.

Roman Catholic Parochial School.—On Water Street.

Contains a number of paintings by old masters. Reredo behind altar was erected by Governor del Valle and his wife in 1761. Fine old paintings and rich vestments in rear of Cathedral. From here start annually the famous Corpus Christi and the historic De Vargas processions. In rear of altar two Franciscan Friars, murdered by the Indians, are buried.
