MINOR CITY TOPICS

A baby daughter was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Dallo Brittan. Mother and babe are doing well.

Mrs. R. M. Hardinge has issued invitations to a card party Wednesday afternoon at the Palen residence, on Palace Avenue complimentary to Miss Richie Seligman and Miss Ruth Laughlin.

Miss Adelaida Romero and Manuel Medrano of this city were united in marriage this morning at the Cathedral by Very Rev. Anthony Fourchegu, vicar general. An informal reception followed at the bride's home.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Emilio Ortiz was baptized yesterday afternoon at the Cathedral by Very Rev. Anthony Fourchegu, vicar general. The baby was christened Ignacio Ambrosio Ortiz. Mr. and Mrs. Luis Baca of La Cienega were the sponsors.

In the absence of V. L. Bean, owner of the Capital Skating Rink, Victor Duran, has been placed in charge as manager by Mr. Bean and the rink will be open Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings of this week. On Saturday nights the rink is utilized for dancing.

Although the money order business of last week was less than one-half of that of the preceding week, yet, 219 money orders were paid amounting to $4,003.41; 102 money orders were issued amounting to $695.07; $2,459 of surplus deposits were received and $2,000 for money order drafts, making a total of $9,157.48.

Manager A. M. Dettlebach of the opera house, has gone into the show business on his own hook. He has purchased what is known as the Selig Polyscope, a moving picture machine, and beginning tonight will give two performances every evening, the first at 7:45 o'clock, and the last at 9 o'clock. The admission will be 10 and 20 cents. In addition to the moving pictures illustrated songs will be sung.

The canon of the Santa Fe River was the scene of many picnic parties yesterday. Over fifty people from this city spent the day in the canon fishing and resting. Another detachment of girl pupils from the U. S. Indian Training School, also went out and joined the party of girls already in camp about twelve miles east of the city. The day was perfect, and it was delightfully cool and comfortable in the canon.

Invitations have been issued to the marriage of Miss Sofia Serna of San Juan and Pablo R. Delgado of Espanola, which will be celebrated at the Catholic Church in San Juan on Wednesday, July 24. A reception will be held afterwards at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Delgado formerly lived in Santa Fe and is a son of Felipe B. Delgado of this city. He is employed as a clerk in a general mercantile store in Espanola.

Last week before Referee J. P. Victory testimony was taken in the partition suit of the Polvadera Land Grant in Rio Arriba County. The grant is claimed by Mrs. L. B. Peruw, of Buffalo, New York, and was purchased by her 18 years ago. Adverse claimants have filed claims and hence the suit in partition. Mrs. Peruw is represented by R. C. Gortner and the adverse claimants by Hon. L. Bradford Prince, A. B. Renahan and Judge N. B. Laughlin. The property is quite extensive and is valuable for grazing.

The Santa Fe Central will make a rate of one fare for the round trip for a party of ten or more on next Friday in order to give those who wish an opportunity to visit the pre-historic Manzano apple orchard in Torrance County. This orchard is hundreds of years old and the trees are still bearing. The excursionists will leave Santa Fe Friday afternoon, remain all night in Estancia and drive to the orchard the following day. They will return to the Capital Monday evening. Any one desiring further information are referred to Frank Dibert at the offices of the Santa Fe Central Railway.

The property at No. 216 Grant Avenue, known as the General G. A. Smith homestead, has been sold by the owners through their agent, J. P. Victory, to Mrs. C. L. Grimshaw; the purchase price is private but is satisfactory to the former owners. Possession will be given as soon as the office of the U. S. Weather Bureau which has been in the building on the property for several years is moved to its new quarters in the federal building. The frame building on the lot is quite large and will be fully renovated and placed in first class condition by the new owner. These improvements will cost in the neighborhood of several hundred dollars.
