Annual Autumn Clearance Sale in the French Millinery Salon

Begins Tomorrow Morning and Will Be Continued Friday and Saturday This will be good news for the scores of women who always eagerly await our end of season clearance sales.

These charming chapeaux were inspired by the foreign models and are made almost entirely of imported materials as our millinery chiefs were as careful in the selection of trimmings in Paris as they were in the choosing of original models. Therefore regardless of the fact that our designers are the best in America, these hats are typically Parisian, because they are made of the materials such as the modistes of Paris use in the making of their hats.
