

O. K. GOLL, Tombstone, scalp wound on the side of the head while watching the battle from Fourth street, Douglas. Mr. Goll had accompanied the Associated Press correspondents to the front earlier in the day and had fallen back to this point of observation.

ELPIDIO ARCE, Douglas, wounded in the breast. He was taken to the Red Cross hospital. Charles Weiler, a young American fighting with the insurgents, came in to Douglas at nightfall, severely wounded in the breast. He was taken to the Red Cross hospital.

FRANK WILLIAMS, blacksmith helper Copper Queen Mining company, shot in the back while standing on a street outside of the so-called danger zone. Wounded dangerously.

Charles Weiler, a young American fighting with the insurgents, came in to Douglas at nightfall, severely wounded in the breast. He was taken to the Red Cross hospital.

At the same moment Williams was shot down by a Mauser bullet struck the front of the city water commissioner's new office on Eleventh street, twelve blocks from the international line.

In the streets and buildings of Douglas, making seven in all. At 5 o'clock John Keith, employed by the Douglas Lumber company, was shot through the leg with a Mauser bullet while on Eighth street, nine blocks from the international line. He was taken to the Red Cross hospital.

Just before night fell on the plain, a daring and brilliant bit of work was shown by the federal forces. All afternoon the federal cavalry was under fire from the rebel trenches in the east of the town.

At 8:35 tonight Balasario Garcia came out of Agua Prieta alone and gained the American line at G avenue, where he surrendered himself as an individual and not as commander of the Agua Prieta forces.

At 10:45 tonight the federalists brought into play a three-pound field piece and began hammering away at Agua Prieta with shells. At 9:30 a terrific explosion shook the entire town.

At 10:45 tonight the federalists brought into play a three-pound field piece and began hammering away at Agua Prieta with shells.

els assert that Juan Cabral's force arrived in Agua Prieta tonight, but this is doubted in Douglas. Naco has denied over the telephone that any force of rebels came there from Nogales and started overland for Agua Prieta.

Denver, April 17.—There will be no intervention; no trouble between the United States and Mexico—I feel quite sure of this, though I am no prophet, nor seer, but speak only from the standpoint of a practical investigator of international conditions throughout the world.

Albany, N. Y., April 17.—The repeal of the law enacted last year, making directors of racing associations liable for gambling at race tracks is recommended by the state racing commission in its annual report to the legislature tonight.

Chicago, April 17.—Carter H. Harrison took the oath of office tonight and became mayor of Chicago for the fifth time. He was inducted into office without great ceremony.

Dawson, Yukon Territory, April 17.—The bodies of the mounted police, who set out December 22 from Fort Macpherson for Dawson were found not far south of Macpherson by the relief expedition which left Dawson February 21.

TAFT TELLS DOUGLAS CITIZENS TO HIKE

and governors of states, the committee of the chamber of deputies this afternoon made its report but with some significant amendments.

London, April 17.—Referring to the conditions arising through the fighting now going on between Mexican federal and insurgent forces close to United States territory, the Times expresses the belief that Madero's followers will not probably provoke as many fights as possible along the frontier.

Muskogee, Okla., April 17.—F. L. Martin, brother of former Mayor T. H. Martin, William M. Irvin, Jim Manley, V. R. Allen and Stout Hamm were indicted today by the grand jury on the charge of murder.

Washington, April 17.—The first tilt in the senate over the joint resolution providing for the election of senators by direct vote occurred today when opposition to the measure passed by the house attempted to have it referred to the committee on privileges and elections instead of judiciary.

New York, April 17.—Former Judge W. A. Day, it was reported this afternoon, will be elected president of the Equitable Life Assurance society on Wednesday.

...The... JAFFA GROCERY CO. GOOD THINGS TO EAT

Spring Time Suggests Fresh Fruits and Vegetables

WE HAVE MANY VARIETIES. We have made arrangements whereby we will be supplied with strawberries from the largest grower of fancy berries in California.

JAFFA'S PHONES, 31-32.

MURDER SUSPECT CAPTURED

Man Accused of Particularly Atrocious Crime in Mexico Arrested in New York After Thirty Thousand Mile Chase

Both children held abductments to some of the richest lands in the oil fields.

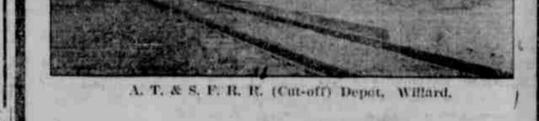

Washington, April 17.—A. H. Saltschey, an American citizen, recently arrested at Mexicali on a charge of attempting to induce federal soldiers to desert, has been released in response to urgent representations by the state department.

A Growing Town

The Little Rustling Busting Town of Willard. I herewith wish to state, I have just returned from a trip to Willard, New Mexico, made especially for the purpose of seeing the lots now being advertised for sale in the KELLY ADDITION to the business center of that town.

Willard now has two railroads and directly connected with the great Rock Island, Rio Grande and El Paso and Southwestern systems.

These choice building lots referred to by Mr. Wagner, in the KELLY ADDITION adjoining the business center of this promising city, are now being offered for sale at from $15 to $35 Per Lot

REVOLUTIONISTS' SYMPATHIZERS SWIPE GUNS. Silver City Store Robbed of Rifles, Revolvers, Knives, Razors, and 1140 Rounds of Ammunition

HUGO, THE WONDER. The Clairvoyant from Australia. He positively has no equal in his strange and mysterious calling.

Thousands of Genuine Testimonials. POSTUM. "There's a Reason". Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.