

THE EVENING WORLD. FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14TH. SUBSCRIPTION (Including Postage), PER MONTH, 30c.; PER YEAR, $3.50.

TO ADVERTISERS. The rates for advertising in the Daily World do not apply to the Evening issue. Nor do the rates of that issue apply to the morning edition.

HOW TO DO IT. A Washington journal suggests that it would be useful to collate the suggestions that have been offered by persons of recognized capacity and experience regarding the disposition to be made of the surplus moneys in the Treasury for the consideration of Congress.

TO-DAY'S CONTEST IN BROOKLYN. The admirers of the national game will watch with absorbing interest the contest at Brooklyn to-day between the champions of the League and the champions of the Association. Greek meets Greek in these games.

THE SERIES for the world's championship thus far has been most superbly contested. The country has never witnessed better baseball than in the four games already played in the West. The score stands at present three to one in favor of Detroit.

MEANWHILE, the Germans are enjoying the sensation quite as much as the Parisians. The arrest of Gen. BOULANGER complicates the situation in France. He apparently avails himself of every opportunity to provoke the hostility of the Government.

THE MATTER seems to turn on whether the pastor is a laborer. Now, if the Rev. E. Walpole Warren is a good rector, he is certainly a laborer with an abundance of work to do.

THE OHIO Democrats cry for Gov. Hill. But why? They elected Gov. HOADLY by 12,629 plurality and a clear majority over all the year before the Presidential election of 1884.

THE MONOPOLY IN NEW ENGLAND. Boston and Maine Railroad bill, with a strong taint of corruption, passed the New Hampshire Legislature yesterday.

AT IT AGAIN. The persistent advocates of woman suffrage are determined not to lose a chance of pushing their cause. Several of them went to the places of registration Tuesday and demanded that their names be placed on the list of voters.

A WISE POLICY. The United Labor party has an excellent opportunity to prove that it is the friend of good local government, as it ought to be.

B. MARTIN for Judge of Sessions and DA LANCEY NICOLL for District Attorney. No men have a greater interest in the faithful enforcement of the laws and in the equal administration of justice than those who depend on honest labor for a living.

THE UNITED LABOR Party will win both credit and prestige by nominating Martine and Nicoll as their candidates, for they will name officers of tried integrity and their nominees will be certain of victory.

THE LATEST PARIS SENSATION. The arrest of Gen. BOULANGER complicates the situation in France. He apparently avails himself of every opportunity to provoke the hostility of the Government.

AS TO GEN. CAPPELL, condemnation and punishment for his dishonest traffic in the decorations of the Legion of Honor have come swift and severe. He is disgraced forever. He will be forced into permanent exile.

TRINITY'S IMPROVED RECTOR. The worthy Mr. KENNEDY, President of the St. Andrew's Society, avows that he will never rest content until he upsets the law prohibiting the importation of contract labor.

THE MATTER seems to turn on whether the pastor is a laborer. Now, if the Rev. E. Walpole Warren is a good rector, he is certainly a laborer with an abundance of work to do.

THE OHIO Democrats cry for Gov. Hill. But why? They elected Gov. HOADLY by 12,629 plurality and a clear majority over all the year before the Presidential election of 1884.

THE MONOPOLY IN NEW ENGLAND. Boston and Maine Railroad bill, with a strong taint of corruption, passed the New Hampshire Legislature yesterday.

AT IT AGAIN. The persistent advocates of woman suffrage are determined not to lose a chance of pushing their cause. Several of them went to the places of registration Tuesday and demanded that their names be placed on the list of voters.

A WISE POLICY. The United Labor party has an excellent opportunity to prove that it is the friend of good local government, as it ought to be.

AS OTHERS SEE US. A Flood of Cordial Commendation from Exchanges on "The Evening World." The New York Evening World is as bright as a comet just coined, and a comet of antique date will buy it.

THE NEW YORK EVENING WORLD makes a strong bid for popularity by being the best afternoon paper printed in the metropolis. There seems to be no limit to the enterprise of the New York World. An evening edition of that paper is now issued, the success of which is phenomenal.

