The Wanamaker Store.

A Shoe Story Worth Reading

18,000 Pairs of Men's Tan and Russet Shoes, Regularly $3, $4 and $5, at One Dollar and Ninety Cents a Pair

This is an illustration of the retailing power of the Wanamaker Stores and a demonstration of the price-cutting force of that power properly exerted.

There are eighteen thousand pairs of Men's colored Summer shoes in the purchase. New York gets 8,000 pairs of them. They come from noted Massachusetts factories about to start on their winter orders and anxious to be free from the responsibilities of remaining summer goods. A sale of this kind is common in the Fall,—we push it ahead two months and make it of use to you.

There are few better shoes than these made. These are not cheap shoes. Their prices to-day in all stores, save this, are $3, $3.50, $4 and $5 a pair.

You may choose at $1.90 a pair. It rests with you what priced shoes you choose.

All sizes from 5 to 10, all widths from A to E, all toe-shapes known to this season.

WOULDN'T you like to make your end-of-the-week outing on a wheel? Is it a question of expense? Look into the methods of the easy-monthly-payments of the Wanamaker Wheel Club. A Continental for $5 per month.

Men's Madras Golf Shirts HERE is $2,500 worth of Shirts that we will sell to-day for $1,250. You may have one or a dozen of them, at Fifty Cents each, which is exactly half their established retail price.

Good patterns — very good — and plenty to choose from. One pair of detachable cuffs with each shirt, and a dollar value if ever there was one.

Men's Night Shirts, 40c. IF you paid $1 you'd get no better, and we know stores where a dollar will not get you so good. Fine muslin, full cut, pearl buttons, well made, Forty Cents each.

Again, the Ten-Cent Collars YOU took all we had again last Friday and Saturday, but we've hustled in more. We tell you positively that this collar will look as well and wear better than any 25c. collar you can name. It comes in every shape and size that is on this season's market. Ten cents each, or fifty cents a half-dozen. There's an easy economy.

We have cuffs of the same class at two pairs for a quarter. It's like giving you one pair.

Men's Light-weight Sweaters ONE hundred and fifty fine ones from a Frenchman who had too many. They make good sweaters where these came from. They are light-weight but not flimsy,—close woven and firm; in white, blue or black, with Roman stripe collar and cuffs.

The importer has been getting five dollars at wholesale for these goods. Our price at retail to-day will be Three Dollars each.

Men's Furnishing Store, Ninth street.

Men's Ready-to-Wear Clothing THREE strong items that speak for themselves and need no introduction. 130 Sack Suits in fancy cheviots and plain worsteds, that were $15 and $20, for Twelve Dollars a Suit.

Men's fine Trousers, made from English Worsteds, and the best $5 trousers you ever saw, at Three-Fifty Each Pair.

Two hundred pairs Men's Linen Crash Trousers, made strongly with belt loops and flannel waist band and a long turn-up,

Dollar-and-a-Half a Pair.

Handkerchiefs for Men THIS is decidedly an unusual thing. We do not often particularize the men's side of the handkerchief stock in offering bargains, but it happens that way this time.

We have four special numbers that are marked very low. There's no reason for it except that we bought them that way. The goods are all right, as you will see.

First, Men's Plain Hemstitched Handkerchiefs, at 12½c. each.
Second, Men's Unlaundered Initial Handkerchiefs, at $1.35 a dozen.
Third, Plain Hemstitched Handkerchiefs, at $2.25 a dozen.
Fourth, Men's Novelty French Handkerchiefs, at 75c. each.

All are all-linen, of course. These prices may not convey much of the bargain idea to you until you have seen the goods. They are very low, as you will then recognize.

Broadway.

Chocolate-covered Cream Cherries A PLUMP, freshly preserved cherry, rolled in cream, with a covering of chocolate. A mouthful to make you blink your eyes. It's a specialty of our candy man, and we sell a pound of it for twenty cents. So you see the price is a specialty, too.

Candies here are always pure and always fresh and always fairly priced; —priced on a business basis, with no charge for anything but just the candy. That's probably why we have the largest candy store in New York, and wish we had still more room for it.

Basement.

One Hundred Summer Dresses for Women—$2.25 YOU must not call them "House Dresses," for they are altogether too pretty and too elaborate to be confined to house use. They are made from linens and percales, and they are very good dresses, indeed, yet very inexpensive. There is nothing about them that isn't neat and stylish and pretty; the patterns used are especially attractive.

Yet only $2.25 for the whole dress. They are sorts that have been selling at from $4.50 to $7.50.

Not on sale until half past nine this morning.

Second floor, Broadway.

Girls' Pretty Summer Dresses THERE are only 100 of them —wish there were more. You'll probably echo that wish if you come late to-day. They'll be ready at the opening of the store. The lot comprises dresses of lawns, percales and ginghams, in attractive patterns and colorings, stylishly made and elegantly trimmed with embroidery, insertion and lace. Some plain white ones. Sizes 4 to 14 years. They were $2.25 to $3.50;—mostly $2.75 and $3 values. A quick choice to-day at $1.75 each.

Second floor, Broadway.

More of the $3 and $4 Hats THERE seems to be no end to the demand for the trimmed Summer hats we are turning out at $3 and $4. Here are fifty more this morning, and they'll be gone by Monday.

The art and taste and skill and handicraft of these little masterpieces cannot be measured by any $3 and $4 standards. The secret of it is, that they who make them are they who, in busier millinery times, are engaged on the highest class productions known to the trade. We know the cost of their talents, but you will never learn it from these hats, because it isn't figured in the prices at all. If it were, twice the prices wouldn't buy them.

Second floor, Tenth street.

Shirt Waist Sets; Pretty, but Low-Priced YOU can afford a set for each waist when they're to be procured as cheaply as these. The assortment is extensive enough to suit all tastes. Some with colored stones, set in narrow gilt bands, for only 15c. Others of sterling silver up to $2.50. A few more:

At 25c. and 50c.—In Roman or bright gilt, large or small buttons; dumbbell or links; plain, enamelled or jewelled. Some pearl, coral or jet sets at same prices. Also some of sterling silver.
At 75c. to $2—Sterling silver, enamelled in all colors.
At 85c. to $1.75—Sterling silver, enamelled in all college colors.
Separate studs in sterling or gilt at 25c. and 50c. a set; college flag pins, enamelled on silver, at 50c. to 75c.; fan chains, in gilt or sterling silver, many kinds, at 25c. to $5.

Broadway.

Vacation Shoes for Boys and Girls THESE are built to stand the hardest knocks, the kicking and scuffling of tireless little feet during the Summer play time. Still they're not awkward nor ill-looking, and, moreover, they're far from high-priced. Of tan kid and goatskin; all have spring heels; D and E widths. Hard to find equals anywhere as cheap as these:

Sizes, 5 to 10½, 90c. Sizes, 11 to 2, $1.

Fourth avenue and Ninth street.

Boys' Wash Suits HERE'S a very good item. There are 200 of the little suits, which won't be enough. Made from Linen Crash and English Galateas and some in Blue Denim. Very prettily trimmed, and "Wanamaker quality" all through. Some of these were $1.75, some were $3.50. It rests with you whether you save 50c. or $2.25 on each suit, for the price for the lot is

One-Twenty-Five a Suit.

Second floor, Fourth avenue.
