TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens Gray Hair So Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular, because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Weyth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive, besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.—Advt.

WHO'LL DANCE WITH RUTH ST. DENIS FOR THE BIG BOYS' CLUB?

Avenue A Newsies in Keen Rivalry for Honor of Aiding $500,000 Campaign.

On in the vicinity of Avenue A and Tenth Street there is tense excitement in the air to-day. If you should pass that way and see a group of keen-cut, clear-eyed little chaps arguing violently, or if the newsboy from whom you buy a paper seems to have a far-away look of pleasant anticipation in his eyes and gives you a penny too much change, you may be sure the same cause is at the bottom of it all. They are all wondering and longing and arguing and disputing over who is to have the honor of the first dance with Ruth St. Denis, when she appears at the "Peripherean" revel that is to be held to-night by the Boys' Club of Avenue A.

For Miss St. Denis is not only going to be there and dance for the boys—she is going to dance WITH them too! Some of the older members of this organization that is doing so much for the boyhood of the East Side, are experts at the tango and the fox trot and all that sort of thing. And though Miss Denis's specialty, as everybody knows, is wringing and writhing artistically in the dances of ancient Egypt, India, Greece and other faraway lands, that does not mean that she can't "shake a foot" quite as artistically in the "modern dances" as the best of them. And she has promised to allow some of the Boys' Club members to lead her on the floor and trot with her to their hearts' content.

OH, WHAT A NIGHT IT'LL BE FOR AVENUE A.

The big dance that the Boys' Club of Avenue A is going to give at its club house, Avenue A and Tenth Street, to-night is a part of the ten-day campaign that has been begun by the Boys' Club Association of New York to raise half a million dollars for the benefit of the Boys' Club and the Newsboys' Home Club, another similar organization. Already the campaign is swinging along finely, and contributions by hundreds and thousands are flowing into the headquarters of the association has established at No. 57 Chambers Street.

At the luncheon of the team, captains and workers, given at the headquarters, to-day it was announced that a total of $12,421.50 had been collected in the twenty-four hours ended at noon. This brings the amount of the entire collection up to $57,233.50. Cheers greeted the announcement of a $10,000 contribution by Mrs. Frederick Ferris Thompson. Walter Jennings gave $500 and Oliver Jennings $250. Included in the day's contributions was $105 which was raised by the members of the Senior Division of the Boys' Club. Even the little fellows of the club, from ten to twelve years old, got together and gave $5 to the cause, cheerfully giving up their hard-earned pennies and nickels.

Police Commissioner Woods was the principal speaker at the luncheon, telling of the great benefits that will be derived by properly training the boys of New York City.

The $500,000 that the Boys' Club Association of New York is going to raise in a little more than a week isn't all that the little chaps who belong to the Boys' Club of Avenue A and the Newsboys' Home Club are going to get out of the campaign, however. Not by a far! They're all going to have the time of their lives during the next eight or ten days. A special series of entertainments, athletic contests, dances, picture shows and other diversions calculated to make a hit with Young America, has been arranged as a feature of the big campaign for $500,000. And walls nearly two hundred well-known business and professional men of this city are busy raking up the dollars for them; the boys of the two clubs are going to enjoy themselves ever before, both in the way of celebrating their good luck and to fix the public eye upon them and their needs during the next few weeks.

AND SHE'LL "STEP IT OUT" WITH ONE OF THE BOYS. To-night's dance, with Miss St. Denis as the guest of honor, is the first of these social and amusement affairs that will crowd the evenings of the week so for the better members of the two clubs. Aided by her dancing partner, Ted Shawn, Miss St. Denis will show the boys and their guests a few samples of her beautiful California dancing style and her native Hindoo assistants. The Candler Theatre and the services of its complete staff have been donated for the benefit by Manager Bloom.

The collection of funds by the Boys' Club Association is under the direction of twenty-four "captains," each of whom has a team of eight men working under him. The captains and their workers are all well known business and professional men.

A list of 1,000 names of residents in New York City or its suburbs has been compiled by the association, and it is from these persons that contributions are solicited by the twenty-four "teams," although other voluntary donations are welcome. Each "captain" selects from the list of 1,000 a certain number of names which he guarantees his team will "cover." He then assigns the men under him to interview the various persons whom he has selected and request their donations. It is expected that by the time the 17,000 persons have been seen the half million dollars required will be more than subscribed.

HOW THE MONEY IS RAISED BY TEAM WORK.

The "captains" in charge of the twenty-four teams are: O. C. Harriman, William Edward Hall, George A. Washington, A. J. Lyon, Joseph C. Moffatt, R. W. Edgar, R. P. Holliman, H. B. Hays, Henry Walden, W. S. McClure, Frank Golden, Mr. Forster, Mrs. Thompson and Charles H. Lee, P. L. Dodge, D. W. Collins, James McKenna, A. J. Fox, F. W. Murray, C. B. Martin.

The work of all the teams and captains is under the general supervision of Joseph P. Day, as Chairman. One feature of the work will be a daily meeting of all the captains and as many of the team members as possible at the campaign headquarters of the association, at No. 57 Chambers Street, where luncheon will be served. At these non-day gatherings the progress of the campaign will be discussed and suggestions made for renewed efforts.

Navy Auto Wouldn't Submerge. An automobile, whose owner and operator are his name as Lieut. Hugh C. Fraser, U. S. N., attached to submarine K-5, and whose two companions also described themselves as naval officers, ran into a large waiting trough at Fulton and Liberty Streets, Brooklyn, early to-day and was partially submerged. None of the occupants was injured.