THE NEW YORK WORLD yesterday began the issue of an evening edition. The evening field is being seized upon by the erstwhile "great" morning papers of the metropolis, which is a clear indication that its value is appreciated.

THE EVENING WORLD is a new paper issued from the office of the New York World, and is an afternoon edition of that journal. It is a six-page paper, sprightly and new, and in typography and general appearance closely resembles the morning paper. It is sold at one cent.

THE EVENING WORLD, which made its first appearance in New York City yesterday, scored a triumph with its first number. Its success was complete and immediate, as that of the Sunday Post-Dispatch. It started off with a circulation of 111,000 and an ample share of advertisements.

THE WORLD on Monday began the publication of an evening edition. It is a success from the start. Over 111,000 copies of the first issue were actually sold, and Tuesday's edition was over 115,000. It is a wide-awake paper, and leaves its evening contemporaries far in the rear.

There is no mistake that THE EVENING WORLD is a daily, and that it will bloom successfully there is no doubt. The first number contains six pages, neatly printed, and artistically illustrated, all for one cent.

THE PUBLISHER of THE WORLD began issuing an evening edition on Monday, and the first EVENING WORLD was as pretty and spicy a six-page daily as one would wish to see. Its great circulation, 111,000, considered with the great circulation of the morning edition, raises the question: Will THE WORLD take the earth, or will the earth take THE WORLD, or both?

ALTHOUGH the first sheets of THE EVENING WORLD in New York did not leave the presses until 4.30 P. M., the first day's sales aggregated over 111,000 copies. Everybody expected much of THE EVENING WORLD, but it proved to be a better paper even than was anticipated.

THE NEW YORK EVENING WORLD is a new paper issued from the office of the New York World, and is an afternoon edition of that journal. It is a six-page paper, sprightly and new, and in typography and general appearance closely resembles the morning paper.

THE MATTER seems to turn on whether the pastor is a laborer. Now, if the Rev. E. Walpole Warren is a good rector, he is certainly a laborer with an abundance of work to do.

LABOR LEADERS' HOMES. Dr. McGlynn, when in town, lives with relatives in Brooklyn. John J. Beahm is a bachelor, and lives in East Fourteenth street.

William McCabe, a United Labor party leader, says he has a family of four and a dog. Dan Jacobs keeps a cigar store in Stanton street, and says he is no poor he cannot get any poorer.

Hugh Whoriskey lives in a tenement house at Third and Fifty-third street with his wife and child. Edward Conklin, painter, is as poor as any of the labor reformers, and belongs to the Poverty Club, in the Fifth district.

THE EX-GOVERNORS are having their innings at the Fifth Avenue. There are stopping there to-day ex-Gov. Franklin Fairbanks, of Vermont, and ex-Gov. Washburne and several of Minnesota.

THE EX-GOVERNORS are having their innings at the Fifth Avenue. There are stopping there to-day ex-Gov. Franklin Fairbanks, of Vermont, and ex-Gov. Washburne and several of Minnesota.

THE EX-GOVERNORS are having their innings at the Fifth Avenue. There are stopping there to-day ex-Gov. Franklin Fairbanks, of Vermont, and ex-Gov. Washburne and several of Minnesota.

THE EX-GOVERNORS are having their innings at the Fifth Avenue. There are stopping there to-day ex-Gov. Franklin Fairbanks, of Vermont, and ex-Gov. Washburne and several of Minnesota.

THE EX-GOVERNORS are having their innings at the Fifth Avenue. There are stopping there to-day ex-Gov. Franklin Fairbanks, of Vermont, and ex-Gov. Washburne and several of Minnesota.

THE EX-GOVERNORS are having their innings at the Fifth Avenue. There are stopping there to-day ex-Gov. Franklin Fairbanks, of Vermont, and ex-Gov. Washburne and several of Minnesota.

THE EX-GOVERNORS are having their innings at the Fifth Avenue. There are stopping there to-day ex-Gov. Franklin Fairbanks, of Vermont, and ex-Gov. Washburne and several of Minnesota.

