THE TRADE EXCURSION PROMISES SOME BIG TIMES

Special Train Will Carry Albuquerque Business Men to the South and Back.

Albuquerque's second annual trade excursion will be run the week of April 18, according to plans adopted by a meeting of about forty boosters, held in the parlors of the Commercial club last night.

The train of special Pullmans, with a baggage car and possibly a diner, will leave the local station at 7 o'clock on the morning of the 18th. The route will be that proposed by The Citizen some weeks ago. Every town of any importance between Albuquerque, Silver City and El Paso on the Santa Fe; El Paso and Torrance on the Rock Island; and Torrance and Santa Fe on the Santa Fe Central will be visited. The stops will vary according to the importance of the towns. The fare will be about $25, including Pullman.

That the excursion will be as successful as the one run into the Pecos valley last year was indicated by the enthusiasm taken in the meeting last night. Attorney A. B. Stroup acted as chairman, and was kept busy seeing that floor rules were not violated. Everybody in the house wanted to talk. They all had something to say. Suggestions were plentiful and ranged from proposals to run the excursion all over California to that of chartering a special train of drawing room cars. Frank Ralph, the plasterer, proposed that a stop of twelve hours be made at El Paso. Twenty-four of those present signed to make the trip or send representatives. There is little doubt about the crowd not being as large as the one of last year. There were 235 on it, and there will be fully as many if not more on this one.

W. P. Garside, traveling freight and passenger agent for the Santa Fe, who is responsible to a degree for the movement, was present, and gave promise that the train equipment would be ample. The trouble experienced last year with buffet broilers as means for frying all the steaks the excursionists needed was given a thorough drubbing. W. P. Metcalf, who was custodian of this department last year, impressed upon the meeting the importance of having a diner, and Mr. Garside promised to see what he could do. Last year the excursionists either banquetted or went hungry. When the people along the road fed them, they were banquetted. If they were caught between stations at meal time, they went hungry because the cookers were not big enough to do the work.

Mr. Garside was not able to name the cost of the excursion, as figures have to be secured from both the Rock Island and the Santa Fe Central as well as the passenger department of his own road. However, it will not be very expensive. About $5 a day will cover the actual cost, it is believed.

After two hours' talking, the meeting appointed a managing committee, whose business it will be to see that the excursion is a go and a big go. This committee will make a canvass of the city immediately and will be prepared to make a report on the situation at another meeting to be held at the club next Monday night. This committee follows:

Messrs. O. A. Matson, R. H. Lester, P. F. McCanna, George Arnot, E. L. Medier and Colonel D. K. B. Sellers.

Those who put down their names on the excursion list last night included W. P. Metcalf, Mike Mandell, David Weinmann, L. S. Parker, Wallace Hesselden, Gross Kelly and company, three representatives; the Morning Journal, two representatives; the Evening Citizen, two representatives; E. L. Medier, Marcus P. Kelly, Frank Ralph, O. A. Matson, Clark, Frank A. Hubbard, Barth, A. Felscher, E. W. Fee, Roberts, Albert Faber, A. B. Stroup, Rev. J. Fletcher Cook, Dr. W. G. Hope, H. B. Ferguson, C. E. Geokler, T. J. Matthews, T. B. Waddell, R. H. Lester, Dr. McCormick, O. A. Burtner, Dr. Shortle and his brother Dr. Kauffman and others.

Following is a proposed schedule offered by Mr. Garside:

BET SUGAR BOOSTERS ASK SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR THE CAUSE

Plan to Make Experiment a Success This Year and Secure Factory in Future.

An association, to be known as the Bernalillo County Sugar Beet Growers' association has just been formed in this city for the purpose of encouraging the growing of sugar beets in the surrounding territory, and a committee composed of A. B. Stroup, Marcus Kelly and Mr. J. S. Johnson, this morning began a canvass of the merchants for subscriptions. At noon they had already succeeded in raising nearly $1,000.

The farmers will be paid by the association at the rate of $30 an acre for their crops of beets in the following payments: First payment of $5 will be made in June at the time of thinning the beets; the second payment, $2, which will cover the cost of hoeing, will be made in July; the third payment, $5, for the cultivation, will be made in August, while the last payment of $8 will be made in October and will pay for the delivery on cars. In addition to these payments, it is the intention of the subscribers to turn over the tops of the beets to the farmers for feeding purposes, which would be more than equivalent to one cutting of alfalfa.

