

O'Neill, Another Joe Grim, Lasts Ten Rounds With Jack Dillon at Broadway S. C.

DILLON UNABLE TO PERFECT RIDE HELPS DROP TIM O'NEILL

Hits Him With Everything Except Kitchen Stove, but Celt Lasts Limit.

IS OBVIOUSLY WABBLING

By GEORGE B. UNDERWOOD. They discovered a second Joe Grim even in the Broadway Sporting Club in Brooklyn last night.

Dillon hit O'Neill with everything except the kitchen stove. He lapped him with rights till it seemed as if Tim would be chopped into mince meat. Jack hammered away at O'Neill's jaw like the big 35-centimeter mallet of the scapheoid.

Several times during the mill Jack had Tim reeling around the ring like a broken-down mule. Tim staggered, tottered, shook and trembled, but he absolutely refused to quit.

This policy has succeeded beyond expectation it is attested to by the fact that the output of the Republic Factory is greater than that of any other concern engaged exclusively in building motor trucks and by the Repeat Orders for Republics by such companies as Borden's Condensed Milk Company; Beakes Dairy Company; A. I. Namm & Son (Brooklyn Department Store); Cascade Steam Laundry; Richardson & Boynton; Brunswick-Balke-Coleman Company; Twentieth Century Laundry Company, etc.

Republic Motor Trucks will economize your deliveries—not only in first cost, but in running expense and upkeep. The experience of hundreds of others is sufficient evidence.