THE EX-GOVERNORS are having their innings at the Fifth Avenue. There are stopping there to-day ex-Gov. Franklin Fairbanks, of Vermont, and ex-Gov. Washburne and several of Minnesota.

SHUT OUT OF CASTLE GARDEN. THE HOTEL RUTH RUNS FOUL OF THE IMMIGRANT RAILROAD POOL.

For Procuring Cheap Tickets Outside the Combination for Two Arabs Mrs. Gasser's Agent is Denied the Privileges of the Garden—An Unavailing Appeal to the Commissioners of Emigration.

The Castle Garden Committee of the Emigration Commission held a closed meeting on Thursday afternoon, at which matters only of routine importance, it was said, were discussed. Mrs. Caroline Gasser, who keeps the Hotel Ruth, at 16 Greenwich street, appeared before the Commissioners and in a very pathetic manner implored them to remove the embargo which they four weeks ago placed upon her house.

Four weeks ago two Arabs arrived at Castle Garden. They were destined for Omaha, Neb., and not having sufficient money to pay their railroad fare over the pool lines, they were obliged to ask the Commissioners for a ticket to Omaha outside the Garden considerably less than asked for by the pool. The man agreed, and after paying Barney Biglin's exchange agent 90 cents to take three bundles to the hotel, they left the Garden in the hands of the runner. The following day the runner took the Arabs to the office of the Old Dominion Railroad, on Bowling Green, and there they were given tickets for Omaha.

THE EX-GOVERNORS are having their innings at the Fifth Avenue. There are stopping there to-day ex-Gov. Franklin Fairbanks, of Vermont, and ex-Gov. Washburne and several of Minnesota.

THE EX-GOVERNORS are having their innings at the Fifth Avenue. There are stopping there to-day ex-Gov. Franklin Fairbanks, of Vermont, and ex-Gov. Washburne and several of Minnesota.

THE EX-GOVERNORS are having their innings at the Fifth Avenue. There are stopping there to-day ex-Gov. Franklin Fairbanks, of Vermont, and ex-Gov. Washburne and several of Minnesota.

THE EX-GOVERNORS are having their innings at the Fifth Avenue. There are stopping there to-day ex-Gov. Franklin Fairbanks, of Vermont, and ex-Gov. Washburne and several of Minnesota.

THE EX-GOVERNORS are having their innings at the Fifth Avenue. There are stopping there to-day ex-Gov. Franklin Fairbanks, of Vermont, and ex-Gov. Washburne and several of Minnesota.

THE EX-GOVERNORS are having their innings at the Fifth Avenue. There are stopping there to-day ex-Gov. Franklin Fairbanks, of Vermont, and ex-Gov. Washburne and several of Minnesota.

THE EX-GOVERNORS are having their innings at the Fifth Avenue. There are stopping there to-day ex-Gov. Franklin Fairbanks, of Vermont, and ex-Gov. Washburne and several of Minnesota.

LORD F. FITZBOULED ON ANTI-POVERTY. The Cross of the New Crusade Seen Through Artistic Spectacles.

A—A—A. I was prevailed upon to go to a—aw—vervy peculiar affair on Sunday night. I don't think since my first appearance in this country that I have ever been to so strange and interesting an arrangement.

I asked a fellow who was in close proximity to me to explain matters. I gathered from his remarks that a number of individuals comprising—aw—both the wongah and the softah sex had resolved to do away with poverty-stricken people and make everybody rich and prosperous.

I must say that I approve of the ideal. It is a—aw horridly disagreeable, have beggars bothering one, and study rooms and winous houses with impowah dwains are not desirable.

I must say that I approve of the ideal. It is a—aw horridly disagreeable, have beggars bothering one, and study rooms and winous houses with impowah dwains are not desirable.

I must say that I approve of the ideal. It is a—aw horridly disagreeable, have beggars bothering one, and study rooms and winous houses with impowah dwains are not desirable.

I must say that I approve of the ideal. It is a—aw horridly disagreeable, have beggars bothering one, and study rooms and winous houses with impowah dwains are not desirable.