At the end of the year, the farmer would, according to his contract, be obliged to pay back to the association the $20 advanced him and in addition give the association one-half of the net profits which would be returned to the subscribers, together with the principal sum of $20 advanced during the year.

By this method, each subscriber makes himself a booster and in that way dispenses with the need of annual subscriptions. Over 100 acres have already been contracted for, and with this new arrangement, it is the hope of the association to realize sufficient funds to cultivate at least 200 acres more. Every business man is asked to put his name on the list of subscribers, as the project is for his own interest as well as for the interests of the community.

It is the intention of the association to call a meeting which will be held in the Commercial club about a week from today for the purpose of electing officers and definitely outlining the plan of organization, and all interested in the future welfare of the city are urged to be present. The following are the articles of the association:

The undersigned, all of whom are citizens of Bernalillo county, territory of New Mexico, having associated themselves for the purpose of encouraging the growing of sugar beets in Bernalillo county, do hereby declare:

1. The name of this association is the Bernalillo County Sugar Beet Growers' association.

2. The purpose of this association is to encourage the growing of sugar beets in Bernalillo county and to obtain, if possible, the establishment of a beet sugar factory in the city of Albuquerque.

3. The business of this association is to be transacted at the office in the city of Albuquerque, N. M.

4. This association shall exist for the period of five years.

5. The number of directors of this association shall be five, to be chosen annually on the first day of March, by the members of this association. The said directors shall transact the business of the association and shall have full charge of the promotion of the sugar beet industry in Bernalillo county.

6. The funds of this association shall be derived from subscriptions to the capital stock of this association, which shall be $5 per share and each share shall entitle its holder to one vote in the election of the directors of the association.

7. The directors of this association are, by these articles of agreement, forbidden to contract any debts that there is not money in the treasury to pay for, without the unanimous consent of this association, and debts otherwise contracted for, shall be paid by those who gave their consent to their being contracted.

8. The directors of this association are hereby empowered to do all things necessary to the promotion of the sugar beet industry in Bernalillo county, not otherwise prohibited by these articles.

MORE HORSES COMING FOR THE MEET HERE
 California Owners Bringing Strings to Tractor Park for the Races Which Begin Friday.

A great many changes are being made at Tractor park in preparation for the coming race meeting. The judges' stand is being moved to a point directly in front of the grand stand so that the wire will cross the track where all can see it. This will be greeted with applause as it will give the spectators the same view of the starts and finishes that the judges get. New rails are being placed along the stretch for the security of the people and the paddock will be fenced so that unruly horses cannot buck over into it. Considerable work has been done on the track at needed places.

The work of building additional stalls continues, indicating that more horses are expected. Manager Greenbaum said that there would be at least fifty more animals on the track before the opening day, Friday. He received a telegram this morning from M. R. Ross, a prominent horse owner of Oakland, saying four cars of horses would leave there for Albuquerque at once. The Oakland races will soon come to a close. Another large bunch is expected from Los Angeles. The death of racing in California is running horses and horsemen out of the state. Many of them will come via Albuquerque while going east.

The local meeting will be open Friday afternoon, if the weather permits. The Citizen will publish the opening day entries on Thursday.

Scene from "The Farmer's Daughter," at the Elks' Theatre tonight.

To lovers of intelligent drama there is a treat in store when "The Farmer's Daughter," the splendid new rural play comes to the Elks' theatre tonight. The play tells a beautiful story of the quaint New England rural districts, and is said to be a masterpiece of its type. It introduces two characters that are destined to live a long time on the American stage. They are two rural lovers, whose love affairs run anything but smooth and whose ludicrous efforts to effect an understanding give rise to some of the most exasperatingly funny situations. "Hy" and "Thankful" are the names of these two characters and "Thankful" is thankful for any small attentions from "Hy" for this young man has an extremely bashful temperament, and the love making is done by the girl.

"The Farmer's Daughter" promises to prove an extremely acceptable offering.