N. Y. QUARANTINE STATION UNDER FEDERAL CONTROL

President Wilson, Acting on Gov. Whitman's Suggestion, Makes the Change.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Quarantine offices at the Port of New York, it was announced here to-day, have passed temporarily from State control and are under the supervision of the Federal Public Health Service, three to remain until the New York Legislature can act on legislation designed to turn the station over absolutely to Federal control. The temporary arrangement was made at the suggestion of Gov. Whitman contained in a letter to the President.

The transfer places quarantine stations at all American ports except Baltimore under Federal supervision, a change, officials here believe, that will be of great value in guarding the public health after the war.

President Wilson has directed Surgeon General Blue to take the station over at New York and he has designated Dr. L. B. Cofer to take charge.

WALL STREET ELEVATOR MEN GO ON STRIKE; MILLIONAIRES WALK

Leader Says Cars at No. 60 Were Tied Up Hours, but Chief Denies It.

When the European war struck Wall Street, about the time it hit Belgium, everybody in the former thrifty settlement willingly co-operated in cutting down unnecessary expenses. Even the elevator operators in the twenty-four-story building known as No. 60 Wall Street agreed to shoulder their share of the hard times burden, according to one of them, Edward Brady, of No. 430 Park Avenue, Brooklyn.

Brady avers that H. P. Downie, chief engineer of the building, explained to the operators the need for curtailing expenditures and requested them to clean their elevator shafts on their own time, Saturday afternoons, instead of doing so Sundays on extra time during the period of depression. This arrangement has been in force nearly a year and a half. Recently the elevator men have been reading about "war brides" and prosperity and they asked last Monday for a reversion to the old system and other concessions. Brady says Downie promptly discharged Thomas A. Acellis of No. 414 Carlton Avenue, Brooklyn. Thereupon, he declares, nine of the other operators struck at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon when the traffic was heavy. Brady states that the lobby of the building was soon jammed with irate millionaires and that the congestion lasted for hours.

Downie told a different story. He said he had intended to grant practically all the requests when one of the men told him the operators were going to strike. He was ready for the walk-out, he said, and had men on hand to take the elevators. He denied there was any congestion.

"We have raised the salaries of the men who did not strike," said Downie. The operators have been getting $14 a week and a bonus of $5 for good behavior.

BROTHER PAYS $1,000 FINE OF WM. WILLETT

Washington County Grand Jury May Investigate Liberties Granted to Cassidy and Willett.

Martin Willett, only brother of William Willett, who is serving a term at Great Meadow Prison for buying a judicial nomination in Queens County, paid the $1,000 fine imposed upon Willett to Deputy Clerk Thomas E. Holt in the Criminal Part of the Supreme Court in Brooklyn to-day.

District Attorney Cropsy said to-day the fine of "Curley Joe" Cassidy, convicted of selling the nomination to Willett, has not been paid. He said the handing of a check to Clerk Kelly last week, which was immediately deposited in bank, was not to be considered a legal payment until the redemption of the check had been certified to the court.

The payment of the fine disposes of the question asked by Cropsy against the Parole Board, forbidding them to let Cassidy and Willett out of prison at the expiration of the minimum term fixed in their sentences.

Cropsy said it was for the Grand Jury of Washington County, in which Great Meadow Prison is situated, to say whether the law had been violated in allowing freedom to Willett and Cassidy during their prison terms.

BILL TO TRAIN SCHOOL BOYS FOR WAR PUT IN Albany Assemblyman Wants Law Amended to Add Military Academy Features.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 12.—Assemblyman Welsh of Albany to-day introduced a bill in the lower house providing "instruction in physical training and military science in high schools of the State." He says the measure aims at "preparedness." Specifically it amends the educational law, empowering the Commissioner of Education and Adjutant General to prepare courses in military and physical training.

Duke of Connaught Has Grip. OTTAWA, Jan. 12.—The Duke of Connaught is suffering from grip. He has been indisposed for several days, but the attack, it was said to-day, is not severe. It is expected he will be able to open Parliament Thursday.

WHITMAN TO DISMISS RILEY, ALBANY REPORT

Prisons Superintendent Preparing Supplemental Defense to Be Submitted Friday.

ALBANY, Jan. 12.—State Superintendent of Prisons John B. Riley has under preparation supplemental affidavits attesting his innocence of misconduct in office which he will submit to Gov. Whitman at the resumption of the hearing on Friday.

Two counts apparently registered by the prosecution in yesterday's proceedings are damaging Riley's case in the Governor's eyes. In one instance the Superintendent acknowledged authorship of a letter to Warden Osborne, declaring that transfer from Sing Sing to Dannemora was regarded as a measure of discipline. The Superintendent admitted to Whitman that, although he ordered the present mooted transfers from Sing Sing to "relieve congestion," the next day he directed transfers from Dannemora to Sing Sing. All these transfers affected the Mutual Welfare League and seem to have been aimed, the Governor contends, to hamper Warden Kirchwey's administration. All signs point to Riley's eventual dismissal.

Ultra Coats

Formerly Priced Up to $30

$14.75

At the season's beginning $30 did the work of $40 or $45, comparing the prices of these beautifully tailored, ultra smart Winter coats at the Bedell fashion shop with the prices of their replicas in the higher priced shops of Fifth Avenue.

To-morrow $14.75 does the work of the original $30, or of the $25 and $22.50, for the hundreds of handsome coats in this assortment originally marked at those prices.

They have the metropolitan swing, the fashionable flare, so much in demand, and echo the very latest note in the concert of style. Many of them fur-trimmed broadcloths—many others fur fabrics, matelasse and silk plushes—and a host of the thoroughbred, mannish mixtures.

Exactly what you want—at exactly the reduction you have been hoping these coats would reach.
