LOCAL AND PERSONAL

DAY AND WEATHER.

Fair and warmer tonight. Sunday, partly cloudy and warmer.

Sun rose 6:29 and set 5:56, giving a day of 11 hours and 27 minutes. The moon will rise in the morning at 12:51. The last day of the week, Saturday, was named for the Roman god Saturnus, as was also the planet Saturn. On this day in 1817, the territory of Alabama was organized, to be admitted to statehood only two years and nine months thereafter. On this same day in 1845 Florida was admitted to statehood. There was but little wind, today, and the temperature was much warmer than yesterday.

REPORT OF TRAINS.

First No. 7—At 11 p. m.
Second No. 7—At 11:15 p. m.
No. 1—At 1 a. m.
No. 3—On time.
No. 4—On time.

Don't Forget to Use FAMOUS GOLD COIN FLOUR. Best and Cheapest.

Walter Goebel is in the city from Belen.

Judge D. H. McMillen, of Socorro, is registered at the Alvarado.

Colonel W. S. Hopewell was a passenger for Santa Fe this morning.

This evening, by express, there will arrive here, from Denver, a fine driving horse for W. M. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Huckel, of the Harvey curio and news department, arrived from the east this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Brooks are now at Chicago. They are scheduled to return to the city the last of next week.

C. J. Crandell, superintendent of the Santa Fe Indian school, is in the city on business pertaining to school matters.

Patrick Tracy was found guilty in police court this morning and fined $5. Tracy was charged with intoxication.

A base ball game is in progress at Traction Park this afternoon, between the city high school team and a team from the Indian school.

David Farr, the cattleman, left this morning for his home at Magdalena, after a visit in the city with his brothers, William and David.

W. Y. Walton, Roderick Stover, Harry Benjamin and George Thomas formed a party of hunters who left this morning for ducks at Sabinal.

R. E. Yontz, the popular jeweler and watch repairer of Gallup, after a day's stay in the territorial metropolis, returned to Gallup last night.

Ellsworth Ingalls, special attorney in New Mexico from the department of Justice, Washington, D. C., went to San Marcial this morning on official business.

Mrs. Robert Taylor left this morning for her home at Estancia, after a pleasant visit in the city with her sister, Mrs. P. B. Romero, of the Grand Central hotel.

If the weather conditions are favorable, tomorrow, Sheriff Perfecto Armijo, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, will be discharged from the St. Joseph sanitarium.

Joe Padilla, saloon keeper and deputy sheriff in the Zuni woods, left today for that locality, after turning over his prisoner, Victor Telles, to Sheriff Baca, of Valencia county.

Tomorrow the First Regiment band will give a free concert in the Casino building, at Traction Park, following the usual custom established some time ago, of giving regular Sunday concerts.

Mrs. Frank W. Parker came up from Las Cruces this morning to meet Judge Frank Parker, who came down from Santa Fe, where he had been attending supreme court, as associate justice from the Third district.

The local wool scouring mill will open next week for a two weeks' run cleaning up the early clip. The mill will then shut down until the middle of April, when the bulk of the New Mexico clip will arrive to be cleaned.

The Phoenix dry goods store is closed today out of respect to the memory of Samuel Schutz, who passed away at El Paso last night at 6 o'clock. Mrs. B. Spitz, wife of one of the proprietors of the store, is a daughter of the deceased.

George Learnard, of the firm of Learnard & Lindemann, music dealers, was a passenger this morning on delayed train No. 9 for San Marcial. He was accompanied by Fred Fisher, and they will do a little duck shooting down the river valley tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Lucksinger, who have been at Phoenix, during the past couple of months, have returned to the city, and will remain for some time. Mr. Lucksinger is a great admirer of horseflesh, and while at Phoenix he purchased a pacing filly, with a fine record. The animal was brought along with him, and he will capture the blue ribbon in any kind of a race against the animals owned by Otto Berger and T. J. Shinnick.

Claud Schiott, who has been assistant foreman of the local shops, left this morning for his home at Buffalo, N. Y. The position of assistant foreman has been abolished and rather than take some inferior position, Mr. Schiott returned to his old home to seek a new field of labor.

Deputy United States Marshals W. R. Forbes and George Kaseaman returned to the city this morning, the former coming from Alamogordo and the latter from San Francisco, where he took three Chinamen, a week ago, for deportation. Mr. Forbes was serving papers at Alamogordo.

Edward Harsch, of the Harsch Bottling works, left this morning for Floydeta, Texas, where he is called on land matters. Mr. Harsch has a forty mile drive across the country to make on reaching Floydeta, and expects to be absent from the city a week or ten days.

In yesterday's Citizen it was stated that W. Allison will soon erect a two-story, eight-room residence at the corner of West Silver avenue and Seventh street. The residence will be built, it is true, but by Hugh Allison, and the Citizen understands that when completed it will be one of the nicest in the Third ward.

The Dixie Carnival company, who have been "showing" here the past two weeks, leave tomorrow for a week's stand at Santa Fe. Mr. Thompson, the manager, states that the shows were very well patronized during their stay here, with the exception of the past two or three days, during which the cold, windy weather kept people away.

Charles T. Russell, who has been here the past three months, visiting his sister, Mrs. Posey, will leave tonight for Seattle, Wash., and on June 1st, or rather the 1st steamer leaving that city for Alaska. Mr. Russell will take passage for Nome, where he is interested in mining. The gentleman has many friends here, who hope he will strike it rich in Alaska, and return before the end of 1906 a cases filed with the district clerk today are entitled: Alonzo B. McMillen and Levi R. Thompson vs. the Santa Fe Railroad company. The plaintiff prays that the court decree against an adverse claim made by the railroad company to a plot of ground at the junction of Carroll avenue and the Santa Fe tracks. Toti & Gradi vs. M. Gargoura is the other case. The defendant in this action has confessed judgment.

Black Cat Stockings look nicer, fit better and above all wear longer than any other brand. This has been proven by years of practical demonstration. All sizes for men, women and children from 15c to 50c, at C. May's Shoe Store, 314 West Railroad avenue.
