CURE YOUR KIDNEYS.

Do Not Endanger Life When a Santa Fe Citizen Shows You the Cure. Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, back ache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them? Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney diseases, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Santa Fe testimony:

Mrs. Bernarda Rivers de Escudero, living at 106 Griffin St., says: "As a good general tonic and in all cases of trouble arising from the kidneys and in the back, I know of no remedy more worthy of confidence than Doan's Kidney Pills. For about a year I was bothered with a weakness and a dull aching across my loins and kidneys. I tired easily from any exertion and the pains were very distressing. Using nearly two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills which I procured at the Ireland Pharmacy, the pains were relieved, my back was strengthened and my health better in every way. I am indeed grateful to Doan's Kidney Pills for the great benefit I have received from them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

FORT WHIPPLE IS FINE MILITARY POST

Judge A. L. Morrison Visits Historic Arizona Barracks—Banishment of Army Canteens a Curse.

Judge A. L. Morrison, who returned Sunday from Prescott, Arizona, where he went to accompany his daughter, Miss Mary, home, she being quite sick, visited the historic Whipple army barracks situated near that city. Judge Morrison who is a keen observer of all things, talked interestingly of his visit to the army post to a New Mexican representative. He said:

"During my stay in Prescott, I visited Whipple Barracks, and was greatly interested in the splendid permanent improvements that are now being constructed there. Situated as this post is in the foot hills of the Rockies, supplied with abundance of air and the most perfect manner, Whipple will soon be an ideal post, wherein the soldiers can enjoy the purest air and the most healthful surroundings in the Union. When the buildings, now rapidly approaching completion are ready for occupation, a full battalion of troops will find ample accommodations there. The Old Mansion, as it is called, which was erected by General Crook, at an expense of $80,000, is still in existence; every foot of lumber in the building was transported hundreds of miles to the post, there being no saw mills in that neighborhood.

"As the banishment of canteens from all military posts and its effects on the morals of our soldiers is being widely discussed, I made inquiry into that very important subject. One of the oldest and most respected chaplains in the army, who takes the deepest interest in the spiritual and temporal welfare of the men assured me that the removal of said canteens from the posts, was attended by the most deplorable consequences. It is all very well to say that soldiers should not drink spirituous liquors; as a man who never drank one glass of any kind of such liquors, I say so too; but I recognize the fact that there seems to be a demand in human nature for some kind of a stimulant and the question before the people is the adoption of a system with the minimum of evil results. We have the experience of both systems before us now, and ought to be able to adopt such a one, as can be regulated properly. While the canteens were tolerated in the posts, efforts were made to procure the least harmful kind of liquors, and these were sold under the supervision of an officer who was especially selected for that purpose and whose duty was to see that no one was permitted to drink to excess. But certain well-meaning persons affected to be scandalized at the idea of the government, as they said, being engaged in the liquor business; then pressure was brought to bear on Congress, a law was passed prohibiting the sale of spirituous and malt liquors in military posts.

"Any one with the slightest knowledge of human nature could have foreseen the results that inevitably followed. Simultaneous with the closing of the canteens in the posts, saloons of the vilest character conducted by human ghouls, whose business is to pander to the lowest appetites of humanity, were opened just beyond the legal limits and there the most abominable soul-destroying liquors were sold without let or hindrance to all comers; drunkenness, debauchery, military punishments, and desertions set in to such an extent as to appall the military authorities, who are at the end of their wits, and unable to control the miserable situation. The Reverend Chaplain already referred to informed me that the old soldiers on whose example so much depended to maintain the morale of the army, have ceased to re-enlist, their reasons being that they cannot obtain a moderate supply of stimulants, which they claim they need, and their self-respect forbids them to resort to the hell-holes that have taken the place of the old, time canteens. And so it stands at present—it depends on Congress to say whether the present demoralizing system shall continue, or whether the canteens in the military posts will be again permitted."
