After a tour of the Pacific Coast they will return east via the northern route, stopping off for a visit at Rockford, Illinois, the childhood home of Mrs. Bloom.

Miss Richie Seligman entertained a small company of friends Tuesday afternoon at her home on Upper Palace Avenue. It was given in honor of Miss Lucretia Whitehead of Golden, Colorado, who has been a visiting guest for several weeks of Miss Ruth Laughlin. The table was very prettily decorated, the color scheme being pink and white. Sweet peas were used in abundance in the decorations and the effect was very tasty. Besides hostess and guest of honor there were present Misses Rickert of Waterloo, Illinois; Laughlin, Spitz, Harding, Cross and Wiley.

Inspector D. D. Bronson, of the Bureau of Forestry, in company with Harry W. Kelly, of Las Vegas, and the latter's son, Daniel J. Kelly, during the past week took a trip over the proposed line of the Scenic Highway between this city and Las Vegas. They were greatly pleased with the many scenic attractions and the natural beauty of the section of the Pecos National Forest through which the Scenic Highway will run. They found the line feasible. Inspector Bronson, it is understood, will recommend to the officials of the bureau the speedy construction of the highway across the Pecos National Forest to connect with the portions of the road already constructed and now in course of construction by the Territory.

Complimentary to Miss Richie Seligman and Miss Ruth Laughlin, who have only recently returned home after attending finishing school and college in Colorado, Mrs. Robert M. Hardinge entertained a company of young women at cards Wednesday afternoon. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. Hardinge's parents, Major and Mrs. R. J. Palen, on Palace Avenue. Six-handed euchre was the amusement and delicious refreshments were served. The rooms were decorated very tastefully with sweet peas and nasturtiums. The guests were Misses Seligman, Laughlin, Rickert, of Waterloo, Illinois; Christensen, of Los Angeles; Whitehead of Golden, Colorado; Staab, Spitz, Harding, Lamy, Boyle, Choate, Dye, Wiley, Newhall, Wiess, Cross, Crandall and Weltmer.
