FIESTA VAUDEVILLE TO BE GREATEST ON EARTH

Clever Performances in Store for Visitors at Big Carnival Every Night in the Week; Governor in Parade.

The nightly vaudeville performance in the Elks' theater in connection with the big six days' fiesta, which begins May 10, will present some of the cleverest stunts ever witnessed on the local stage by either amateurs or professionals, according to those who know. The most talented of the talented local talent will do the specialties, and fast and furious frolicsomeness will amuse those who enjoy this part of the entertainment.

Chairman Learnard, in charge of the big parade, has about completed his arrangements for the fiesta and promises a pagent which will outshine anything of the kind seen in Albuquerque in many moons.

Governor Curry, mounted on a fiery steed, will lead the gay cavalcade and the committee promise that the governor will be only one of the many sensations of the procession. The following have been added to the list of donations previously published:

Hill's tailor shop, $5 worth of pressing.

Sanchez barber shop, one razor strop.

Theiln brothers, one month's shaving.

O. A. Matson and company, one gold medal tennis racquet, one fine hammock.

Through F. J. Houston company—Victor Sporting Goods company, Denver, one complete trout fishing outfit.

Through L. Kempenich—Armstrong-Ferner Millinery company, Denver, two ladies Knox street hats, $10 value.

L. Kempenich, two dozen fancy ladies' half hose, $12 value.

Friedberg brothers, one Panama hat, $10; one lot shirts, hosiery, neckwear, etc., $25; three negligee shirts, $7.50.

Through Strong's book store—Columbia Phonograph company, one Columbia phonograph, disc machine, $25.

Crystal theater, seventy-five tickets, $7.50.

Through Grunsfeld Brothers—New York Consolidated Card company, three dozen fine playing cards; Guano Trading company, three dozen Navajo looms; Morris brothers, New York, two dozen fancy wood pipes; the Andrew Jergens company, Cincinnati, one gross violet glycerine soap; C. Cronemeyer, Allentown, Ariz., one fine Navajo saddle blanket.

Peet Bros. Manufacturing company, Kansas City, Kan., one box Wild Rose soap.

The Morning Journal, one year's subscription.

The Daily Citizen, ditto.

Kirster brothers, 200 Havana Red cigars, worth $20.

Rothenberg-Schloss Cigar company, 250 cigars.

Helvetia Milk Condensing company, Highland, Ill., one case Tall Pet milk.

W. J. Patterson, one day's use of horse and buggy.

GRAND PIANO DONATED BY FRIENDS OF THE ORDER

The latest and most notable donation to the long list gathered in by the fiesta committee is a grand piano, valued at $400, the gift of the music firm of Learnard and Lindemann and William McIntosh, the well-known sheep man of McIntosh and Albuquerque. The instrument is given to the committee to dispose of in any manner they see fit, and with the sole provision that 25 per cent of the proceeds derived therefrom shall go to Boys' band, the remaining 75 per cent to be retained by the Elks' lodge. This is one of the most generous gifts yet made to the committee, and doubtless will be accepted promptly and the manner of disposing of the instrument immediately announced. At the Elks' bazaar five years ago, a similar instrument was presented by Learnard and Lindemann and netted the lodge some $600 when it was raffled off and to this day remains one of the most prized possessions in the household of the fortunate young Elk who won and wedded the young lady who won the piano.

NATIVE LOSES FOOT AS RESULT OF FOOLISH ACT

Cevero Sanchez Attempted to Alight From Fast Moving Passenger Train and Fell Under Wheels.

As the result of a foolhardy attempt to alight from Santa Fe passenger No. 8 near Alaio at 8:38 o'clock last night, Cevero Sanchez, fifty years of age, will be a cripple for life and narrowly escaped being killed.

Sanchez was a passenger on the train and when it neared Alaio stood on the platform of the chair car and swung himself to the ground, releasing his grip, fell to the right and fell under the wheels and crushed so badly that amputation was necessary.

Sanchez lives near Alaio and evidently intended to save a three-mile walk from the Albuquerque station. Hurley's ambulance made a quick run to the scene of the accident and the injured man was taken to St. Joseph's sanitarium, where the foot was amputated above the ankle. Sanchez has a wife and several children living at Alaio.

Good Program at Colombo.

The usual excellent Sunday program will likely attract the usual large Sunday crowds to the Colombo theater this afternoon and evening. The Eavesdropper" and "The Suicide Club" are two of several good films which will be shown. Special music will be rendered and Jim Carmody, the always popular baritone, will sing "I Am Glad I Am Married."

JURY SECURED TO TRY PIERCE

Twelve Men Swear to Give Fair and Impartial Trial to Former Officer of New Mexico Blind Asylum.

After examining jurors for four hours yesterday afternoon, during which time about thirty men were examined, a jury composed of eleven jurors and one American was secured to sit in the case of the territory versus H. H. Pierce, former secretary of the board of regents of the New Mexico Blind Asylum at Alamogordo, who was removed from that position by Governor Curry for cause, and indicted by the Bernalillo county grand jury last October on a charge of embezzling of attempting to assault a blind pupil of the school. The crime with which Pierce is charged is alleged to have taken place in Albuquerque early last October while the former secretary was here in charge of several pupils who took part in an exhibit of the asylum at the irrigation congress.

The trial of the case will be taken up at 9 o'clock Monday morning. The witnesses for both the prosecution and defense have been here for several days and it is expected that the trial will proceed rapidly.

The funeral of Mrs. Melvina Jane Dalton, who died Friday evening, will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the Episcopal church, Rev. Fletcher Cook officiating. The meeting will be attended by Brother Hermes, president of St. Michel's college of Santa Fe, and Brothers Cyprian and Bernard of Bernalillo.

Whooping Cough.

This is a more dangerous disease than is generally presumed. It will be a surprise to many to learn that more deaths result from it than from scarlet fever. Pneumonia often results from it. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, and always with the best results. Delbert McKeig, of Harlan, Iowa, says of it: "My boy took whooping cough when nine months old. He had it in the winter. I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy which proved good and cannot recommend it too highly." For sale by all druggists.