I must say that I approve of the ideal. It is a—aw horridly disagreeable, have beggars bothering one, and study rooms and winous houses with impowah dwains are not desirable.

I must say that I approve of the ideal. It is a—aw horridly disagreeable, have beggars bothering one, and study rooms and winous houses with impowah dwains are not desirable.

I must say that I approve of the ideal. It is a—aw horridly disagreeable, have beggars bothering one, and study rooms and winous houses with impowah dwains are not desirable.

I must say that I approve of the ideal. It is a—aw horridly disagreeable, have beggars bothering one, and study rooms and winous houses with impowah dwains are not desirable.

POLLS ABOUT TO BE CLOSED. THE ANTI-POVERTY FAIR WINDING UP WITH NO LOSS OF SPIRIT.

Preferences and Antipathies of Every Kind Expressed With the Aid of Votes at Ten Cents Each—Old Masters Seen in Utmost Glee in the Art Gallery—A Lecture, a Play, and Amusements Among the Side Shows.

OVERTY was being abolished with undiminished energy and enterprise at the Madison Square Garden last evening, and preparations were making for a gala night to-day. The ladies were in proportion to a degree exactly in proportion to the necessity for harder work in consequence of the abandonment of the prize-drawing schemes, and denunciation of the power that obliged the fair chance-sellers to abandon their operations was heard from many ladies.

But the many voting schemes were thriving nicely. Notwithstanding his action in the matter of stopping the small lotteries at the fair, Mayor Hewitt is a losing candidate for the ancient and faded cotton umbrella which is to go to the most unpopular man in New York.

Archbishop Corrigan leads with 92 votes, at 10 cents each, Mayor Hewitt having but 82. Father Collins, of the rectory of St. Stephens, coming next. Mr. Preston has 8 votes, John J. O'Donohue has 9 and Capt. Reilly, of the Nineteenth Precinct, who was made a candidate after the charge of him on the Progressive Labor party meeting in Union Square and after the arrest of Manager Crossdale, has 7 votes.

Quite a different umbrella, a silk one, with a gold-lined neck, will go to a real estate lawyer, and in this contest Judge McGuire leads. Louis F. Post, Col. Bud Ingersoll, Frederic R. Condit, and Gideon J. Tuler follow in that order.

Mary Halligan, Dr. McGlynn's faithful housekeeper at St. Stephen's rectory in days gone by, has 101 votes, and her popularity is no eminent that no other candidate has received votes enough to give her a realistic chance of winning. It is a real estate lawyer that she is running for the handsome gold bracelet to be given to the hardest worker at the fair.

Another bracelet, similar in design, bids fair to trace the wrist of Miss Mary George, the pretty daughter of the prophet of Anti-Poverty, who has 116 votes, to 165 for Miss Margaret Byrnes and 104 for Miss Annie Conway.

In the canvass for the Webster's Unbridled Dictionary to go the most popular priest, Dr. Curran is ahead, with 118 votes; Hugh O. Pentecost is 75, Dr. Brntwell 52, and Dr. J. J. O'Donohue 45. Father Huntington 18, the Rev. John Anketell 10, and the Rev. R. Heber Newton 4.

That lady's gold watch will look well in Miss Elizabeth Leland's hands. She has 224 votes. Miss Lillie Frolic 157, Mrs. Farrell 126 and Miss Munier 107.

The most popular man in the Eighteenth Assembly District, according to the vote which is to decide who will be the gold-headed cane, is Chairman John H. Feeney, of St. Stephen's parishioners, who follows Dr. McGlynn. He has 238 votes. The Rev. J. J. O'Donohue, Dr. Henry Carey, of the parishioners, comes next with 225. George Norman has 100 and William J. Boylan has 40.

Answers to Correspondents. J. F. W.—The law does not compel a man to stand a scaffold for his name when asked by the inspectors of election. The object is to find out whether he shall be twenty-one years of age on election day or whether he shall be twenty-one years of age on election day or whether he shall be twenty-one years of age on election day.