MOVING ON BULL HILL.

1,100 Deputies and a Force of Horsemen to Attack Cripple Creekers.

THEY HAVE A GATLING GUN.

Correspondents Locked Up to Keep Back the News of the Raid.

STATE TROOPS ARE DELAYED.

Strikers Won't Give Up the Men for Whom the Sheriff Has Warrants.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Col., June 6.—A message from Bull Hill this afternoon, says that 1,100 deputies, on foot, and about 100 on horseback, can be seen on the flat near Gillette approaching Bull Hill.

The leader has offered not to attack the miners if they will surrender 200 of the strikers for whom the Sheriff has warrants.

The strikers refused, and will resist the attempt to make arrests.

The deputies have two Gatling guns and several Maxim's.

WALTER, Col. June 6.—In accordance with Gov. Waite's instructions, the state militia is on the move for Cripple Creek.

The force numbers about 1,100 men, infantry and artillery. Gen. Brooks has received private instructions from Gov. Waite to proceed with his troops as far as Colorado Springs, and there he is to get the consent of every mine owner to abide by the articles of agreement, and not to stop a step: either unless his mission is successful.

If successful, he will then go to Cripple Creek and get a like acknowledgment from the miners. If assent on both sides is obtained, he is to carry out the instructions of the Governor, but not until then. Late advices from Cripple Creek indicate that the miners are again preparing to take up arms, being dissatisfied with the outlook.

Gov. Waite says that the movement of the deputy sheriffs against Bull Hill to arrest the strikers is in violation of an armistice. While nothing is said on this point in the agreement made by him in behalf of the miners with the mine-owners, it was tacitly understood that no attempt should be made to serve any warrants until after the militia had reached Cripple Creek and the mines had been opened.

Miners Armed Again. CRIPPLE CREEK, Col., June 6.—The outlook for peace is not so favorable. The strikers are dissatisfied because the agreement binds only Hagerman & Moffat. They also say the deputies have made a threatening move. A company of sixty deputies advanced to Midland and took possession of the town, and later were reinforced by a large body. Last night a telegram was received stating that Sheriff Bowers would lead the deputies towards Bull Hill.

Immediately upon receipt of information that the deputies had advanced to Midland, couriers were sent in every direction, and in a short time all the strikers were again under arms. A body of four companies immediately began the march in a heavy snow-storm to Midland to meet the deputies. About 500 remained at Bull Hill to meet the expected main attack, while other parties went to Victor and other points.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., June 6.—The First Regiment of the National Guard is stranded here owing to the railroad washouts. They cannot possibly reach Cripple Creek today. It would take them nearly a week to go overland.

Strikers Threaten Miners. ARRLAND, Ky., June 6.—Deputies from Cripple Creek, Ark. and Wash. held a meeting with the Flat-woods miners near this city yesterday and threatened violence if the latter did not stop mining coal to supply local iron and steel works. The strikers can only hope for victory by the idleness of these plants.

COAL FAMINE IN CHICAGO.

Steamers May Have to Stop Running and Factories Badly Off.

CHICAGO, June 6.—Unless large shipments of coal are immediately made to this port by rail, vessel men declare that the next two or three days will witness the tying up of most steamers. The supply of larger vessels will be exhausted in two days. Added to the general inability of the steamboat companies to get all the coal they want, is the fact that the railroads over which it is consigned seize it and appropriate it to their own use.

The only recourse the steamship companies have is to compel the railroad to pay for the coal.

Several large concerns in this city are also sufferers from this cause. Lake Superior ports are said to be wholly without coal. Many steamers have made experiments with wood and slabs for fuel, and others have made a trial of anthracite coal. The wood and slabs have been thrown aside, and it is said that many of the boilers would be unable to keep their boilers hot with the anthracite article.

The owners of sailing vessels find themselves placed on equality with the great steamers. There never was a time in the history of the city when bituminous coal was so scarce. Both dealers and consumers believe that the worst effects of the coal famine have not yet been experienced. The supply on hand will be exhausted before any more arrives, and it is believed that many factories and other places of business will be compelled to shut down.

ALABAMA STRIKE BROKEN. Output of Coal Yesterday Was One-third of Normal Amount.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 6.—The miners' strike in Alabama is believed to be practically broken. The output of coal yesterday was 10,000 tons, about one-third of the normal output at this season. Negro army convicts labor has prevented the coal famine, and thus the strike has been ineffective.

