ATTEMPTS SUICIDE WITH REVOLVER AND KNIFE

Aged Resident's Nerve Didn't Fall When First Shot Failed to Kill.

Dependent because he was out of work and without money, Thomas Crow, aged 63 years, attempted suicide this morning in his room at 311 West Tijeras avenue by first shooting himself through the head and then cutting his throat with a razor or knife. His cold-blooded attempt to end his life will probably result as he intended, though he was alive late this afternoon. He is so weak from loss of blood and from the pain of his wounds that it is believed he cannot recover.

Probably the last person to see Crow before his attempt to end his life was John Eggar, an upholsterer, who rooms near where Crow has a room.

According to the story told by Eggar, Crow arose at his usual hour this morning, 6 o'clock, and went to Eggar's room. The two drank coffee together, and while sitting in the room, Crow remarked:

"John, this is the last cup of coffee we will drink together."

Eggar says that he paid little attention to the remark, as Crow had several times spoken of committing suicide.

Crow left him shortly after that and went to his own room. After he had been in the room a while, four shots were heard. Eggar says he went to the door of the room and asked what the trouble was, but Crow replied that he was cleaning his revolver.

At noon Crow failed to come out of his room and some of his neighbors began to fear that he had carried out his threat to commit suicide. They notified the police and Officer Tony Guevara went to the house.

Receiving no response to his knock, the officer forced the door and found Crow lying in a pool of blood on the floor. Strong's ambulance was called and City Physician Pearce took Crow to the hospital where his injured throat was dressed. No attempt could be made to extract the two bullets imbedded in his head.

Crow was conscious this afternoon but little hope is entertained for his recovery. He said that he was dependent and wanted to end his life. He first shot himself with a revolver, 44 caliber, the bullet entering his nose, and when the bullet failed to kill, he placed the muzzle of the gun in his mouth and fired again. When Eggar, attracted by the shots, ran to the door of the room, Crow told him that he was merely cleaning his revolver and then remarked:

"I must be an awfully poor shot."

After Eggar had gone away he cut his throat. No trace of the instrument with which he cut his throat could be found, but an empty razor case was lying on a table.

His revolver contained four empty chambers and occupants of the house say that four shots were fired. It is believed that Crow fired two shots to test the gun and then fired the other two into his head.

SUFFRAGETS ARGUE IN MANY TONGUES

Several Hundred Delegates to International Convention at London From Various Countries.

London, April 27.—Several hundred delegates from many different countries are attending the international suffraget convention which began here Monday and will continue in session until next month. The countries represented are Australia, Bulgaria, Canada, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Great Britain, Hungary, Italy, Netherlands, Norway, Russia, South Africa, Sweden, Switzerland and the United States. Many other national associations in sympathy with the suffrage movement have accepted the invitation to send fraternal delegates.

All agree that in the past five years the women of the United States have made the greatest progress of all lands in their fight for votes. It is more than likely these delegates here will pay tribute to the success of the American woman.

This tribute will consist either of the re-election of Mrs. Catt as president, or the selection of some city in the United States for the next international convention, five years from now.

MARCH WEATHER UNUSUALLY COLD

Month Differed Materially From Its Predecessors in New Mexico, Says Weather Bureau.

March was a cold month and the precipitation heavier than usual in this month, according to the weather bureau report, which says:

The month was unusually cold; during the last fourteen years the March mean temperature has been lower but twice—in 1897 and 1902. The precipitation was considerably more than usual, and March of 1905 is the only one that had a higher average.

In all parts of the territory the mean temperature for the month was below the normal; there were no periods of especially warm weather, although upon several occasions the daily means were slightly above the normal. The lowest temperatures of the month were on the 12th and 13th, when a marked wave of cold passed over the territory. These low temperatures immediately followed a heavy snow storm, and the two in combination proved very disastrous in several localities.

In a few regions, principally the north central, the west central and the extreme southeastern districts, there was somewhat less than the usual amount of precipitation, but over by far the greater part of the territory there was considerably more than customary. The excess was not due to an unusually large number of days with 0.01 inch or more of rain or melted snow, but rather to the heavy snow storm that prevailed from the 8th to the 11th. This storm was general, but was severest from Santa Fe southward to the Texas line, in the northeastern counties, and over the continental divide. In those regions its was heavier than any March storm that has prevailed in recent years. Numbers of sheep were lost, and several persons lost their lives in the storm, or during the period of very cold weather that followed it.

