

THE LAND OF MAKE-BELIEVE
No. 6—THE SPENDTHRIFT, By Eleanor Schorer

ROBBED HIS BRIDE OF FOUR DAYS AND FLED WITH $700

Goszewski, Nabbed in Brooklyn, Had Ticket for Poland in His Pocket.

Mrs. Marian Czacowski of Plainfield, N. J., became a widow a little over six years ago. Besides a son, now eight years old, her husband left her $1,500. She and her son took a trip to Europe to see friends at Warszawa, Russia, Poland, where her parents had been born.

They got along very well just the same. She remained abroad for about a year, spent $89, returned to her home in Plainfield and put the remaining $700 in bank.

Goszewski soon followed to this country and courted Mrs. Czacowski until two weeks ago, when he had picked up enough English to propose, and he was accepted. They were married four days later, and then it was decided that they should return to Poland.

Goszewski was given the $700 to buy tickets, and he did not return. His bride also missed her wedding dress and her presents.

Yesterday she was told by Mrs. Mary Redmond of Plainfield that the latter had received a telegram from Goszewski asking her to meet him at Clay street and Manhattan avenue, Brooklyn, last night. Mrs. Redmond did not appear, but Mrs. Goszewski and several policemen did and they got Goszewski. He was charged with grand larceny, and had a ticket for Europe in his pocket.

Didn't Die From Candy.
Mrs. Anna Sands of No. 93 Lafayette avenue, Brooklyn, denied last night that "poisoned" candy had anything to do with the death of her thirteen-year-old daughter, Edna, who was reported to have died from ptomaine poisoning induced in that way. The child was a victim of cerebro-spinal meningitis.

Stomach Trouble

Mrs. E. W. Foster found great relief by taking Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for an aggravating stomach trouble. Now she recommends it to her neighbors, and is making many new friends for this wonderful tonic-stimulant.

"I started using Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey four years ago for stomach trouble (the gastric nerve of the stomach), and I have been very much benefited by its use. Ever since I have taken it as a general tonic, although my stomach is very, very much better, thanks to Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I have recommended it to a great many of my friends. One of them, Mrs. Stillman Lincoln, of Easton, an elderly lady, found great help by its use."

For more than half a century Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has been before the public, and to-day it is better known and more widely used than ever before. This is due to its great curative qualities and to the friends it is continually making of those who after years of suffering and misery have been made strong and vigorous and who tell their friends and neighbors of their good fortune. Professional men, business men and men and women everywhere use and endorse it because it has given them health, strength and vigor when they were sick and run down. We have thousands of letters like the above which are but the outpouring of grateful souls who have been relieved of suffering and who openly acknowledge the great medicinal value of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

Few diseases inflict upon their victims greater suffering than do dyspepsia, indigestion and stomach troubles. If you have dyspepsia or indigestion in any form do not ruin your stomach with drugs, but use a medicine for all mankind. When taken at mealtime it stimulates the mucous surfaces and little glands of the stomach to a healthy action, thereby improving the digestion and assimilation of the food and giving to the system its full proportion of nourishment. This action upon the digestive process is of great importance, as it brings to all the tissues and organs of the body the nutriment necessary to their sustenance and indirectly to the whole system, strength and vigor. It makes the old feel young and keeps the young strong and vigorous.

CAUTION—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It is an absolute pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold in SEALED BOTTLES ONLY—never in bulk. Look for the trade-mark the "Old Chemist" on the label and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price $1.00 a large bottle. Write Medical Department, The Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y., for doctor's advice and an illustrated medical booklet, containing testimonials and rules for health, both sent free.

BEAUTIES GUESTS OF MR. JACK JILT
AT NEW THEATRE

Five to Whom He Has Proposed Occupy Box but Fail to See Him.

The five prettiest girls in Greater New York sat in a box at the New Theatre last night and watched "The Pied Piper."

Each of the five wore a diamond ring on the fourth finger of her right hand and all the rings were identical.

When the Piper was piping the fair maids cast longing and very curious glances down in the orchestra where sat a man who could not determine which of the five should be his—for he had proposed to all once upon a time.

The Misses Jeanette Bergere, Anna O'Halloran, Kathryn Kurz, Mae C. Willson and Elizabeth Jacobs, however, are exceptions for they represent all that is charming, gay and natural in young American girlhood and they are better looking than their photographs.

Since their names have been associated with Mr. Jack Jilt, hundreds of bachelors and men and women all over the country have written them.

"I've had forty-two letters this week," said Miss Bergere, a vivacious blonde. "One man went out in Ontario and he asked I would come out and marry him, for though he wasn't good looking he'd sure he had a fine, high nature that I would appreciate."

"All the people in the neighborhood have been in to ask if I really had a ring, even the postman knows," put in Miss O'Halloran, who is distinguished as much for her smile as for her beauty. She is, furthermore, the only girl on the list who has never touched the "game" of her life.

The box full of beauty was a fascinating sight for most eyes during the evening, and after the performance the mysteries "behind the scenes" were revealed to the young ladies, but even under the New Theatre's revolving stage they could not find that classic young man at whose invitation they had come, who paid for everything, including diamond rings, in advance yet who was nowhere to be seen.

ARMED BURGLAR IS SURPRISED BY COURAGEOUS NUN

Threatens to Kill Her, Then Flees Through Open Window and Escapes.

While the Sisters of St. Dominick, whose home is at No. 25 Boulevard Weehawken, N. J., were at their devotions in St. Lawrence's Church, nearby, about 1:30 o'clock last evening, Sister Agatha, who was alone in the house, heard a noise on the second floor. Convinced that the sounds were made by an intruder, the courageous nun nevertheless hastened upstairs.

As Sister Agatha opened the door of a front room a man about five feet eight inches in height, shabbily dressed and wearing a black slouch hat, was searching a bureau drawer. While she was calmly regarding the thief, he drew a revolver and pointing it at the nun threatened to kill her if she made an outcry.

With the revolver still leveled at her, the man backed to a window, through which he climbed to the roof of a porch. From this he jumped to the ground and disappeared. He took with him $17.75 belonging to one of the sisters.

Woman Jumps From Window.
Daisy Hudson and her husband, Levy, had a disagreement in their home on the second floor of No. 366 West One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street, this morning, and the woman jumped out of the front window. She was taken to Harlem Hospital with internal injuries. Her husband is an illiterate medical bookie, containing testimonials and rules for health, both sent free.