The strikers' committee has issued a plea for an appeal for aid for their suffering wives and children. President Furnier, of the Alabama Miners, has been elected to a position of honor by the miners. Many believe the strike will soon be declared off.

MINERS KILL AN ENGINEER. They Stone Him to Death and Seize His Train in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 6.—The strikers stopped a train here this afternoon, that was hauling coal and killed the engineer, William Barr, of Terre Haute.

Barr was killed with stones. The train was on the Vandalla tracks.

KNIGHTSVILLE, Ind., June 6.—The strikers stopped a train here this afternoon, that was hauling coal and killed the engineer, William Barr, of Terre Haute.

It is reported last night that the party which started up the railroad tracks at three o'clock, had a passenger train, but that the trainmen and passenger fought them off. Two of the Communist leaders are said to have been hurt, one fatally.

It is said the Governor telegraphed the Sheriff to send a company of militia and use all efforts to capture the men who attempted to steal a passenger train.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 6.—Gov. Pattison received the following telegram today from Columbus, O.: "Confederate of operators and miners Alabama, O., June 6.—The strikers are dissatisfied because the agreement binds only Hagerman & Moffat. They also say the deputies have made a threatening move. A company of sixty deputies advanced to Midland and took possession of the town, and later were reinforced by a large body. TUG BLOWN TO SPLINTERS.

Rambler's Engineer Badly Hurt and Cook Weller is Missing.

NEW HAVEN, June 6.—The tug Rambler was blown to splinters at Belle Dock, at 10:30 o'clock this morning, and Engineer William Weimar was badly scalded and Fred Weller, a cook, is missing. In all probability Weller was killed, for no trace of him can be found.

The engineer is so badly hurt that no account of what was done previous to the explosion can be obtained.

It is known from theory how that there was no water in the boiler, and the sudden influx caused the explosion.

The Rambler was owned by the New England and Empire Transportation Company, and was one of the largest tugs hauling from this port. The Walsh was badly damaged by flying splinters. Pieces of the boiler were blown half a mile. If any of the hull is intact it has sunk.

BRICKS FELL ON THEM.

Three Laborers Injured While at Work in Thompson Street. By the tumbling over of a huge pile of bricks next to an excavation being made for the foundation of a new building at 62 Thompson street three workmen were seriously injured at 11 o'clock this morning.

The names of the injured were Patrick Carney, whose home is in Fifty-fourth street between Second and Third avenues; Michael Malahan, of 43 West Fifty-second street, and Thomas DeWalt, of 42 East Second street.

They were at work with a number of other laborers in the excavation, which had been dug up to the brick pile. Suddenly, without warning, a big chunk of the pile toppled over, almost burying Carney and Malahan.

All three were quickly rescued and a doctor for an ambulance turned in to St. Vincent's Hospital, where the men were removed after their wounds had been dressed.

They were all badly cut about the head and arms, and suffered numerous contusions of other portions of the body. It is believed that two of the men were fatally injured.

WEALER FATALLY HURT.

Fry's Army Spills and Attempts to Capture Trains. PARKERSBURG, W. Va., June 6.—Fry's Commonwealth army split into three sections yesterday. One party started over the pike for Washington; another division walked along the Baltimore and Ohio tracks, while the third, fifty-two in number, remained in Parkersburg. Those who remained behind took possession of a Baltimore and Ohio freight train yesterday, but were arrested and lodged in jail.

It was reported last night that the party which started up the railroad tracks at three o'clock, had a passenger train, but that the trainmen and passenger fought them off. Two of the Communist leaders are said to have been hurt, one fatally.

It is said the Governor telegraphed the Sheriff to send a company of militia and use all efforts to capture the men who attempted to steal a passenger train.

FIVE COFFINS IN A ROW.

High Mass at Tarrytown Over the Little Victims of Poison. TARRYTOWN, June 6.—The little chapel of the Sisters of Mercy at this place presented a sad scene this forenoon when a high mass was sung over the five little inmates of the institution who were recently killed by eating a poisonous root dug up by laborers. Rev. Father Ryan, pastor of St. Theresa's Church and Chaplain of the institution, officiated.

The four were buried in a row before the altar, and the bodies of the fifth, Thomas Callahan, John Donnelly, James Porter, and Thomas Pasmore and Augustus Powers.

As most of the dead boys were orphaned, there were but few relatives present and the chief mourners were the Sisters. The interment was in the cemetery of the Sisters.

