

GIRL ABDUCTED, MOTHER THINKS

Fears Katy Gross, Who Strange-ly Disappeared After Leaving Home for School, Has Been Kidnapped.

IS SURE DAUGHTER HAS NO SWEETHEART.

Schoolmates Say, However, that Man with Gold Teeth Was Attentive to Her and Often Walked with Her.

That sixteen-year-old Katy Gross, who disappeared from the home at No. 232 West Seventy-first street, where she was surrounded with every luxury, has been kidnapped and is held a prisoner by unscrupulous persons was the belief expressed by her mother to a reporter for The Evening World to-day.

The missing girl was a pupil at the Pratt Institute, in Ryerson street, Brooklyn. She is bright and unusually attractive. She always has been a serious student and, her mother said, her young mind never has been inflamed with any romantic ideas. Both her teachers, parents and friends insist that no young man has ever paid her any attention.

All this past year Katy has been exceedingly punctual in her attendance at school. In order to make the trip to Brooklyn in time she has been in the habit of leaving her home at 7 o'clock in the morning. Sometimes she was escorted by a maid and at other times she was allowed to make the journey alone, her parents feeling that she was thoroughly competent to take care of herself.

She started for school at the usual hour on Wednesday morning, but never arrived there. In fact her friends and relatives have not obtained the slightest trace of her since and are frantic over her disappearance.

Mother Almost Insane. "I am almost insane," said Mrs. Gross to-day. "For every effort we have made to discover some trace of our little girl has failed. The report that has been spread of her eloping with a young man distinguished by two gold teeth is absurd. No one has brought us any information about her meeting with a young man, and we have made inquiries that she had no such acquaintance."

"Katy was not one of these flighty-headed girls, who rave about young men and concentrate their entire thoughts on marriage. She was what you might call of a serious turn, a student and a very matter-of-fact child. She has never had any boy or man call upon her in the romantic sense and never maintained a correspondence with one of the opposite sex.

A Material Difference.

MUSICIANS are delightfully palatable and healthful, yet some species of Toadstools so closely resemble the toothsome Mushroom as to make it dangerous to experiment with uncertainties. And so it is with Castoria and its imitations. Keep the Castoria that bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher ever in your mind's eye as the Mushroom. And be as particular to remember the counterfeits, substitutes and "just as good" kind as the Toadstools. There may be a resemblance in the package, but the results obtained are so widely different as to make the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher the important feature when buying Castoria.

Why should not our preparation be superior to all other children's remedies? Have not eminent physicians from the Atlantic to the Pacific testified to its perfection? Castoria that bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is the acme of chemical art as applied to a child's medicine.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

suggest some theory for explaining her disappearance. When she left home she had only 35 cents in her purse. She took no clothing or article of toilet with her, so I am confident that when she left home she had no other purpose in view than going straight to her school.

"That she has been kidnapped and is now a prisoner in the hands of unscrupulous persons, is the only solution I have for her failure to return to us. She was very democratic and prone to sympathize with strangers who related to her any story of distress."

"Man with Gold Teeth" Attentive. "I fear that she met some one who told her a false story of distress and led her to some place where she was made a prisoner. I hate to think of what may happen to our child and am almost mad with fear for her safety."

Though Mrs. Gross will not entertain the idea that Katy might have had a love affair, her fellow-pupils are discussing a report that she had a beau, known about the school as "the man with the gold teeth."

It is said that when she left the school in the afternoon this young man would accompany her to the bridge, and often brought her presents of candy and flowers. These she never took home, according to her parents.

The young girl weighed 155 pounds, had dark hair and gray eyes and a light skin. She was dressed in a plain blue dress with white dots and wore a black jacket.

HORSE OWNER'S NECK BROKE

Robert Steel, Who Had a Famous Breeding String, Found Dead.

DOVERSTOWN, Pa., June 3.—Robert Steel, a wealthy wholesale liquor dealer of Philadelphia, was found lying at the foot of an outside stairway leading to a store. It is supposed that he fell, but the coroner is investigating. Steel was sixty years old, and for many years had been a noted breeder of trotting horses. He was the owner of the Grand Vie wauchoo farm near here, where he kept such famous breeders as Happy Medium, Woodnut, Antarello, Peddler and Epaulat.

LEWISOHN TAKES THE REST CURE

Millionaire Broker's Nerves Give Way Because of District-Attorney Jerome's Attempts to Make Him Testify.

The strain attendant upon his efforts to defeat District-Attorney Jerome's determination to make him testify in the Canfield matter is said to have caused a nervous collapse on the part of Jesse Lewisohn, the millionaire broker. He is now ill in bed in his apartments at Sherry's.

His recent operations in the street are said to have contributed to the drain.

upon his nerves, and his strength began to fail. He was advised to seek rest in the country, but refused to go.

At Sherry's it is said he is taking the rest cure, having been ordered by his physician to remain in bed a week.
