Comfort for Country Boarders.
"The boarders don't seem to like our country vegetables," said Mrs. Cornet.

"That's funny," responded the farmer. "They ought to 'prelate 'em. They was bought right in the same town they come from."—Washington Star.

Beards in British Navy.
Orders to British naval volunteers: "Those men wearing beards will have them clipped torpedo fashion." "Torpedo" is a short, stubby Vandylke and is the official beard of the British navy. It is semi-officially stated that "the flowing beard is hopelessly out of fashion, and is usually worn by people who have reached that stage of life when they have ceased to create their trousers."

Highest Priced Orchid.
The highest price ever paid for any orchid was paid in March of this year, at an auction sale in London, for a heavily-marked form of Odontoglossum, $6,085, and but for a small plant! It has enormous heavy blotches of chocolate brown on each segment of the flower, occupying approximately one-half the area.—Country Life in America.

Exports of Yucatan.
The Yucatan exports for 1905 consisted of $97,289 bales of sisal fiber, valued at $29,625,430 Mexican, $117,500 worth of skins, and $18,800 of chicle. During the last ten years the single product of sisal has produced the enormous sum of $297,000,000, Mexican silver.

Lack Religious Care.
A daily paper is responsible for the statement that a single county in Nevada, covering 16,000 square miles, has nowhere within its borders even a mission hall in which the Gospel is preached, and yet it has a population of several thousand people.

Mean Neighbor.
"How do you like your new next door neighbor?"
"Don't like him at all. He's a contemptible fellow. Instead of owning a lawn mower that I could borrow he has his grass cut by contract."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Punishment for Middy.
In the recent British naval maneuvers a midshipman who had rammed the admiral's ship with a steam launch had to make a trip around the fleet in a launch, while she was hung all around with fenders and labeled "Not Under Control."

Transatlantic Travel Turns.
There has come a turn in the tide of transatlantic travel, and it is now moving westward. The 119,000 first and second cabin passengers who went eastward since the beginning of the year are landing in New York.

Woman's Privilege.
An old woman on the witness stand at Bellinzona, Switzerland, gave her age as 193. But it was ascertained, on cross-examination that she was 106. She explained that she was "ashamed of being so old."

Smallest Thing With Backbone.
The smallest thing with a backbone is the starapan, a little fish recently discovered by scientists in the Philippine Islands. It measures about half an inch in length.

Oldest Building in Wall Street.
The oldest building in Wall street is the government assay office, immediately east of the sub-treasury, yet it is only 83 years old, having been erected in 1823.

Illustrate Lectures to Sailors.
Sets of lantern slides are being issued to warships by the British admiralty, and are to be used by the officers in illustrating lectures to the men.

Meaning of Balkan.
"Balkan" is a Turkish generic term, referring to a range or mass of wooded hills with pasturage and meadow land on their slopes.

War is Expensive.
The French government spent $50,000,000 during the late crisis over Morocco in getting ready for a war with Germany.