The seven boys still suffering from the effects of eating the root are thought to be out of danger.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT A MAN.

But Nevertheless Gunsmith Thorn is Held in $2,000 Bail. Henry Thorn, a gunsmith, of 223 Bowers, was held in $2,000 bail for examination in the Essex Market Police Court this morning, on a charge of felonious assault.

The complaint was made by Constantine J. McCarthy, of 32 Ross street, Brooklyn. McCarthy is an undertaker, and his brother William is a guard in the Kings County Penitentiary. The brothers went to Thorn's gun store, 223 Bowers, yesterday and he is negotiating with him for the purchase of a revolver, and while Thorn was showing them a 38-calibre revolver it exploded and the bullet went through William McCarthy's left arm.

The wounded man was taken to the Gouverneur Hospital and was unable to appear in court this morning.

Saved by His Shield. William J. McCarthy, a keeper in the Kings County Penitentiary, is in Gouverneur Hospital with a bullet hole in his arm, wishing he had noticed that the pistol he was looking at in Thorn's gun store, 223 Bowers, yesterday was loaded. He is negotiating with him for the purchase of a revolver, and while Thorn was showing them a 38-calibre revolver it exploded and the bullet went through William McCarthy's left arm.

The wounded man was taken to the Gouverneur Hospital and was unable to appear in court this morning.

Five Chinamen Killed. PORTLAND, Ore., June 6.—An explosion of gasoline at the Troy steam laundry yesterday resulted in five Chinamen being brought to death, and four being seriously injured. One of the injured will probably die. J. B. Henderson, one of the proprietors of the laundry, was badly hurt. The building and its contents were destroyed.

Servant Fatally Burned. KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 6.—A gasoline stove exploded in Adam Long's house, 125 Central street, last night and two servants, Mary Givna and Nora Keivel, were frightfully burned. Mary Givna died shortly afterwards, but the other girl will probably recover.

UTICA, ALL OUT.

Crocker's Colt Has Hard Work to Beat Monotony in the First Race.

REDSKIN A WINNER AT 7 TO 1. He Gets the Second Event—Glad Captures the Third at Morris Park.

(Special to the Evening World.) RACE TRACK, MORRIS PARK, June 6.—The weather made things most dismal here to-day. The rain fell in a steady drizzle all the afternoon, keeping every one under cover. Even the horses felt the dispiriting influence and ran in a listless manner.

The track was slow, and the several thousand persons at attendance wished they had stayed at home. In the ring the aspect was funeral-like. It was very dark, and myriads of candles burning in the bookmakers' stands made one imagine he was at a big wake.

The passengers who took the 1:50 train from White avenue arrived after the first race was over. Almost an hour was consumed in making a journey that ordinarily takes less than fifteen minutes, caused by a freight train, which the railroad people stupidly sent out in front of the race track special, being stalled on a bill, and the trip over it had to be made in two sections.

The opening event went to Utica, as nine out of ten predicted. It was no easy thing, however, for Monotony got so close at one time that Sims had to rouse Mr. Crocker's colt to win by a length and a half.

Rosita led the lead for three furlongs, and then cut it. Miss Annie colt was not well up for a part of the journey. Utica was a prohibitive favorite, and the bookies did business with the favorite barred. Monotony being the choice.

FIRST RACE. Sweepstakes of $15 each, with $1,000 added; for two-year-olds; six furlongs. Betting: Str. Hill, Fin. 11/16; 12/16; 1/2; 3/4; 1; 1 1/4; 1 1/2; 1 3/4; 2; 2 1/4; 2 1/2; 3; 3 1/4; 3 1/2; 4; 4 1/4; 4 1/2; 5; 5 1/4; 5 1/2; 6; 6 1/4; 6 1/2; 7; 7 1/4; 7 1/2; 8; 8 1/4; 8 1/2; 9; 9 1/4; 9 1/2; 10; 10 1/4; 10 1/2; 11; 11 1/4; 11 1/2; 12; 12 1/4; 12 1/2; 13; 13 1/4; 13 1/2; 14; 14 1/4; 14 1/2; 15; 15 1/4; 15 1/2; 16; 16 1/4; 16 1/2; 17; 17 1/4; 17 1/2; 18; 18 1/4; 18 1/2; 19; 19 1/4; 19 1/2; 20.

SECOND RACE. Handicap sweepstakes for all ages; 1
