UNITED STATES FLATLY DENIES AUSTRIA'S CHARGES

Sale of Munitions Open To All Who Can Purchase; Plenty of Precedents by Teutonic Nation.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE. Washington, Aug. 10.—The United States government today flatly denied to Vienna a reply rejecting the Austro-Hungarian views recently set forth in a note contending that the great scale on which war munitions are being exported from America to enemies of the Germanic allies is not inconsistent with the definition of neutrality.

The note was cabled to Ambassador Penfield, who probably will present it to the Vienna foreign office Thursday. It may be made public later by agreement between the two governments.

Tone Is Friendly.
Though framed in diplomatic language and entirely friendly in tone the reply is understood to repudiate flatly the suggestion that the United States has permitted violations of neutrality and to stand firmly upon the right of American exporters to send war supplies to belligerents able to purchase and receive them. The United States always has held that this is an unquestioned right under international law and high officials have pointed out that to prevent such shipments to one country because another was not in a position to receive them would be a violation of neutrality.

Precedents also have been recalled where in previous wars trumps and Austria exported arms extensively.

Complaint of Teutons.
The Austro-Hungarian note, handed to Ambassador Penfield on June 28, was a lengthy document setting forth the views of that government and suggesting that the United States should restrict the sale of munitions of Austria-Hungary that the supply of foodstuffs and war material to them would be suspended unless legitimate trade in these articles between Americans and neutral countries was permitted.

AMERICAN ALTITUDE RECORDS ARE BROKEN

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE. Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 10.—Two new American altitude records were established here today in experimental flights with a new type of military utility biplane designed by Glenn H. Curtiss. Lieut. William P. McEwan, a representative of the Aero Club of America, was assigned by the United States marine corps to study the maneuverability of military aeroplanes, was the observer on both flights.

In the first flight Pilot Raymond V. North took two passengers to an altitude of 8,700 feet. On the second, with three passengers, including Lieutenant M. Elwyn, the needle registered 8,700 feet. The ascent on the second flight was made in thirty-six minutes.

FREY INCIDENT TO BE SETTLED FOR BY GERMANY

Neither Berlin Nor Washington Waives Principles, But Payment is to Be Made on Sale of Munitions Open to All

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE. Washington, Aug. 10.—The American reply to the last German note regarding the sinking of the American ship William P. Frey, was called to Berlin tonight and probably will be given out for publication Saturday.

While the original position of the state department that the Prussian-American treaty of 1828 was violated by the destruction of the vessel is reaffirmed, it is understood that the United States now agrees to accept payment for the Frey under the conditions suggested by the last German note obviating an appeal to arbitration at The Hague. Germany stipulates that payment shall not involve admission of a treaty violation, the American note is said to stipulate that its treaty rights are waived by acceptance. The amount to be paid will be fixed by two commissioners, one appointed by each government.

The German position, as outlined in the last note, is that payment of indemnity for ships destroyed is all that the treaty contemplates. The United States contends that any American ship even if laden with contraband is protected from destruction by article 12 of the treaty, although it is not claimed that a contraband cargo would be so protected.

Germany has held that since the sinking of ships is not specifically prohibited in the treaty, principles of international law must govern each case. The new American note is said to reject this view.

A German prize court in July held the Berlin government under treaty for payment for the Frey. The amount was not fixed as the United States had entered no specific claim for damages.

ENGLAND MAKES IMPORTANT GAIN IN WESTERN AREA

Trenches at Hooge, Taken by Germans August 1 by Flaming Gas Attack, and 1,000 Yards Beside, Are Stormed.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE. British Headquarters in France, Aug. 9 (via London, Aug. 10, 6:10 p. m.)—By an attack on Hooge this morning the British not only recovered all the trenches which they lost before the flaming German gas attacks on August 1, but more, taking a front of a thousand yards. Although this has been the most important offensive action in weeks.

The British guns preceded it, by shelling the German positions on a part of the line in the West canal region, north of Ypres yesterday afternoon to which the Germans replied in kind, including the heaviest shelling received by the ruins of Ypres for two months.

Artillery Duel Precedes Advance.
At 2:30 o'clock this morning British guns flooded their thunder on the German trenches at Hooge, in front of Ypres. For two hours this continued one roar was kept up before at dawn British infantry pushed the German trenches at Hooge.

British officers said the resistance was surprisingly slight and either the artillery preparations were mostly successful or the German line must have been weakly held.

All through the day the artillery of both sides continued covering the region of Hooge with shells, which were visible over the flat country to the Associated Press correspondent while the British were busy consolidating their gains and preparing against any counter-attack.

The British took 250 prisoners and two machine guns.

The imperial governments of the several states are preparing measures to secure sufficient quantities of petroleum and coal stores to meet all demands at a reasonable price.

CHINAMAN HAS BOTH PRAISE AND CENSURE FOR U. S.

Commissioner at Frisco Exposition Says America Is Only Great Nation That Has Not Acted the Bully.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE. San Francisco, Aug. 10.—Kuo Oweyong, Chinese commissioner to the Panama-Pacific exposition, told the International Immigration congress tonight that the United States was the only one of the great nations which attacked China. While he extolled the friendliness of the United States on the one hand, he found much to condemn in the operation of the Chinese exclusion act, which he characterized as an "undisturbed breach of treaty" and the only possible cause of friction between the two countries.

"The United States is the only powerful nation," Mr. Oweyong said, "that has not, at any time, resorted to methods of bullying, coercion or threatening China for commercial gain."

Discussing the exclusion act, he said it was "an act which justice cannot defend."

