Struggle Between Candidates for Chief Places on Ticket Has Obscured Interest in Other Contests.

VOTERS EDUCATED AND KNOW HOW TO SCRATCH

Old Habit of 'Voting Her Straight' Now Thing of the Past; Split Line-up Among the Probabilities.

Santa Fe, Oct. 24.—So great has been the interest in the struggle for the three main offices involved in the present campaign—the senatorship, the governorship and the seat in the house of representatives...

This condition is reflected in the almost total absence of betting on any of the state house contests. In the places where politicians sportive by inclination are wont to foregather...

Many Scratches Likely. In many ways times have changed in New Mexico politics, but in none, perhaps, to such a great extent as in the matter of scratching in election tickets.

Wherefore, it would not be surprising if, in the election that is to take place on the seventh day of next month it will be several days before the result in some of the races is known.

At democratic headquarters they will tell you that scratching will have little effect this year on the fate of their ticket as a whole...

the ticket will be well in the lead of his adversary on the opposing ticket. Furthermore, they tell you this with an air of conviction that shows that they mean it.

At republican headquarters they simply say "We'll elect our entire ticket"—a remark which contains no great degree of originality and which is not at all surprising when all the circumstances are considered.

There is a possibility that one or the other of the state tickets will be elected as a whole, for as the late John J. Ingalls said when asked if it were possible for a politician to be an honest man, with good all things possible. But the wise bettor will not lay any great amount of money on such a possibility.

Satisfy!—that's a new thing for a cigarette to do. It's nothing for a cigarette to just taste good—lots of cigarettes may do that. But Chesterfields do more—they satisfy! Just like a thick, juicy steak satisfies when you're hungry. Yet, with all that, Chesterfields are MILD! No other cigarette can give you this new enjoyment (satisfy, yet mild), for the good reason that no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend—an entirely new combination of tobaccos and the most important development in cigarette blending in 20 years. Loggatt & Myers Tobacco Co. "Give me a package of those cigarettes that SATISFY!"