OFFERS BIG PURSE FOR WRESTLING MATCH

Seattle Manager Wants Gotch and Hackenschmidt to Meet During the Fair.

Seattle, April 27.—Sixty per cent of the gate, with a guarantee that it will be not less than $15,000 is the gist of an offer that has gone forward to Frank Gotch and George Hackenschmidt, the "Russian Lion," for a wrestling bout for the championship, to be pulled off in Seattle during the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition.

The offer is made by the management of the arena, one of the big attractions of the exposition "Pay Streak," behind which is John Cort, the theatrical magnate. Cort has erected on the Pay Streak a huge enclosed arena, with a seating capacity of 5,000. In it throughout the fair John L. Sullivan, Jake Kilrain and other old-time niftmen, including Charley Mitchell, will perform, and a series of bouts between the top notchers of the present day will be brought off. It is planned to include wrestling matches and the Cort management is now trying to sign with such men as Gotch, Hackenschmidt, Dr. Roller and the other good ones. In making an offer for the Gotch-Hackenschmidt bout, the Cort people are entering into active competition with the Australian outfit, which has offered a guarantee gate of $25,000 for the same match.

Fifty per cent of the picture privilege goes with the Seattle offer and also a fairly generous expense and training account.

If the arena offer is accepted the principals will be required to put up a forfeit of $3,000 each.

WILL PROSECUTE MANY FOR POLL TAX PAYMENT

Prosecution of the delinquent poll tax payers will be commenced tomorrow morning by Secretary T. Naylor, of the school board, who has been authorized to act for that body. The list contains the names of some of Albuquerque's most prominent citizens. In addition to the payment of the $1 poll tax, each will be required to pay the costs of the suits.

Words to Freeze the Soul.

"Your son has consumption. His case is hopeless." These appalling words were spoken to Geo. B. Blevens, a leading merchant of Springfield, N. C., by two expert doctors—one a lung specialist. Then was shown the wonderful power of Dr. King's New Discovery. "After three weeks use," writes Mr. Blevens, "he was as well as ever. I would not take all the money in the world for what it did for my boy." Infallible for coughs and colds, it's the safest, surest cure of desperate lung diseases on earth. 66c and $1. AMERICAN GIRL IN NEW ROLE

LUCILLE MARCELL

New York, April 27.—Lucille Marcell, a New York girl, has been asked by Richard Strauss, composer, to create the role of Elektra in the new Strauss opera of that name, which will be presented in the Vienna Imperial Opera house.

Miss Marcell has been a hard worker. She studied for seven years under Jean de Reszke, and only recently attained wide fame when she was summoned to the Vienna opera house to sing before German musical leaders. Her success from that time on was assured.

OVER $3,000.00 IN PRIZES FREE

In consideration of our placing a large order and the large contracts we have given for the coming year has made it possible for us and the manufacturers of whom we purchase pianos to give away many valuable and desirable prizes.

FREE—2 Talking Machines, 2 Mandolins, 2 Violins, 2 Guitars, 1 pair Roller Skates, 1 Beautiful Doll, 10 Beautiful Art Pictures

To the ten persons sending in the neatest, correct, artistic answers will be given the above prizes. Every person sending a correct answer will be entitled to share in the distribution of cash-value prizes good on our merchandise in the piano department, amounting to $100 each. All correct answers will receive one beautiful art picture.

One of the great reasons for this offer is that we have been allowed the amount of money (this amount to be used in this contest) that is usually spent by manufacturers in their general advertising campaign when they place their advertising in magazines and eastern periodicals. We also wish to determine the real value of our home newspapers and we will ask you to use the desk number given below as each newspaper has a different desk number. The number you give will tell us in which paper you have seen this advertisement.

Take any number from 3 to 14 inclusive and place in the eight circles (or balloons) and one in the center square so that when it is figured horizontally or perpendicularly it will make 27. The same number cannot be used more than twice. All answers must be mailed or brought into our store by May 3, 1909. Send your solution on this or a separate sheet but do not use more than one sheet of paper. Write your name and address plainly. Every person sending an answer will be notified by mail. The judges will be representatives of the papers, their decision will be final. Be sure you address Desk No. 2.