Early political leaders and other arbitrators installed in the people at large hatred and prejudice which were unreasonable. The exclusion law is the outcome of unwise legislation. It inflicts tremendous hardships upon Chinese of every class—merchants, travelers, students and even officials at times. It seems that it is easier for them to enter heaven than to set foot on the American continent."

CHICAGO DETECTIVES CONVICTED OF GRAFT

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE. Chicago, Aug. 10.—Walter O'Brien and William Egan, former sergeants of the city detective force, today were found guilty of charges of accepting bribes to protect criminals. The case went to the jury late this afternoon.

The prosecution's case was based mainly upon the testimony of Barney Berthele and James and Frank Ryan, brothers, known as heads of the chair-coach trust. Berthele was brought here from the penitentiary at Joliet, where he is serving a term for swindling Mrs. Ross L. McDermott of La Crosse, Wis., out of more than $12,000.

Capt. John Stahlin, former head of the detective bureau and as such the superior of O'Brien and Egan, testified for the defense. Bailin is under indictment on charges of participating in the alleged graft.

The conviction carries with it an indeterminate sentence of from one to five years in prison, and for the convicted men entered a motion for a new trial, but the date for the arguments on the motion was not set.

PRESIDENT SENDS TWO WARSHIPS TO VERA CRUZ

Report From American Commander That Foreigners Are in Danger Causes Issuance of Prompt Order.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADER WIRE. Washington, Aug. 10.—Two American battleships, the Louisiana, and the New Hampshire, sailed tonight from Newport, R. I., for Vera Cruz, in response to an urgent request from Commander McNamara that his little fleet of gunboats in Mexican waters be reinforced in view of anti-foreign demonstrations at general Carranza's capital.

It is understood that President Wilson himself ordered the warships sent although an official of the government would not even admit that they had sailed. There had been taken during the day to point out that any naval or military activity at this time would be purely precautionary and safeguard foreign interests and is not to be construed as having any connection with the Pan-American conference, which is to be resumed in New York tomorrow to complete a program for bringing about a restoration of government in Mexico.

Announcements Are Guarded.
Official reticence concerning the movements of the Louisiana and New Hampshire is due largely to a fear that news of their sailing reaching Vera Cruz would reveal the already serious situation existing there. Commander McNamara, the chief American naval officer on the Gulf coast, called his request for reinforcements last night and the two battleships immediately were ordered held in readiness to proceed. Today, after conferences between Secretary Lansing and Rear Admiral Benson, acting secretary of the navy, it was understood that the sailing of the ships would be delayed pending fuller reports from Vera Cruz and that if possible the sending of any considerable additional force would be avoided on account of the effect such a step might have upon the work of the Pan-American conference.

President Issues Order.
President Wilson, at Cornish, N. H., was advised by telephone of Commander McNamara's report and several hours later a long cable dispatch reached the navy department from Cornish. Then it became known that the ships had been instructed to start for Vera Cruz at once.

Secretary Lansing, who left tonight for New York to attend the Pan-American conference, would not discuss naval movements further than to admit that a ship would be sent to replace one which would bring the Brazilian and Guatemalan ministers to the United States. He said that on account of contraband goods on the lumber orders would soon be issued to increase the military forces, but at the same time declared emphatically that neither this action or any movements of ships had any bearing whatsoever on the plans of the Pan-American conference. As he left the state department, Mr. Lansing said he expected to be back at the desk Thursday morning "if we have good luck."

President Wilson will be back in Washington in time to attend a cabinet meeting Friday at which both the program of the Pan-American conference and the situation at Vera Cruz will be discussed. Secretary of the Navy Daniels started for Washington tonight from Asheville, N. C.

Disorders in Vera Cruz.
Just before he took the train for New York, Secretary Lansing said advice had reached the state department tonight confirming the report of Commander McNamara as to conditions at Vera Cruz had given no additional details. The secretary would not discuss the mission of the battleships. The new reports from Vera Cruz were forwarded to Cornish.

In connection with the conference at New York, it was learned tonight that the appeal to be addressed to the Mexican people and all the military leaders probably would outline a definite plan for the holding of a general convention to set up a constitutional government which will be recognized by the United States and other American republics.

It is said that the conference will select a Mexican for the presidency regarded as best fitted to undertake the task, though his name may not be formally announced until a peace convention is assembled.

Have Considered Carranza.
The possibility that some of the conference, particularly General Carranza, may refuse to join in such a conference has been fully considered and the nations participating in the conference are declared to be in agreement on a plan to use the armed forces of the United States, if necessary, to enforce an embargo on war supplies against any factions opposing the proposed new government.

Armed intervention would be contemplated only as a last resort, and according to information here, the South and Central American powers would be asked only for their approval and moral support of military operations by the United States if they became necessary.

WOMAN WOULD NOT GIVE UP

Though Sickard Suffering At Last Found Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Richmond, Pa.—"When I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was in a dreadfully run-down state of health, had internal troubles, and was so extremely nervous and prostrated that if I had given in to my feelings I would have been in bed. As it was I had hardly strength at times to be on my feet and what I did do was by a great effort. I could not sleep at night and of course felt very bad in the morning, and had a steady headache.

"After taking the second bottle I noticed that the headache was not so bad, I rested better, and my nerves were stronger. I continued its use until it made a new woman of me, and now I can hardly realize that I am able to do so much as I do. Whenever I know any woman in need of a good medicine I highly praise Lydia E. Cocoon Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, the best soap to use is the better.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and is very harmful. Just plain unrefined cocoon oil, which is pure and entirely greaseless, is much better than soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this oil possible injure the hair.

Wash your hair with Cocoon Oil and rub it in. One or two treatments will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather does not scald, and repels every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.
